Signs Protest Present Setup

Supporters, Foes Shape Next Steps In Sex Fight

Supporters of the city schools' sex education course today were planning a meeting to counter opposition to the program, which was punctuated this morning by parents with signs at Westgate School.

The board of education was scheduled to convene in an informal session tonight to consider a decision on a request by the opponents for separate, classes for boys and girls and some revisions of the texts.

A MEEING of supporters of the course is planned Wednesday night at 8:30 at the Potters Savings & Loan Co. branch at the St. Clair Plaza.

Mrs. Fred Crossen of Vine St., one of the organizers, said letters from a number of physicians backing the course will be read. Assistant School Supt. Carl Pelini and the Rev. Gene Toot of the Trinity United Presbyterian Church will speak, along with Miss Selma Ladzinske, city health nurse. Fr. Joseph Fata, assistant pastor of St. Aloysius Church, will attend.

MEETINGS of opponents of the mixed classes were held Saturday night at the Salvation Army Citadel and Sunday afternoon at the former Pleasant Heights School.

Robert Bartram of Olnhausen St., a spokesman for those in opposition, said parents believe the classes should be separated at the seventh - grade level because the children are not mature enough for such instruction.

About 16 parents walked in front of the Westgate School this morning in protest against the program as now set up.

Spokesmen for the group said they will picket every day this week, and that they plan to attend the board's meeting tonight, even though it is not open to the public.

London 'Quiet' Following Anti-War Demonstration

LONDON (AP) — Police on Sunday contained and controlled the largest demonstrations against the Vietnam war ever held in London and repelled a small attack on the U.S. Embassy without using nightsticks.

The only serious damage reported was not in London but at the John F. Kennedy Memorial at Runnymede, west of the capital. An explosion Saturday night split the seven-ton stone slab down the middle.

Police estimated about 30,000 persons marched through London, all but a few hundred peacefully. Some 7,000 demonstrated in Grosvenor Square, site of the American Embassy, and 200 to 300 extremists broke away for a flying wedge attack on the big white building.

As thick cordons of police barred their way, the red-helmeted Maoists and anarchists threw firecrackers at mounted police waiting in reserve. Some hurled banner poles as spears. Then they charged the police lines with iron pipes.

Police Lines Hold

The police slowly pushed and shoved the militants back, penning them into the southwest corner of the square and stopping any attempt to break out. Gradually the young demonstrators ran out of steam and drifted away. London was quiet again by 9 p.m.

Casualty figures were low. Five policemen and about 40 demonstrators received medical treatment, although hundreds more had minor cuts and bruises.

Thirty-nine demonstrators were arrested, for carrying chains, sticks and bottles as "offensive weapons" and for a brief burst of window-smashing and bottle-throwing in the exclusive Mayfair district around the embassy as the crowd broke up.

Defending the British tradition of peaceful protest, Home Secretary James Callaghan had resisted strong pressure to ban the demonstration.

Statement Issued

Later Callaghan issued a statement: "This was a demonstration of British good sense. Self-control was shown by the mass of demonstrators, and by the police who remained completely calm under the provocation of disorderly charging. I doubt this sort of demonstration could have taken place as peacefully in any other part of the world."

The demonstration had been billed by the organizers as a "day of revolution." Militant circles had buzzed with rumors that government buildings, banks, the stock exchange and conservative newspapers would be stormed and occupied. None was.

The London School of Economics was occupied by its students for the weekend as a hostel and casualty station for demonstrators. After threatening to extend their occupation indefinitely, like the students in Paris last spring, they left quietly Sunday night.

No Bank Robbery Here

CENTRALIA, Ill. (AP) — Officers were called when neighbors watched a masked youth carry what appeared to be a rifle into the First State Bank of Centralia.

Police with rifles and shotguns surrounded the structure as two armed officers entered.

Inside they found a Halloween masquerade party sponsored by the First Christian Church of Centralia. The bank had granted the church's Sunday School permission to use the facilities.

Flurries Due As Weather Turns Colder

The forecast calls for cloudy and cooler tonight and Tuesday, with occasional showers mixed with the snow. Tonight's low will be in the mid - 30s.

Temperatures will average below normal through Saturday, with daily highs in the low 40-low 50 degree range and nighttime lows mostly in the 30s. It will be quite cool most days during this period.

Precipitation will total one-third to two - thirds of an inch as showers or snow flurries mostly during the second half of the period.

Sunday afternoon temperatures were mostly in the 60s, but the cold weather moved into Ohio today.

Showers hit northwestern Ohio this morning and were expected to spread across the north and east portions of the state by late this afternoon and change to snow flurries.

Lisbon St. Legislation May Not Face Council

Legislation designed to clear the last hurdle for improvement of Lisbon St. (State Route 267) may not be ready for presentation to Council tonight, as scheduled, Mayor George E. Willshaw said today.

The legislation received from the Ohio Highway Department provides that the entire $45,000 local share will be paid by the city, but since it was written the county government has agreed to contribute $20,000, the mayor explained. The change will require alteration of the legislation and the changes may not be made in time for tonight's meeting, he explained. Council will meet on other matters, however.

The highway department advised the mayor it hopes to open bids on the widening and resurfacing project Nov. 26, provided the enabling legislation is received by Wednesday.

Cosmonaut Continuing Earth Orbit

2nd, Unmanned Craft's Returned After Maneuvers

MOSCOW (AP) — The unmanned Soviet space ship Soyuz 2 landed in the Soviet Union today after three days in space, Tass announced, but Cosmonaut Gorgy Beregovoy continued in orbit in the sister ship Soyuz 3.

Beregovoy had followed the unmanned ship in tandem around the earth for two days and during this period had maneuvered his Soyuz 3 so as to approach the pilotless sister ship.

If any attempt was made to link up the manned and unmanned ships, something the Russians have not done, it was not announced. Tass, the Soviet news agency, said Soyuz 2's "program for checking its system and for joint maneuvering and approach of the spaceships Soyuz 2 and Soyuz 3 was fully carried out."

Continues Orbits

Meanwhile, Beregovoy was reported to have completed his 33rd orbit of the earth, and "all the systems of the ship continue to function normally," Tass said.

Tass said a retro engine was switched on aboard Soyuz 2 on command from earth and 26 minutes later the spaceship "entered the dense layers of the atmosphere, made a controlled descent with aerodynamic quality and landed. It was parachuted down with the use of a soft-landing system at the last stage."

The announcement did not give the location of the landing.

Earlier today a Soviet scientist said the pupose of Beregovoy's flight is to develop docking systems, essential for Russia's announced program of eventually constructing huge orbiting platforms in space to serve as launch pads for rockets to the moon and planets.

The statement by Boris Petrov of the Soviet Academy of Scientists was made in Pravda, the Communist party newspaper, after Beregovoy maneuvered his Soyuz 3 spacecraft Sunday in a second approach to the unmanned Soyuz 2 launched a day before him.

An official announcement did not indicate how close he came either time.

There was no indication how long the Soviet cosmonaut would stay up.

Official reports said Beregovoy, at 47 the oldest of the 33 humans who have flown in space, was in good shape, "retaining a high capacity for work" and "successfully fulfilling his program of space research."

During one of three live television transmissions from Soyuz 3, Beregovoy was shown leaning from his seat to look at the earth. He gave a thumbs up gesture to express pleasure at the view.

Beregovoy's spaceship is similar to Soyuz 1, which crashed in April 1967, killing Cosmonaut Vladimir M. Komarov. Soyuz 1 had been expected to attempt a linkup with another manned craft, which increases speculation that Beregovoy may try the same thing.

Tass said Soyuz 3 was circling the earth each 88.6 minutes with its maximum distance from the earth 157 miles and its minimum 112.

Judge Tobin Remains In Guarded Condition

Judge Louis Tobin, 61, of 1925 St. Clair Ave., juvenile and probate judge for Columbiana County for 17 years, remains in "guarded" condition at City Hospital, where he was admitted late Saturday night.

Masked Men Get $7,700 At Motel

Removal of a safe containing $7,700 by three masked men from the Holiday Inn at Waterford Park early this morning was being investigated today by Hancock County sheriff's deputies.

The three, wearing stockings over their heads, entered the Route 66 motor lodge about 1:30 and told the night clerk to do as he was told and he would not be harmed.

The clerk reported they appeared to be unarmed.

Two of the men entered a private office and removed a 22-by-32-by-26-inch safe while the third taped the wrists and mouth of the clerk, whom deputies did not identify.

Guests found the clerk a short time afterward, and notified deputies.

The clerk was unable to tell how the three men left, but he said they used a dollie to haul the safe out the door.

Deputies said the safe contained at least $7,700 in cash, and were seeking to determine what other valuables may have been in the loot.

Dinner Event At Salem

HHH's Sister Awaited As Guest Of Democrats

An inside-the-family view of the Democratic presidential candidate will be given Columbiana County Democrats by Mrs. Frances Humphrey Howard during the annual Jefferson-Jackson Day dinner Saturday night at Salem.

Mrs. Howard, sister of Hubert Humphrey, will be guest speaker for the event at 6:30 p.m. in St. Paul's Auditorium on E. State St.

Mrs. Howard of Arlington, Va., has been a career federal civil servant. She received a bachelor and master's degree in sociology at George Washington University and has done advanced work in international relations at Johns Hopkins University. Her husband, Ray Howard, a physican, died in 1959.

In 1960 she passed a civil service examination and joined the Agency for International Development (AID), serving as liaison with voluntary foreign service organizations such as CARE, Catholic Relief Service, Lutheran World Service and Joint - Jewish Distribution Committee. She resigned Oct. 4 to work in her brother's campaign.

She has a son, William Howard, 22, a law student at the University of Minnesota, and a daughter, Anne Howard, 19, who attends Boston University.

Rep. Wayne L. Hays, 18th District Congressman seeking reelection, will also speak, Don R. Gosney, county Democrat chairman, announced. District and county candidates for office in the Nov. 5 general election will attend.

Hearing Under Way In Shooting Charge

LISBON — William James Irwin, 23, of 81 Williamson Ave., Youngstown, went on trial this morning in Common Pleas Court on a charge of assault with a dangerous weapon (a .25-caliber pistol).

He is accused of shooting Ronald Bailey, 20, of 640 Henry Ave., Wellsville, last May 4 on 25th St. Heights, Wellsville.

HHH, Nixon To Campaign Through Ohio

Candidates Ready For Strong Drives In Buckeye State

By The Associated Press

The last full week of campaigning before the elections began today with Hubert H. Humphrey's arrival in Northeast Ohio. He'll be followed into Ohio this week by Richard M. Nixon, Edmund Muskie and Sens. John Tower, Charles Percy and Edward Brooke.

Humphrey landed at Akron-Canton airport this morning for a day of campaigning with stops in Akron, Canton, Cleveland and the surrounding area.

Democratic U.S. Senate candidate John Gilligan was to join Humphrey during his Akron visit today. Gilligan also has stops scheduled this week in Canton, Kent, Youngstown, Toledo and Cincinnati.

He and his Republican foe William B. Saxbe will confront one another Friday in a debate at Cleveland's City Club. That appearance will come near the end of a three-day, ten-city blitz by Saxbe.

Mishap Kills Salem Couple And Youth, 16

SALEM — A Salem couple, returning home after visiting a son in Cleveland, was killed almost instantly Sunday night in a violent collision on Route 14 in Portage County in which a 16-year-old Garfield Heights youth who allegedly had fled the Juvenile Diagnostic Center and had stolen a car 10 minutes earlier in Berlin Center, was injured fatally.

Mr. Rottenborn, operator of the Jennings Corner Grocery for 23 years, was pronounced dead at the scene of the crash, midway between Route 59—formerly Route 5—and Edinburg, while his wife was pronounced dead on arrival at Robinson Memorial Hospital in Ravenna.

Wyland Acts As 'Boycott' Hits System

No Talks Indicated In Group's Action Over Wage Dispute

Hancock County's some 10,000 public school pupils were dismissed from classes this morning as the result of a boycott of the schools by the non-certificated personnel in a wage dispute.

Dr. Vernon Wyland, county superintendent of schools, ordered classes suspended at 10.

He said they will be discontinued "until further notice." Authorities indicated no talks have been scheduled between the members of the county's School Service Personnell Association and the board of education.

Dr. Wyland said an attempt was made to conduct school despite the failure of bus drivers, custodians and others to report to work. However, because of the problem of heating the buildings, it was found necessary to close.

A number of the buildings have coal furnaces, it was pointed. Principals in most of the buildings attempted to operate the various heating systems.

The school lunch program was also unable to operate because drivers of vehicles hauling food from the central kitchen at Weirton did not report for work.

The dispute centers on the SSPA's requests for increased pay, job security and working condition requests.

The Rev. George Stewart of New Cumberland, president of the SSPA, issued the following statement this morning:

"We say again the Board of Education has made no attempt to discuss with us or our legal representative at any time. A letter requesting such a meeting for discussion and negotiations was sent by our legal adviser to each Board of Education member on the 17th and 18th of October 1968. So far no answer has been made by the Board of Education or the Superintendent. The only reply has been his telling each of the Service Personnel if we did not report for work on Monday we would lose our jobs.

"As to the money sent by the state, why didn't Dr. Wyland give the whole story and give the amount received of which was the intent of the legislature that two-thirds was to go for service personnel salary increases. "He made the statement that no employe suffered a loss on the hourly rate. This is not true, as some of the secretaries were cut five cents on the hour.

Prague Hit By Anti-Red Disturbance

PRAGUE (APH(— Several hundred Czechoslovak students shouting "better dead than shame" marched on Prague Castle today as President Ludvik Svoboda was presiding at a celebration of the 50th anniversary of Czechoslovakia's independence.

Police hastily formed and blocked the students while the gates to the palace courtyard were padlocked.

Several times the crowd, which included many girls, rushed against the police lines but they held.

There had been concern among the leaders of Czechoslovakia's Communist party that students and others might use the anniversary to demonstrate against Soviet occupation of their country and that this would provoke reaction from the Russians. The leaders went to great lengths to make clear that demonstrations might bring Soviet tanks back into the capital.

"We say again the Board of Education has made no attempt to discuss with us or our legal representative at any time. A letter requesting such a meeting for discussion and negotiations was sent by our legal adviser to each Board of Education member on the 17th and 18th of October 1968. So far no answer has been made by the Board of Education or the Superintendent. The only reply has been his telling each of the Service Personnel if we did not report for work on Monday we would lose our jobs.

"As to the money sent by the state, why didn't Dr. Wyland give the whole story and give the amount received of which was the intent of the legislature that two-thirds was to go for service personnel salary increases. "He made the statement that no employe suffered a loss on the hourly rate. This is not true, as some of the secretaries were cut five cents on the hour.

Prague Hit By Anti-Red Disturbance

PRAGUE (APH(— Several hundred Czechoslovak students shouting "better dead than shame" marched on Prague Castle today as President Ludvik Svoboda was presiding at a celebration of the 50th anniversary of Czechoslovakia's independence.

Police hastily formed and blocked the students while the gates to the palace courtyard were padlocked.

Several times the crowd, which included many girls, rushed against the police lines but they held.

There had been concern among the leaders of Czechoslovakia's Communist party that students and others might use the anniversary to demonstrate against Soviet occupation of their country and that this would provoke reaction from the Russians. The leaders went to great lengths to make clear that demonstrations might bring Soviet tanks back into the capital.

Trial Planned On Vandalism

LISBON — Arraignment is scheduled at 2 p.m. Nov. 26 in Juvenile Court for a 17-year-old North Lima boy charged with breaking plate glass windows along S. Main St. in Columbiana early Thursday.

Judge Louis Tobin appointed John Hutson, Columbiana attorney, to represent the youth who has been in detention since his arrest Thursday morning. He was returned to detention yesterday in lieu of $2,000 bond.

The youth's companion, Dean L. Morrison, 18, of North Lima, was charged in County Eastern Court at East Palestine with malicious destruction of property and will be arraigned this afternoon. Judge D. Barry Dickson asked Common Pleas Court to appoint counsel for Morrison, who said he is unable to employ a lawyer.

In another case of vandalism yesterday, Sheriff Russell J. Van Fossan filed affidavits in Southwest Court here charging Thomas A. Pyatt, 19, of Duck Creek Rd., Salem RD 4, and Robert L. Stryffler, 19, of Beloit RD 2, with malicious destruction of property. They are accused of breaking windows at the homes of Robert Corfee, Carl Davner and James Palmer North of Lisbon.

The defendants were released after posting bond of $150 on each of the three counts of malicious destruction.

The same complaint was filed against a 17-year-old Salem RD 4 boy in Juvenile Court. He was released to the custody of his parents. Sheriff's deputies apprehended the trio about 4:30 a.m. yesterday and said they admitted throwing rocks at houses.

Road Reopened

LISBON — West Township Road 709 (Lippincott Rd.) was reopened Friday after the replacing of an old steel-truss bridge with a 33-foot steel-beam span, according to John Ursu, Columbiana County engineer. The replacement was completed in two weeks.

Absentee Ballots Exceed Totals In Last 2 Elections

Indicating a strong interest in the Nov. 5 general election, the number of absentee ballots applied for or issued to date by the County Election Board already exceeds the totals issued for the last two similar presidential elections, Miss Rebecca Resnick, director, said today.

The board has issued 745 ballots under the so-called "soldier voting" law to service personnel and their spouses and civilians residing temporarily outside the U.S. It has received 860 applications for conventional civilian absentee and disabled voters' ballots. Added together, the applications total 1,645 for the 1968 election.

The board issued 1,502 of the ballots for the presidential election in 1964 (the Johnson-Goldwater contest) and 1,592 in 1960, (the Kennedy-Nixon race).

The greater number of men in the armed forces may help account for the rush of soldier ballot applications, Miss Resnick said.

Civilian ballots may be issued until 4 p.m. Thursday. They must be returned to the board by noon Friday. Applications for soldier ballots may be filed until Saturday at noon. They may be returned as late as noon on election day.

New Mexico Court Gives Ruling On Law

SANTA FE, N.M., (AP) — A New Mexico law requiring a candidate for Congress to live in his congressional district has been ruled unconstituitonal.

The State Supreme Court said congressional candidates can live anywhere in the state and seek office from either of the two districts. This is the first year the state has been divided into two districts. New Mexicans previously voted on their two candidates at large.

Area Wreck Injures Man

An area man is "fairly good" at Salem City Hospital and a passenger in his auto was treated and released as the result of injuries received in a two-car accident on Route 114 Saturday afternoon.

George W. Richards, 57, of Lisbon RD 5 was driving a 1962 coach about a half-mile east of the Middle Beaver Rd. when his auto went left of center, striking a westbound 1966 coach operated by George W. Pershing, 41, of Negley RD 1, the Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon said.

Richards received lacerations of the forehead and abrasions of both hands and knees. Gloria Richards, 14, a passenger in his auto was treated for abrasions of both elbows and the right knee and thigh and released.

An East Liverpool area youth who was injured in a one-car accident on Dresden Ave. Ext. at 12:45 a.m. Sunday morning was treated at city hospital and released.

Thomas L. Kelly, 18, of Apples Corners lost control of his small sports convertible on a curve and it slid off the west side of the roadway and struck a guardrail. He was thrown out of the auto.

Kelly was treated for abrasions of the left knee and lacerations of the left cheek, and released.

Bruce C. Pastore, 17, of 433 N. Market St., Lisbon, was driving his 1965 coach east on Route 517, about a mile east of Lisbon at 2:05 p.m.. Sunday, when a dog ran onto the road.

Pastore's auto struck the dog and he lost control of his auto, which slid sideways, went off the north side of the road and rolled over. He was not injured.

Barges Secured After 'Drifting'

A cable on some barges moored on the West Virginia side of the Ohio River at the north end of Chester apparently loosened Sunday, with some of the barges drifting slightly away from the shore.

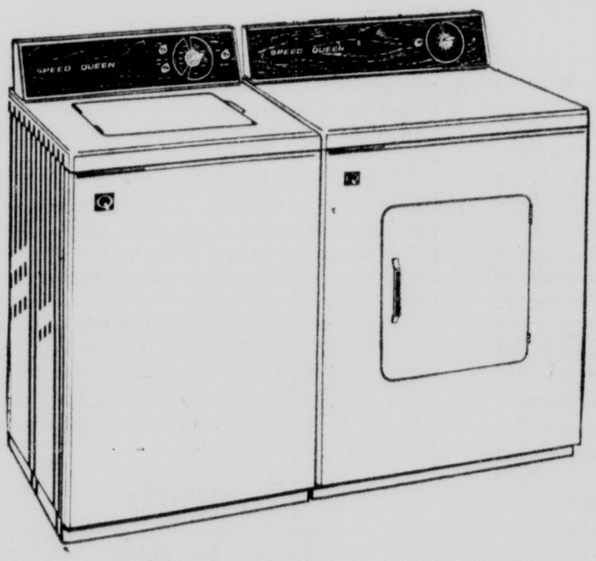

City police were alerted to the possibility of the barges breaking loose and drifting downstream, possibly hitting the weakened Chester Bridge. However, workers secured the barges safely, authorities reported later in the day.

CLEANING TIPS
From PRESSWELL
by Seckman

IT'S A LEATHER YEAR

You should, however, consider the cost of upkeep carefully when you buy either a suede or leather garment. The dyes used to achieve fashion colors on leather are partially or completely removed in cleaning. Therefore, each garment must be re-dyed and finished to shade after dry-cleaning. This requires individual custom handling . . . and this is why the cleaning charge is much higher than the charge made for a comparable cloth garment.

Leather garments will give you the best satisfaction in wear if you practice the following suggestions:

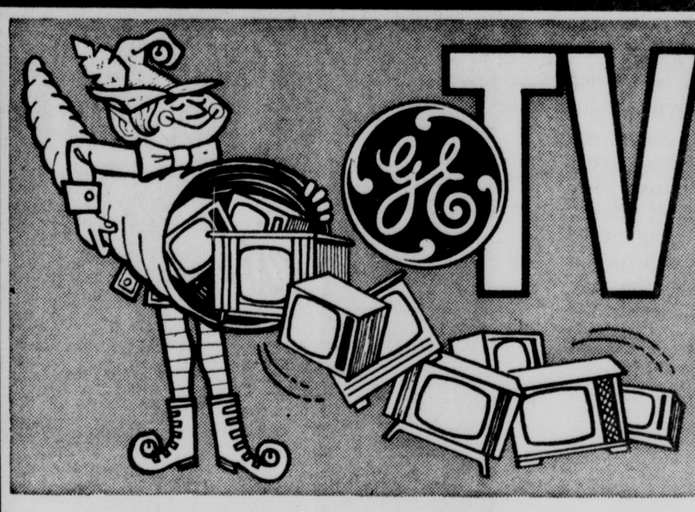

- PROTECT THE NECKLINE from makeup and hair preparations by wearing a scarf.
- PROTECT THE UNDERARM areas from perspiration by using dress shields.
- ALLOW YOUR GARMENT to hang between wearings where air circulates freely.
- PROTECT YOUR GARMENT from light on long exposure. Many dyes are affected by light.
- ALLOW A DAMP OR WET GARMENT to dry slowly, avoiding high temperature from heat.
- LEAVE STAIN REMOVAL to a professional leather cleaning specialist.
- DO NOT ALLOW YOUR GARMENTS to become too soiled before you have them cleaned.
- ALL PIECES of a matching ensemble should be cleaned and finished at the same time.
- CONSULT a drycleaner who specializes in handling of your leather or leather-trimmed garments.

A Wellsville resident has made a memorial gift to the interfaith chapel at West Liberty State College, President Paul N. Elbin has announced.

A narthex bench was presented by Miss Vera C. Delaney of 620 Main St. in memory of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Delaney, and her grandmother, Mrs. Sarah Calvert.

Struthers Girl Named Youngstown's Queen

Barges Secured After 'Drifting'

City police were alerted to the possibility of the barges breaking loose and drifting downstream, possibly hitting the weakened Chester Bridge. However, workers secured the barges safely, authorities reported later in the day.

CLEANING TIPS
From PRESSWELL
by Seckman

IT'S A LEATHER YEAR

You should, however, consider the cost of upkeep carefully when you buy either a suede or leather garment. The dyes used to achieve fashion colors on leather are partially or completely removed in cleaning. Therefore, each garment must be re-dyed and finished to shade after dry-cleaning. This requires individual custom handling . . . and this is why the cleaning charge is much higher than the charge made for a comparable cloth garment.

Leather garments will give you the best satisfaction in wear if you practice the following suggestions:

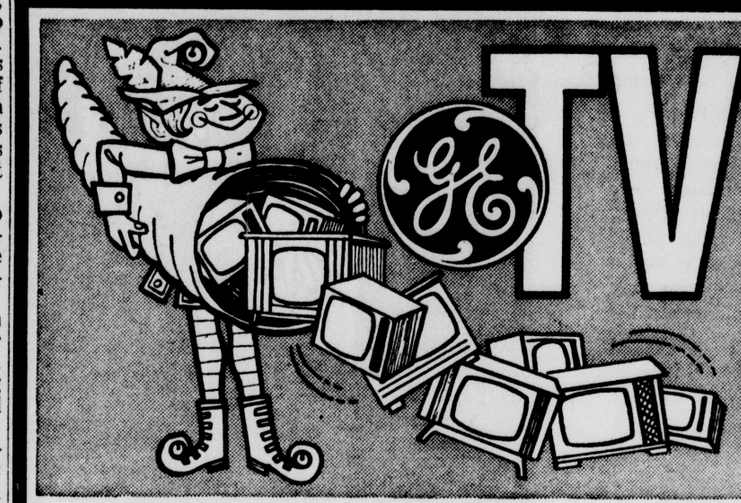

- PROTECT THE NECKLINE from makeup and hair preparations by wearing a scarf.
- PROTECT THE UNDERARM areas from perspiration by using dress shields.
- ALLOW YOUR GARMENT to hang between wearings where air circulates freely.
- PROTECT YOUR GARMENT from light on long exposure. Many dyes are affected by light.
- ALLOW A DAMP OR WET GARMENT to dry slowly, avoiding high temperature from heat.
- LEAVE STAIN REMOVAL to a professional leather cleaning specialist.
- DO NOT ALLOW YOUR GARMENTS to become too soiled before you have them cleaned.
- ALL PIECES of a matching ensemble should be cleaned and finished at the same time.
- CONSULT a drycleaner who specializes in handling of your leather or leather-trimmed garments.

Keep Halloween Happy

Halloween, which holds so much fun and excitement for youngsters—and adults with a sense of humor — brings two unwanted companions in the shadows of its haunting high jinx.

Too often trick or treat time is an excuse for empty-headed dolts to resort to vandalism.

And little "spooks" are in traffic danger on streets in their costumes during the dark hours.

Parents should remind themselves of the hazards of Halloween for their sons and daughters and for themselves.

Under Ohio law, parents are liable for their child's wilful damage, and an owner of property is entitled to recover actual damage to the amount of $800 plus court costs from the parents of any minor under 18 who is found guilty.

Purpose of the law is to fight juvenile delinquency, but Halloween tricks which fall into this serious category may not be much of a treat from mom and dad.

Special precautions should also be taken with the littler ones who will be out at night when visibility is limited, and who may be wearing dark costumes and vision-reducing masks.

Parents should make sure the costumes can be seen in the dark, or else the youngster should carry something white or reflectorized. They should counsel the child to stay off streets, obey all safety rules, and walk facing traffic where there are no sidewalks. Parents would do well to accompany the very young who may handle themselves well in daylight traffic but might panic at night.

Halloween should be kept a time for real enjoyment, not for malicious mischief or tragedy.

Letters To The Editor

Supports Sex Course

Much has been said in the paper these past few days concerning the sex education course being taught in our school system.

I for one am not opposed to it, and am sorry classes were suspended Friday as a result of unfavorable comment and demands made at the Board of Education meeting Monday evening.

A letter to the editor by Bob Bartram cries for truth and justice from the staff of your paper, yet I can't help but feel he either wasn't listening or attended a different meeting than I did.

He says four ministers were against the program asking only one change be made, no mixed classes.

Yet one made the statement that reading the book was committing adultery, and another said he was not from a broken home nor had he gotten any girls pregnant without the benefit of formal sex education. Another statement was made that the book as written was not fit to put in the hands of seventh grade students.

To me, this was not just a protest against mixed classes.

He also mentions a hand count of eight for and 78 against. True, however, he failed to mention that no one in favor of the program knew of this meeting. My wife and I found out because we were approached to attend in order to join in the protest.

He mentions doing as good citizens and good parents; he doesn't mention these people snickered and sneered as Rev. Gene Toot and Rev. D. Ross Salisbury spoke because they were of opposite opinions. I do not recall any laughter or snickering while those opposed spoke. To me this was not an act of good citizenship.

He said, "We're here to tell you, not threaten you, "yet in Friday's paper he says the board of education will concede or there will be demonstrations at our schools.

I heard references to "embarrassment to our children," but I wonder if the children are embarrassed or the parents when they realize the schools are trying to teach what they should have been teaching for many years.

As for the ability of the teachers, I do not know the man teacher. I did, however, attend school with Mrs. Wilson and I feel quite assured morally that I can entrust her with this facet of my seventh grade daughter's education. I am also sure this was utmost in the minds of those concerned when these two people were given the assignment of teaching sex education.

As an afterthought, where were some of these people so concerned with their children's education when the 12-mill operating levy used to run our schools was defeated recently.

I feel your reporter did a commendable job covering the board meeting, for it was hard to understand really what these people wanted.

Is it wrong to obey the rules of the game? The Calcutta Boosters Club thinks not, and we want the public to know of the circumstances.

The Calcutta Bulldogs have belonged to the Tri-State Little League Football League. The coach of our team, who was also president of the league, was given the names of two players who were average. Records of the boys at junior high school substantiated this information.

At a meeting of League officials, the facts were presented for action. A vote indicated a light penalty of forfeiture of the first three games played, and no action taken against the adult coaches.

Our coach then withdrew our team, the Bulldogs, from the League and he resigned as president of the League.

Membership of the Calcutta Booster Club unanimously backed the action in a membership meeting, and we want to commend our coaches for their devotions not only to the game but to the training of our boys.

WASHINGTON — Wall St. may face congressional hearings early next year on the question of "inside information." What it boils down to is that some unscrupulous investors and brokers are using their knowledge of confidential information to make money on company stocks.

Art Buchwald

The SEC (Securities and Exchange Commission), which is supposed to protect the public, feels that these "insiders" should be forbidden to cash in on things that nobody else knows anything about.

While this is a worthy investigation, I believe that Congress should investigate "outsider tips," which are doing far more damage to the market than "insider tips."

FOR EXAMPLE, just the other day while I was having my shoes shined, my bootblack told me that he had just shined the shoes of a man who told him to buy Federated Bobby Pins, which would soon merge with Amalgamated Curlers.

This bootblack had never given me a bad shine and I trusted him implicitly. So I called my broker and told him about it, not revealing the source of my information. He, in turn, told several of his clients who, in turn, told their bootblacks, and suddenly there was a run on Federated Bobby Pins.

The next time I saw my bootblack he said he had made a mistake. The man had said Federated Bowling Pins. I didn't even wait for the shine, but ran to the phone to call my broker, who was pretty upset. We all got out of Federated Bobby Pins and into Federated Bowling Pins, thus causing Federated Bobby Pins to lose 30 points by the time I was able to sell my shares.

THE NEXT TIME I went for my shine my bootblack said that there was some mixup in the tip. Federated Bowling Pins was not going to merge with Amalgamated Curlers, but was ordered by the government to divest itself of Amalgamated Dandruff. He felt since he got me in that he should tell me. He didn't have to. The Wall Street Journal had already reported it and FBP plummeted to an all-time low of 50 cents a share.

I was starting to have some doubts about my shoeshine boy but then the thought occurred to me that he must know something about the stock market or he wouldn't be shining shoes.

He told me was taking a flutter in Consolidated Heels, since he had noticed that half the people whose shoes he shined wore this type of heel.

That was good enough for me and I immediately put in a large order for Consolidated Heels, letting my broker in on it only because he had been so unlucky with Federated Bowling Pins. My broker, I discovered later, let his other clients in on it for the same reason and pretty soon trading in Consolidated Heels was suspended until they could catch up with the orders.

UNFORTUNATELY, the executives of Consolidated Heels got frightened at the sudden activity in their stock and they all sold out, causing the price to descend to the lowest it had been since the 1929 crash.

It was obvious by now that something was wrong. I had to do something about my investments or I would be wiped out completly.

The next time I got my shoes shined I brought up the subject with my bootblack, pointing out that every "outside tip" he had given me had gone haywire. He agreed with me and finally came up with a brilliant idea. He said, "If I were you I would change brokers."

Thoughts For The Day

"Only be strong and very courageous, being careful to do according to all the law which Moses my servant commanded you; turn not from it to the right hand or to the left, that you may have good success wherever you go." —Joshua 1:7.

VICTOR RIESEL

A New Resistance Is Born

NEW YORK — Unobserved by the rest of the land, the new resistance is sweeping this massive city. It was born more in sorrow than in anger — and then grew in cold fury. It is as peaceful as it is massive.

Victor Riesel

It is made up of the quiet people who have had just about enough of Black Panther terror talk, black militant racial and religious slurs, and black actionists' apartheid.

This is the full meaning of the teachers, police and firefighters job action. This will catch hold in a hundred cities.

This is the meaning of 50,000 of the quiet people, mostly white, but many black who surrounded the ancient City Hall here Thursday, Oct. 17.

This is the meaning of other demonstrations which recently have put two thousand, three thousand, five thousand onto the streets in lesser and unreported demonstrations.

They are weary with being told, privately and through bull horns that "blood will flow in the streets." They are fatigued with hearing televised extremists call them vicious racists who should drop dead. They are stunned by uniformed black cadre leaders who charge them with insensitivity, though it was these masses who marched with the late Rev. Martin Luther King Jr.; who raised millions of dollars for him and other Negro campaigns; who spent their own money and time fighting in the courts for school integration; who joined is marches over a decade, to Washington, to Selma, and on the streets of many cities.

THE TEACHERS, for example, were horrified ot learn that a member of the New York Board of Education had led a demonstration in front of the United Federation of Teachers headquarters here, during which vicious anti-Jewish slogans and epithets were mongered. Paraders carried a coffin and two menorahs (sacred candelabras) topped by lit candles. They distributed brutal anti-Jewish leaflets.

"Pray For Death at an Early Age For Adolph Shanker," one such throwaway read, referring to Albert Shanker, president of the UFT. The rest of the diatribe simply is too scurrilous to reprint here.

Yes, indeed, the distributors and paraders were led by a member of the New York Board of Education.

And so, teachers, many of whom are constantly harassed by midnight, anonymous, anti-religious telephone calls or find anti-Jewish leaflets in their mailboxes, at home or in schools, finally have had enough. They proved they too can demonstrate, they too can put masses into the streets, they too have "bite".

BASICALLY THE STORY, with variations on the theme, runs through the police and firefighters actions. The teachers want law and order in the schoolrooms. The uniformed forces want law and order on the streets — so they can fight crime and fire.

The police just don't want to be called "pigs," or to be ambushed.

Recently, during the same week that two cops rushed a Negro infant to a hospital and saved the child's life with mouth-to-mouth resuscitation, other uniformed men were being sniped at. Why?

No cop is perfect. No banker is perfect. One like the other just doesn't want to be called a "pig" — or worse. Especially not when his fellow officers are cut down, leaving widows and fatherless children, in the grim line of duty, protecting black and white alike.

Police have a big union here, and other such unions are sprouting like summer-lawn grass. Their job action has just begun to sweep the land.

Nor are the firefighters planning to be less militant. In the big cities they're sick of being hit by everything from metal milk cans to M-16 rifle and machine-gun fire. That was in Cleveland, according to their union leader there.

A MEMORANDUM BEFORE ME, prepared by the office of the International Assn. of Fire Fighters' new president, William H. McClennan, reveals that so severe have been some attacks on firefighters rushing to the slumstreet blazes, that some firemen have had to be rescued in armored Brinks trucks.

In New York City 56 men have been injured by attackers since last January. Everything has been thrown at firefighters across the land — two-by-four planks, aerosol cans, rocks, bottles, iron bars and explosive shells. They've had it — especially since they don't discriminate. A fire is a fire, and is fought in black and white communities alike.

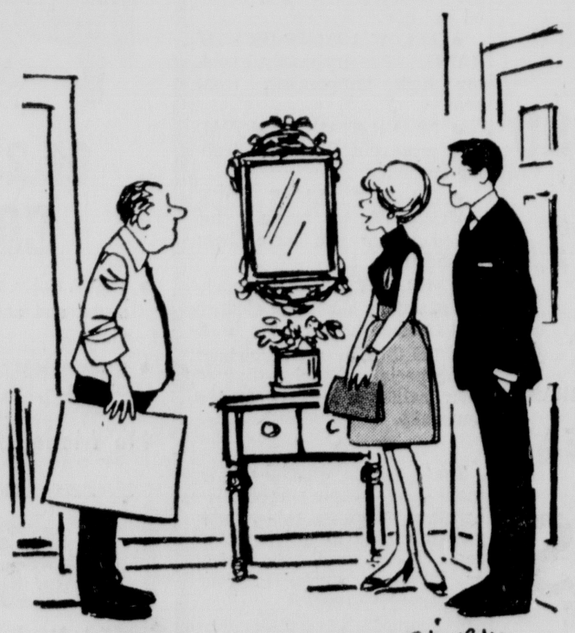

In the background are a host of other service unions, such as the Communications Workers of America, led by the usually gentle Joe Beirne. His union is beginning to sign contracts which provide for escorts to telephone installation and repairmen after dark — pacts which give the service worker the right to refuse assignments.

All these unions now make up the new resistance. They've had enough of mockery, enough of sacrilegious insults, enough of the calculated terror talk, such as warnings by militants that "we'll cleave and hack" and "the street will run red".

Here, the new resistance has a simple reply: we have been forbearing. Now we are putting our people into the streets — quietly, patiently, peacefully, to prove that the streets belong to all, not just to the loud and the bullies.

Bomb Halt Conjecture

Sometime between now and Nov. 5 — possibly during the week beginning Monday — the whole world may be startled by an announcement that President Johnson has decided to order a complete halt to the bombing of North Vietnam.

Whether or not this will materialize depends on the North Vietnamese government. But the argument, however, going on behind the scenes in Hanoi indicates that President Ho Chi Minh is weighing carefully the wisdom of making a few concessions to the American point of view so as to persuade Mr. Johnson to take the decisive step.

The presidential campaign in the United States has something to do with the discussion inside the Hanoi government. The North Vietnamese leaders are reported to be fearful that maybe Nixon will be harder to deal with than Humphrey.

SO, AS THE SITUATION is supposedly being sized up by Hanoi officials, whatever decision is to be made should be transmitted promptly to Washington to bring about a cessation of the bombing right away.

It has been inferred from Humphrey's speeches that, if he were elected, he would be willing to order a stop in the bombing without obtaining concessions such as President Johnson has been insisting upon. But the North Vietnamese are being told Humphrey is not likely to win.

The North Vietnamese are unable, on the other hands, to determine just what Nixon's policy would be. They are afraid it could parallel what President Johnson for some time has been advocating — namely, that the North Vietnamese must show specific signs of restraint in their military operations before a bombing halt would be possible.

It is natural, of course, for some of the foreign governments which are in close touch with Hanoi to give the North Vietnamese their own interpretation of the policies that may develop in the United States after the presidential election.

Hanoi is being advised, therefore, to make immediately all the concessions it can with the object of persuading President Johnson to order the bombing halt at once.

THESE MATTERS probably will not be decided at the conference at Paris. They will be crystallized in diplomatic communications transmitted through a government which is in close contact with both sides — presumably through the foreign office in Moscow.

Secretary of State Rusk has conferred twice with the Soviet Ambassador here in the past few days but no official comment was made afterwards. Reports have been coming from London that the United States had asked Russia to intervene with the North Vietnamese.

This was, however, brushed aside by a State Department spokesman with the observation that "the United States has direct contact with the North Vietnamese."

Obviously, neither side in the Vietnam controversy will discuss the problem publicly until a climax comes — a stalemate in negotiations or a truce. But there is every evidence that the parleys about a pause in the bombing have reached a final stage.

Even if a complete bombing halt does occur, the question will be asked throughout America whether good faith will be maintained by the Communist-supported troops inside South Vietnam. Only after a lapse of several days or weeks will it be possible to determine whether the North Vietnamese have taken advantage of the truce to send supplies southward to their forces.

MAYBE THE HANOI GOVERNMENT will not even announce its plans but will expect the United States to stop the bombing merely after some word is conveyed that Hanoi will co-operate.

So far as the effect on the American elections is concerned, a bombing halt would probably give the Democratic ticket some help at the polls. But the major part of the vote to be cast against the incumbent party is aroused over domestic disorders and crime.

The feeling of protest is based on a belief that the administration has been too anxious to avoid a loss of the support of racial groups if sweeping action were taken to jail the conspirators who have been stimulating disturbances in cities throughout America.

UNFORTUNATELY, the executives of Consolidated Heels got frightened at the sudden activity in their stock and they all sold out, causing the price to descend to the lowest it had been since the 1929 crash.

It was obvious by now that something was wrong. I had to do something about my investments or I would be wiped out completly.

The next time I got my shoes shined I brought up the subject with my bootblack, pointing out that every "outside tip" he had given me had gone haywire. He agreed with me and finally came up with a brilliant idea. He said, "If I were you I would change brokers."

Thoughts For The Day

"Only be strong and very courageous, being careful to do according to all the law which Moses my servant commanded you; turn not from it to the right hand or to the left, that you may have good success wherever you go." —Joshua 1:7.

"Again I saw that under the sun the race is not to the swift, nor the battle to the strong, nor bread to the wise, nor riches to the intelligent, nor favor to the men of skill; but time and chance happen to them all."—Eccl. 9:11.

"If I am wicked, woe to me! If I am righteous, I cannot lift up my head, for I am filled with disgrace and look upon my affliction."—Job 10:15.

VICTOR RIESEL

A New Resistance Is Born

NEW YORK — Unobserved by the rest of the land, the new resistance is sweeping this massive city. It was born more in sorrow than in anger — and then grew in cold fury. It is as peaceful as it is massive.

Victor Riesel

It is made up of the quiet people who have had just about enough of Black Panther terror talk, black militant racial and religious slurs, and black actionists' apartheid.

This is the full meaning of the teachers, police and firefighters job action. This will catch hold in a hundred cities.

This is the meaning of 50,000 of the quiet people, mostly white, but many black who surrounded the ancient City Hall here Thursday, Oct. 17.

This is the meaning of other demonstrations which recently have put two thousand, three thousand, five thousand onto the streets in lesser and unreported demonstrations.

They are weary with being told, privately and through bull horns that "blood will flow in the streets." They are fatigued with hearing televised extremists call them vicious racists who should drop dead. They are stunned by uniformed black cadre leaders who charge them with insensitivity, though it was these masses who marched with the late Rev. Martin Luther King Jr.; who raised millions of dollars for him and other Negro campaigns; who spent their own money and time fighting in the courts for school integration; who joined is marches over a decade, to Washington, to Selma, and on the streets of many cities.

THE TEACHERS, for example, were horrified ot learn that a member of the New York Board of Education had led a demonstration in front of the United Federation of Teachers headquarters here, during which vicious anti-Jewish slogans and epithets were mongered. Paraders carried a coffin and two menorahs (sacred candelabras) topped by lit candles. They distributed brutal anti-Jewish leaflets.

"Pray For Death at an Early Age For Adolph Shanker," one such throwaway read, referring to Albert Shanker, president of the UFT. The rest of the diatribe simply is too scurrilous to reprint here.

Yes, indeed, the distributors and paraders were led by a member of the New York Board of Education.

And so, teachers, many of whom are constantly harassed by midnight, anonymous, anti-religious telephone calls or find anti-Jewish leaflets in their mailboxes, at home or in schools, finally have had enough. They proved they too can demonstrate, they too can put masses into the streets, they too have "bite".

BASICALLY THE STORY, with variations on the theme, runs through the police and firefighters actions. The teachers want law and order in the schoolrooms. The uniformed forces want law and order on the streets — so they can fight crime and fire.

The police just don't want to be called "pigs," or to be ambushed.

Recently, during the same week that two cops rushed a Negro infant to a hospital and saved the child's life with mouth-to-mouth resuscitation, other uniformed men were being sniped at. Why?

No cop is perfect. No banker is perfect. One like the other just doesn't want to be called a "pig" — or worse. Especially not when his fellow officers are cut down, leaving widows and fatherless children, in the grim line of duty, protecting black and white alike.

Police have a big union here, and other such unions are sprouting like summer-lawn grass. Their job action has just begun to sweep the land.

Nor are the firefighters planning to be less militant. In the big cities they're sick of being hit by everything from metal milk cans to M-16 rifle and machine-gun fire. That was in Cleveland, according to their union leader there.

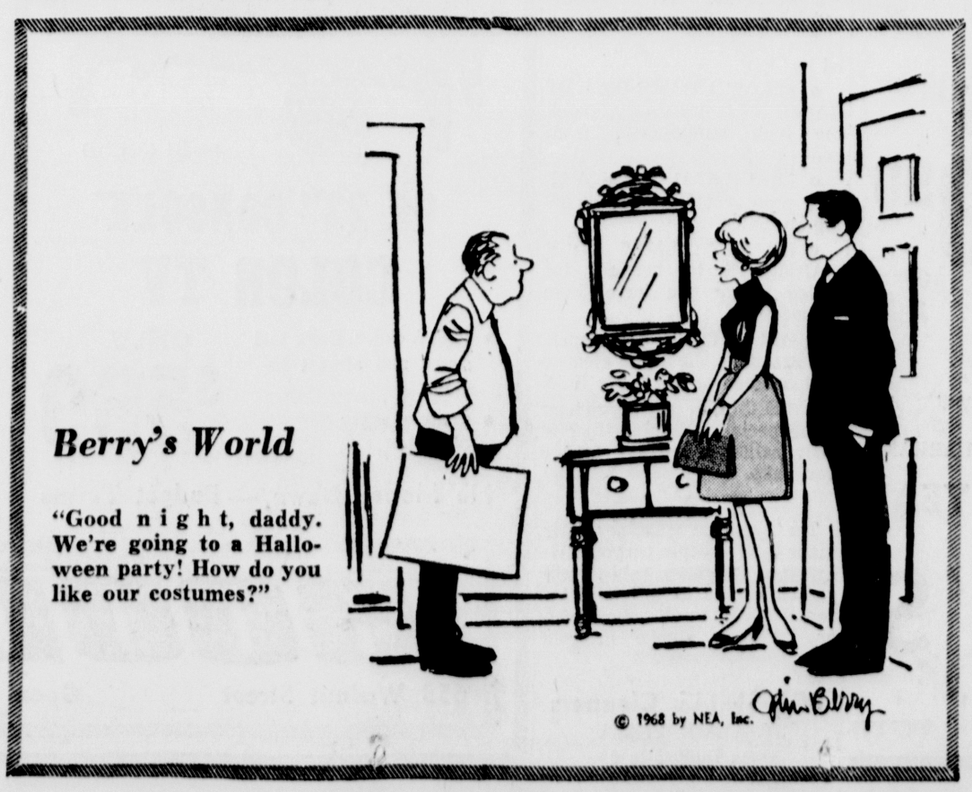

A MEMORANDUM BEFORE ME, prepared by the office of the International Assn. of Fire Fighters' new president, William H. McClennan, reveals that so severe have been some attacks on firefighters rushing to the slumstreet blazes, that some firemen have had to be rescued in armored Brinks trucks.

In New York City 56 men have been injured by attackers since last January. Everything has been thrown at firefighters across the land — two-by-four planks, aerosol cans, rocks, bottles, iron bars and explosive shells. They've had it — especially since they don't discriminate. A fire is a fire, and is fought in black and white communities alike.

In the background are a host of other service unions, such as the Communications Workers of America, led by the usually gentle Joe Beirne. His union is beginning to sign contracts which provide for escorts to telephone installation and repairmen after dark — pacts which give the service worker the right to refuse assignments.

All these unions now make up the new resistance. They've had enough of mockery, enough of sacrilegious insults, enough of the calculated terror talk, such as warnings by militants that "we'll cleave and hack" and "the street will run red".

Here, the new resistance has a simple reply: we have been forbearing. Now we are putting our people into the streets — quietly, patiently, peacefully, to prove that the streets belong to all, not just to the loud and the bullies.

Bomb Halt Conjecture

Sometime between now and Nov. 5 — possibly during the week beginning Monday — the whole world may be startled by an announcement that President Johnson has decided to order a complete halt to the bombing of North Vietnam.

Whether or not this will materialize depends on the North Vietnamese government. But the argument, however, going on behind the scenes in Hanoi indicates that President Ho Chi Minh is weighing carefully the wisdom of making a few concessions to the American point of view so as to persuade Mr. Johnson to take the decisive step.

The presidential campaign in the United States has something to do with the discussion inside the Hanoi government. The North Vietnamese leaders are reported to be fearful that maybe Nixon will be harder to deal with than Humphrey.

SO, AS THE SITUATION is supposedly being sized up by Hanoi officials, whatever decision is to be made should be transmitted promptly to Washington to bring about a cessation of the bombing right away.

It has been inferred from Humphrey's speeches that, if he were elected, he would be willing to order a stop in the bombing without obtaining concessions such as President Johnson has been insisting upon. But the North Vietnamese are being told Humphrey is not likely to win.

The North Vietnamese are unable, on the other hands, to determine just what Nixon's policy would be. They are afraid it could parallel what President Johnson for some time has been advocating — namely, that the North Vietnamese must show specific signs of restraint in their military operations before a bombing halt would be possible.

It is natural, of course, for some of the foreign governments which are in close touch with Hanoi to give the North Vietnamese their own interpretation of the policies that may develop in the United States after the presidential election.

Hanoi is being advised, therefore, to make immediately all the concessions it can with the object of persuading President Johnson to order the bombing halt at once.

THESE MATTERS probably will not be decided at the conference at Paris. They will be crystallized in diplomatic communications transmitted through a government which is in close contact with both sides — presumably through the foreign office in Moscow.

Secretary of State Rusk has conferred twice with the Soviet Ambassador here in the past few days but no official comment was made afterwards. Reports have been coming from London that the United States had asked Russia to intervene with the North Vietnamese.

This was, however, brushed aside by a State Department spokesman with the observation that "the United States has direct contact with the North Vietnamese."

Obviously, neither side in the Vietnam controversy will discuss the problem publicly until a climax comes — a stalemate in negotiations or a truce. But there is every evidence that the parleys about a pause in the bombing have reached a final stage.

Even if a complete bombing halt does occur, the question will be asked throughout America whether good faith will be maintained by the Communist-supported troops inside South Vietnam. Only after a lapse of several days or weeks will it be possible to determine whether the North Vietnamese have taken advantage of the truce to send supplies southward to their forces.

MAYBE THE HANOI GOVERNMENT will not even announce its plans but will expect the United States to stop the bombing merely after some word is conveyed that Hanoi will co-operate.

So far as the effect on the American elections is concerned, a bombing halt would probably give the Democratic ticket some help at the polls. But the major part of the vote to be cast against the incumbent party is aroused over domestic disorders and crime.

The feeling of protest is based on a belief that the administration has been too anxious to avoid a loss of the support of racial groups if sweeping action were taken to jail the conspirators who have been stimulating disturbances in cities throughout America.

Hit-Skip Damages Cars; Police Blame Stolen Auto

An auto reported stolen on North Side was blamed for a hit-skip collision early Sunday that damaged two parked cars on Orchard Grove Ave. just off St. Clair Ave.

The collision damaged a 1969 sedan owned by the Rev. Philip N. Carl of 604 Orchard Grove Ave., minister of the Orchard Grove United Methodist Church, and a 1961 model auto owned by George Pepin of 485 Orchard Grove Ave., police said.

Police said the two autos were struck by a 1963 model sedan registered to Thomas Wilkins of Orchard Grove Ave. The Wilkins auto was found abandoned at 2:40 a.m. near the top of the Lincoln Ave. grade, officers said.

Wilkins filed a theft report with police at 2:35 a. m. He said the auto had been stolen between Saturday and Sunday from a parking lot in Rural Ln.

REV. CARL telephoned police at 1:06 Sunday morning and reported a hit-skip auto had damaged his car, which was parked in front of his home. Patrolman Bruce Conkle found a trail of water leading from the minister's auto west on Orchard Grove Ave. Following the trail, he found the hit-skip auto also had struck the Pepin auto.

Patrolman H. Clyde Dillon found the Wilkins car abandoned on Lincoln Ave. There was damage to the entire front end, including the two fenders and radiator, officers said.

The collision damaged the right rear fender, rear bumper, deck lid and right tail light of Rev. Carl's auto and the left front fender and bumper of Pepin's auto.

A WOMAN passenger was injured in a collision at W. 8th and Lisbon Sts. Sunday at 3:20 p.m., officers said.

The mishap involved a 1963 sedan operated by Robert W. Norris, 59, of the Congo Rd., Newell, and a 1964 sedan driven by Linda Rodgers, 17, of 501 Aten Ave., Wellsville. She was treated for abrasions and a contusion of the cheek and released.

Norris told officers his car was halted for a traffic light at the intersection when it was hit from the rear. The young woman reported she stopped behind Norris and her foot then slipped off the brake pedal and hit the accelerator, causing her car to strike the Norris auto in the rear.

Marianne Marr, 20, of Steubenville, a passenger in the Rogers car, was taken to City Hospital with injuries suffered when her head bumped the windshield, officers said.

A 17-year-old driver escaped injury Sunday night at 10 when his auto overturned on Claiborne St., police said.

Dan R. Stoffel, 17, of the Cannons Mills Rd. told police he was driving north about 25 miles an hour when the auto struck a bump in the street, causing him to lose control. There was damage to the top and left side of the auto, which is registered to Viola Headley of RD 1, police said.

Herbert L. Gordon of New Waterford RD 1 told police the grill of his 1966 sedan was damaged Sunday at 4:39 p.m. when struck by an old auto tire which was rolled off a hillside above the Freeway in West End.

GORDON told officers he was driving south about 45 miles an hour when the tire struck just north of the W. 9th St. overpass.

Rex F. Starkey of 945 Lisbon St. told police his parked 1968 convertible was damaged in a hit-skip collision early Sunday near his home. Starkey said he parked the car about midnight Saturday and discovered at 5:45 a. m. Sunday that the left headlamp and hood were damaged. Police said light - colored paint was found on the finish of Starkey's car.

A collison on the River Rd. Sunday at 12:41 p. m. damaged a 1968 model pickup truck driven by Thomas J. Cayton, 18, of Post Office Box 209, Industry, and a 1964 two-door sedan operated by William E. Koenig Sr., 62, of 1710 Alpha St., officers said.

Cayton drove across the railroad tracks onto the River Rd. and Koenig was driving west on the River Rd., officers said.

Cayton told police he crossed the tracks and stopped on the other side when he heard a skidding vehicle, then his truck was struck in the side. Koenig reported he saw Cayton's truck too late to avoid a collision, as big trucks parked near the intersection blocked his view. The accident report said a tractor-trailer and a pickup truck parked near the scene blocked the view of the drivers.

A MISHAP on Broadway at Diamond Alley Saturday at 11:04 a.m. involved a 1969 two-door sedan driven by Thomas A. Goyak, 46, of 325 Broadway and a 1967 station wagon operated by Tom D. Burnett, 20, of Skyview Manor.

Goyak told police he was driving south on Broadway when his car was grazed by a boat sticking out of the rear of the backing station wagon. Burnett told officers he thought the auto had gone by, but the car was grazed by a styrofoam boat projecting from the rear of the station wagon.

Opening Planned For New Office Supplies Outlet

Opening of a new office equipment store and repair outlet at the corner of Washington and E. 6th Sts. is planned Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark Geer, dealers for Remington Office Machines Division of Sperry Rand Corp., said extensive repairs and remodeling are under way at the store at 525 Washington St.

The new store will offer typewriters, adding machines, calculators and cash registers, office supplies and a repair service department. The "Geer Office Machine Co. will provide free estimates on repairs, pick-up and delivery. The rental was negotiated by Bondy Realty Co.

PTA Federation Will Hear Dobson

Alton Dobson, high school principal, will speak on the effect of the defeat of three school levies in a September special election when the City Federation of Parent Teacher Associations holds its first meeting of the new term Tuesday at 8 p.m. at the high school library. William C. Thornberry is president. The public is invited.

The federation is comprised of delegates and officers from the four member schools. It functions as coordinating unit between the schools and the administration.

Police Find Preacher's Body In Car

ASHLAND, Ohio (AP) — A man identified as a Cleveland minister was found dead in the back seat of a car stopped by a highway patrolman near here Sunday night.

The driver of the car, who patrolmen said identified himself as James Thomas, 36, of Ocala, Fla., was taken into custody and held at the Ashland County Jail.

No charges were filed Sunday night.

The Ashland County coroner, Dr. H. P. Petty, said the Rev. Christopher C. Ware, 45, of the Zion Church in Cleveland's Hough area had been beaten on the head.

The body was sent to Cleveland's morgue early today for an autopsy.

The body was in the Rev. Mr. Ware's car. A service station attendant at a station near Interstate 71 in Medina County reported to police that he saw a body in the car when he filled it with gas about 10:30 p.m., police said.

The highway patrol and county sheriffs in the area were alerted. The car outran at least one police cruiser before it was stopped at about midnight on I-71 in Ashland County by patrolman J. R. Schaub, who said the driver offered no resistance.

The body was clad only in underwear and socks, the highway patrol reported.

One pound of soap can be converted into more than 25,500 000 bubbles.

Now Possible To Shrink Painful Hemorrhoids

And Promptly Stop The Itching, Relieve Pain In Most Cases.

New York, N.Y. (Special): Science has found a medication with the ability, in most cases — to promptly stop itching, relieve pain and actually shrink hemorrhoids.

Tests by doctors proved that in case after case, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction of the inflamed hemorrhoids took place.

The secret is Preparation H®. There's no other formula like it! Preparation H also soothes irritated tissues and helps prevent further infection. In ointment or suppository form.

offset the cut in hours worked.

"We have been accused of threatening harm and damage to school property. This is not true. However, threats of loss of jobs to the service personnel have gone out from the superintendent's office."

Dr. Wyland said all the teachers employed in the sysetm reported to their classes this morning.

The dispute between the board of education and the service personnel centers around demands for an across-the-board pay hike for all employes of 50 cents an hour as well as a number of fringe benefits. These fringe benefits include paid vacations, increased hours for bus drivers, etc.

Rev. Stewart said today the members would continue to boycott until the board of education agrees to hold a meeting to discuss their demands. He further stated today that neither the board nor Dr. Wyland ever has discussed with them the full range of the fringe benefits they are seeking.

At present, Dr. Wyland said no meeting with the service personnel is scheduled. He added that discussions are now being held by the school administration to determine the next course of action in the matter.

Rev. Stewart noted the service personnel association is calling their action a boycott and not a strike or a walkout.

The Threat Of Halloween . .

On the night of Oct. 31, little "Witch Doctors" will come calling — Threatening, "Twick or Tweat" . . .

Much time separates us from nights back when our ancestors, shivering in fear in some unlit cave, gave heed to the threat — as the local Witch Doctor gathered favors to placate the demons causing disease.

Depicted on walls of caves, the Witch Doctor, arrayed in skins of animals, assumes a terrifying aspect . . . For disease is ugly and grotesque, and it must be confronted with something equally so — Besides, at this time of year the demons causing disease must be placated with winter storing foods of nuts and apples.

So, on the night of Oct. 31, when little "Witch Doctors" will come calling . . . threatening, "Twick or Tweat" - - You'd best be prepared! . .

Come see the most complete array of sweets and goodies (guaranteed to placate the most evil of spirits) at CITIZEN'S WALGREEN AGENCY, Carolina At Fifth, Chester, West Va.

George Woodring

Services for George Woodring of Topeka, Kan., a former resident of East Liverpool, will be held Tuesday at 1:30 p.m. at the Wall-Diffenderfer Funeral Home in Topeka. Burial will be in Forest Hill Cemetery, Sumneytown, Pa.

Mr. Woodring was killed in a head-on auto collision Friday morning on U.S. Route 54 at Nevada, Mo. His wife, Sylvia, was injured in the accident and is a patient at a hospital in Nevada.

He was born in Philadelphia March 26, 1922, and was a civilian mathematician for the Air Force at Topeka for 22 years. He was a member of the Topeka Masonic Lodge.

Besides his widow, he is survived by two daughters, Miss Lois Woodring and Miss Gail Woodring, both of East St. Petersburg, Pa.; a step-daughter, Mrs. Sondra Michels of Lisbon, and his mother, Mrs. Della Woodring of St. Petersburg, Fla.

Thomas Buckel

Thomas Henry Buckel, 47, of Yellow Creek Township, on the old Salineville Rd., a caster at the Sterling China Co., was pronounced dead on arrival at East Liverpool Osteopathic Hospital, Saturday at 7:45 p.m. He had suffered an apparent heart attack at his home earlier.

He worked on Saturday at the china company, where he was employed for 28 years. He was a member of Local 24 of the IBOP.

He was born Sept. 19, 1921, in Wellsville.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Beverly Blackburn Buckel, at home; four sons, Thomas R. Buckel, Kenneth D. Buckel and Terry R. Buckel, all of Wellsville, and Gary L. Buckel at home; four daughters, Mrs. Wilbur (Beverly) Black of Hammondsville; Mrs. John (Joyce) Rice of Toronto RD 1, Mrs. Gary (Elaine) Pearley of Wellsville and Miss Annette Buckel, at home; five brothers, James Buckel of Irondale, Raymond Buckel of Washingtonville, Ohio, Carl Buckel of Salineville, David Buckel of Gavers, Ohio, and Alfred Buckel of Hapeville, Ga.; three sisters, Mrs. Frederick (Mildred) Kiss of Burgettstown, Mrs. Elmer (Wilma) Swick and Mrs. Robert (Gertrude) Donohue, both of Wellsville, his father, William A. Buckel, also of Wellsville, and three grandchildren.

Services will be held Wednesday at 1:30 p.m. at the MacLean Funeral Home in Wellsville by the Rev. Delmar C. Logston of the Wellsville Free Methodist Church. Burial will be in Springhill Cemetery, Wellsville.

Friends may call at the funeral home today, Tuesday afternoon and night.

Joseph Hennessy

Joseph P. Hennessy, 87, of Youngstown, father of Fr. James R. Hennessy, died Saturday at 2:30 p.m. at home after a long illness.

Fr. Hennessy was a former pastor of the Immaculate Conception Catholic Church in Wellsville.

He was born Jan. 19, 1881, in Youngstown, a son of the late James and Mary Clark Henessy. He was a former city fireman at Youngstown, retiring in 1926. He last was employed as supervisor in the open hearth of the Youngstown Sheet & Tube Co.

Besides his son at home, he leaves three brothers and a sister. His wife, Mrs. Helen K. Hennessy, died in February 1966.

Services will be held Tuesday at 11 a.m. at St. Columba Cathedral in Youngstown. Burial will be in Calvary Cemetery, Youngstown.

Friends may call at the McVean - Hughes Funeral Home in Youngstown today from 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 p.m.

"We have been accused of threatening harm and damage to school property. This is not true. However, threats of loss of jobs to the service personnel have gone out from the superintendent's office."

Dr. Wyland said all the teachers employed in the sysetm reported to their classes this morning.

The dispute between the board of education and the service personnel centers around demands for an across-the-board pay hike for all employes of 50 cents an hour as well as a number of fringe benefits. These fringe benefits include paid vacations, increased hours for bus drivers, etc.

Rev. Stewart said today the members would continue to boycott until the board of education agrees to hold a meeting to discuss their demands. He further stated today that neither the board nor Dr. Wyland ever has discussed with them the full range of the fringe benefits they are seeking.

At present, Dr. Wyland said no meeting with the service personnel is scheduled. He added that discussions are now being held by the school administration to determine the next course of action in the matter.

Rev. Stewart noted the service personnel association is calling their action a boycott and not a strike or a walkout.

The Threat Of Halloween . .

On the night of Oct. 31, little "Witch Doctors" will come calling — Threatening, "Twick or Tweat" . . .

Much time separates us from nights back when our ancestors, shivering in fear in some unlit cave, gave heed to the threat — as the local Witch Doctor gathered favors to placate the demons causing disease.

Depicted on walls of caves, the Witch Doctor, arrayed in skins of animals, assumes a terrifying aspect . . . For disease is ugly and grotesque, and it must be confronted with something equally so — Besides, at this time of year the demons causing disease must be placated with winter storing foods of nuts and apples.

So, on the night of Oct. 31, when little "Witch Doctors" will come calling . . . threatening, "Twick or Tweat" - - You'd best be prepared! . .

Come see the most complete array of sweets and goodies (guaranteed to placate the most evil of spirits) at CITIZEN'S WALGREEN AGENCY, Carolina At Fifth, Chester, West Va.

Fire Hits Vacant Home With Loss Set At $750

A fire in a vacant home on the Charles Hess property at Hess Rd. and Campground Rd. was extinguished Sunday night by the Liverppol Township, West, fire department in LaCroft.

Chalmer Gifford, assistant chief, said the call was received at 8. The blaze was confined to the back porch, with only smoke damage to the interior.

Two trucks with five men from Glenmoor aided the eleven men from the Liverpool Township station. The Liverpool firemen stayed at the scene until 10.

Gifford said Hess was planning to tear down the house before the fire. Damage was estimated to $750. The original still is undetermined but firemen are investigating.

City Firemen Answer 3 Alarms OnWeekend

East Liverpool firemen answered three minor alarms Sunday.

Firemen were called at 11:35 a.m. to the home of Gus Mautz of 637 Elson St., where a short circuit in a stereo phonograph caused a fire. Damage was confined to the stereo.

At 12:11 p.m., firemen answered a call to the home of Ann Johnson of 127½ W. 5th St. A gas line on a fireplace stove installed the day before broke and caught fire, and the mantel was scorched. The dwelling is owned by Golden Star Dairy Co.

At 7:18 p.m., Joe Wellerhouse of 1915 Smithfield St. reported a fire had been set in papers and rubbish collected in a vacant garage. There was no damage to the garage.

Minor Damage Listed In Midland Area Fire

A defective furnace motor was blamed for a minor fire at a Midland Heights home Saturday afternoon at 5:30.

Fire Chief Albert Monac of Midland Heights said smoke damage resulted from the blaze at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Jobe of 38-D. Monac said a maintenance man was summoned to repair the furnace.

Council Will Meet

LISBON — Village Council will meet at 7:30 tonight in the Town Hall, with Mayor Clyde B. Pike presiding. The utility committee is to report on its study of the proposed gas rate increase announced by Columbia Gas of Ohio at the Oct. 14 meeting.

Man Given 10-Day Jail Term On Lack Of Driver's License

A 23-year-old Wellsville man was given a 10-day term in city jail today when he pleaded guilty before Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff on a charge of operating an auto without a driver's license.

Robert L. McCune of 531 Buckeye Ave., Wellsville, was cited by the Ohio Highway Patrol Friday at 8:10 p. m. on W. 8th St. near Westgate School. The patrol said he was at the wheel of an auto which was being towed by another car. McCune also was fined $15 and costs on a charge of operating an auto with defective brakes.

Queried by the judge, McCune said he bought the auto about two weeks ago for $100 and was having it towed to a spot where it could be repaired. He also said that he never had possessed a driver's permit.

Robert Garey, 34, of 2000 Nevada St., Wellsville, was fined $15 and costs on a charge of operating an unsafe vehicle. He was cited by the patrol Sunday at 7:20 p.m. on Route 7. Bruce E. Mays, 34, of RD 2 paid a fine of $15 and costs on a charge of driving 70 miles an hour in a 50-mile zone. He was cited by the patrol Wednesday at 9 p.m. on Route 7.

John W. Crabtree of 209 Ravine St. drew a fine of $15 and costs after pleading guilty to a charge of failure to stop in the assured clear distance. He was cited following a minor traffic mishap Oct. 18 on W. 8th St.

Paul Alford Jr. of 333 Ridge Ave., Wellsville, forfeited a $17.50 bond on a charge of crashing a traffic light at E. 4th and Washington Sts. He was cited Sunday at 1:35 a. m. The court issued a bench warrant for the arrest of Eugene Jones of 1935 Dresden Ave., who failed to appear on a charge of driving 47 miles an hour in a 35-mile zone. He was cited Wednesday at 6:30 p. m. on W. 8th St. by Patrolman Charles Coen.

Hearings are scheduled Tuesday morning for five other cited drivers. They are:

Gary Buell of Green Forest, Ark., arrested Sunday at 4:48 a. m. for crashing a traffic light at 4th and Market Sts.; Ernest B. Lamp Jr. of 339 E. 8th St., arrested today at 5:49 a.m. on E. 6th St. on a charge of operating an unsafe vehicle.

Robert Buckley Jr. of the Y. & O. Rd., arrested this morning at 6:32 on E. 3rd St. on a charge of operating an auto without a driver's license; Ruth Ellen McNeeley of 2139 Pennsylvania Ave., cited Saturday at 12:21 a. m. on St. Clair Ave. by Patrolman H. Clyde Dillon on a charge of operating a vehicle without tail lights, and Norman W. Haywood of Perryopolis, Pa arrested this morning at 4:07 on the Freeway by Dillon on a charge of speeding 60 miles an hour in a 50-mile zone.

Fire Hits Vacant Home With Loss Set At $750

A fire in a vacant home on the Charles Hess property at Hess Rd. and Campground Rd. was extinguished Sunday night by the Liverppol Township, West, fire department in La-Croft.

Chalmer Gifford, assistant chief, said the call was received at 8. The blaze was confined to the back porch, with only smoke damage to the interior.

Two trucks with five men from Glenmoor aided the eleven men from the Liverpool Township station. The Liverpool firemen stayed at the scene until 10.

Gifford said Hess was planning to tear down the house before the fire. Damage was estimated to $750. The original still is undetermined but firemen are investigating.

City Firemen Answer 3 Alarms OnWeekend

East Liverpool firemen answered three minor alarms Sunday.

Firemen were called at 11:35 a.m. to the home of Gus Mautz of 637 Elson St., where a short circuit in a stereo phonograph caused a fire. Damage was confined to the stereo.

At 12:11 p.m., firemen answered a call to the home of Ann Johnson of 127½ W. 5th St. A gas line on a fireplace stove installed the day before broke and caught fire, and the mantel was scorched. The dwelling is owned by Golden Star Dairy Co.

At 7:18 p.m., Joe Wellerhouse of 1915 Smithfield St. reported a fire had been set in papers and rubbish collected in a vacant garage. There was no damage to the garage.

Minor Damage Listed In Midland Area Fire

A defective furnace motor was blamed for a minor fire at a Midland Heights home Saturday afternoon at 5:30.

Fire Chief Albert Monac of Midland Heights said smoke damage resulted from the blaze at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Jobe of 38-D. Monac said a maintenance man was summoned to repair the furnace.

Man Given 10-Day Jail Term On Lack Of Driver's License

A 23-year-old Wellsville man was given a 10-day term in city jail today when he pleaded guilty before Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff on a charge of operating an auto without a driver's license.

Robert L. McCune of 531 Buckeye Ave., Wellsville, was cited by the Ohio Highway Patrol Friday at 8:10 p. m. on W. 8th St. near Westgate School. The patrol said he was at the wheel of an auto which was being towed by another car. McCune also was fined $15 and costs on a charge of operating an auto with defective brakes.

Queried by the judge, McCune said he bought the auto about two weeks ago for $100 and was having it towed to a spot where it could be repaired. He also said that he never had possessed a driver's permit.

Robert Garey, 34, of 2000 Nevada St., Wellsville, was fined $15 and costs on a charge of operating an unsafe vehicle. He was cited by the patrol Sunday at 7:20 p.m. on Route 7. Bruce E. Mays, 34, of RD 2 paid a fine of $15 and costs on a charge of driving 70 miles an hour in a 50-mile zone. He was cited by the patrol Wednesday at 9 p.m. on Route 7.

John W. Crabtree of 209 Ravine St. drew a fine of $15 and costs after pleading guilty to a charge of failure to stop in the assured clear distance. He was cited following a minor traffic mishap Oct. 18 on W. 8th St.

Paul Alford Jr. of 333 Ridge Ave., Wellsville, forfeited a $17.50 bond on a charge of crashing a traffic light at E. 4th and Washington Sts. He was cited Sunday at 1:35 a. m. The court issued a bench warrant for the arrest of Eugene Jones of 1935 Dresden Ave., who failed to appear on a charge of driving 47 miles an hour in a 35-mile zone. He was cited Wednesday at 6:30 p. m. on W. 8th St. by Patrolman Charles Coen.

Hearings are scheduled Tuesday morning for five other cited drivers. They are:

Gary Buell of Green Forest, Ark., arrested Sunday at 4:48 a. m. for crashing a traffic light at 4th and Market Sts.; Ernest B. Lamp Jr. of 339 E. 8th St., arrested today at 5:49 a.m. on E. 6th St. on a charge of operating an unsafe vehicle.

Robert Buckley Jr. of the Y. & O. Rd., arrested this morning at 6:32 on E. 3rd St. on a charge of operating an auto without a driver's license; Ruth Ellen McNeeley of 2139 Pennsylvania Ave., cited Saturday at 12:21 a. m. on St. Clair Ave. by Patrolman H. Clyde Dillon on a charge of operating a vehicle without tail lights, and Norman W. Haywood of Perryopolis, Pa arrested this morning at 4:07 on the Freeway by Dillon on a charge of speeding 60 miles an hour in a 50-mile zone.

Buell posted a $17.50 bond and Haywood posted $22.50.

MISS JEANNE QUICK
To Wed Thomas Densmore.

Jeanne L. Quick, Man In LaCroft Set Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Quick of Hunter Ave., LaCroft, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Jeanne L. Quick, to Thomas A. Densmore, son of Mr. and Mrs. Reid Densmore of Densmore Ave., LaCroft.

Miss Quick, a 1968 graduate of Beaver Local High School, is attending the A. & H. School of Beauty.

Densmore was graduated in 1968 from East Liverpool High School. He is attending the Mount Vernon Nazarene College.

No wedding date has been set.

Miss Charlotte Speigner Marries C. T. Stowers Jr.

A full-length veil of Brussels lace complemented the gown of Miss Charlotte Denise Speigner when she became the bride of Capt. Charles Thomas Stowers Jr. last Sunday afternoon at 3 in the Normandale Methodist Church of Montgomery, Ala.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse James Speigner of Montgomery. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thomas Stowers of Chesapeake, Ohio, former local residents.

The Rev. D. K. Christenberry officiated for the double - ring ceremony. Mrs. Robert Morrison was organist and harpist. James and Danny Speigner, brothers of the bride, served as acolytes.

The bride was escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father. Her full-length gown of candlelight peau de soie was fashioned with a scalloped chapel length Wateau train. The Empire bodice of Chantilly lace was designed with a scoop neckline and short sleeves. Her veil was lined with silk illusion and attached to a silk - covered pillbox. She carried a cascade of white roses entwined with ivy.

Mrs. James H. Berry Jr., sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Joe Wilson and Miss Deborah Speigner, cousins of the bride, Miss Jane Alyce Woodson and Miss Debra Moore.

They appeared in full-length shirtwaist style gowns of limelight satin designed with bishop's sleeves and shirred skirts. Their headpieces were matching Dior bows with flutter veils. Each carried a single Talisman rose.

MRS. C. T. STOWERS Jr.
Alabama Girl Is Bride.

The bridegroom's father served as best man. Ushers were James Michael Speigner, Danny Ray Speignor and Jesse Steve Speigner, brothers of the bride; James H. Berry, her brother-in-law, and Jack Tompkins. Robbert L. Lusk was ring bearer.

A reception followed in the social rooms.

Following a wedding trip to New York City and the New England states, the newlyweds will reside at El Paso, Tex., where the bridegroom is stationed with the Army.

The bride is a graduate of Auburn University in Alabama, where she received a degree in secondary education. Her husband is a graduate of the U.S. Military Academy at West Point, where he was captain of the football team in 1965. He is a nephew of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. McFadden of McDonald St.

Newell Sets Solicitation For UNICEF

A door-to-door fund solicitation on behalf of UNICEF will be conducted Wednesday night at Newell under supervision of the Newell Junior Woman's Club, assisted by volunteers of the Juniorette Club and Girl Scout Troop 497.

Mrs. Gerald Jividen is general chairman, with Mrs. Fred Moore chairman of the Newell Heights area and Miss Beverly Jividen chairman of the lower end of the community.

Residents are requested to turn on porch lights at 6:30 to assist with the drive.

Mrs. Jividen said all workers are to meet at the Odd Fellows hall at 6:30 to receive assignments to territories and to obtain materials.

She pointed out that workers may be identified by official coin containers and literature which they will distribute.

After the solicitation has been completed, the workers will reassemble in the IOOF hall for refreshments, which will be served by Mrs. Frances O'Hanlon, Mrs. Denver Beckner, Mrs. Jerry Guire and Mrs. Richard Kreider.

Peanut Butter Jars Utilized By Airport

LOVELL, Wyo. (AP) — Airport Manager Cal Taggart says he needs peanut butter jars to keep the field operational around the clock.

Vandals destroyed the light covers on the runway. Taggart said he found that 18-ounce peanut butter jars have lid threads which fit the runway light fixtures.

Board Members Are Elected For Catholic Group

Mrs. Edward Dierker and Paul T. Barbuto, both of East Liverpool, will begin three-year terms on the Columbiana County Catholic Service Bureau advisory board in January.

Other board members elected during the bureau's recent meeting at St. George rectory in Lisbon were Thomas Broderick of Wellsville, Raymond Eisch of Salineville, Mrs. Charles Bell of Leetonia and Mrs. Albert Lodge of Salem.

Don Hepp, Columbiana County welfare director, explained public assistance programs and the interrelationship of the bureau and welfare department was discussed.

Mary Catherine Donahue, executive secretary in the bureau office at Salem, said the objective was to discover how each agency can better help the other.

The service bureau last month gave assistance to 44 cases involving 86 children.

Robert Hocking of East Liverpool, president, was in charge.

Officers will be elected at the Nov. 21 meeting of the board.

The bride was escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father. Her full-length gown of candlelight peau de soie was fashioned with a scalloped chapel length Wateau train. The Empire bodice of Chantilly lace was designed with a scoop neckline and short sleeves. Her veil was lined with silk illusion and attached to a silk - covered pillbox. She carried a cascade of white roses entwined with ivy.

Mrs. James H. Berry Jr., sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Joe Wilson and Miss Deborah Speigner, cousins of the bride, Miss Jane Alyce Woodson and Miss Debra Moore.

They appeared in full-length shirtwaist style gowns of limelight satin designed with bishop's sleeves and shirred skirts. Their headpieces were matching Dior bows with flutter veils. Each carried a single Talisman rose.

MRS. C. T. STOWERS Jr.
Alabama Girl Is Bride.

The bridegroom's father served as best man. Ushers were James Michael Speigner, Danny Ray Speignor and Jesse Steve Speigner, brothers of the bride; James H. Berry, her brother-in-law, and Jack Tompkins. Robbert L. Lusk was ring bearer.

A reception followed in the social rooms.

Following a wedding trip to New York City and the New England states, the newlyweds will reside at El Paso, Tex., where the bridegroom is stationed with the Army.

The bride is a graduate of Auburn University in Alabama, where she received a degree in secondary education. Her husband is a graduate of the U.S. Military Academy at West Point, where he was captain of the football team in 1965. He is a nephew of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. McFadden of McDonald St.

Newell Sets Solicitation For UNICEF

A door-to-door fund solicitation on behalf of UNICEF will be conducted Wednesday night at Newell under supervision of the Newell Junior Woman's Club, assisted by volunteers of the Juniorette Club and Girl Scout Troop 497.

Mrs. Gerald Jividen is general chairman, with Mrs. Fred Moore chairman of the Newell Heights area and Miss Beverly Jividen chairman of the lower end of the community.

Residents are requested to turn on porch lights at 6:30 to assist with the drive.

Mrs. Jividen said all workers are to meet at the Odd Fellows hall at 6:30 to receive assignments to territories and to obtain materials.

She pointed out that workers may be identified by official coin containers and literature which they will distribute.

After the solicitation has been completed, the workers will reassemble in the IOOF hall for refreshments, which will be served by Mrs. Frances O'Hanlon, Mrs. Denver Beckner, Mrs. Jerry Guire and Mrs. Richard Kreider.

Peanut Butter Jars Utilized By Airport

LOVELL, Wyo. (AP) — Airport Manager Cal Taggart says he needs peanut butter jars to keep the field operational around the clock.

Vandals destroyed the light covers on the runway. Taggart said he found that 18-ounce peanut butter jars have lid threads which fit the runway light fixtures.

Board Members Are Elected For Catholic Group

Mrs. Edward Dierker and Paul T. Barbuto, both of East Liverpool, will begin three-year terms on the Columbiana County Catholic Service Bureau advisory board in January.

Other board members elected during the bureau's recent meeting at St. George rectory in Lisbon were Thomas Broderick of Wellsville, Raymond Eisch of Salineville, Mrs. Charles Bell of Leetonia and Mrs. Albert Lodge of Salem.

Don Hepp, Columbiana County welfare director, explained public assistance programs and the interrelationship of the bureau and welfare department was discussed.

Mary Catherine Donahue, executive secretary in the bureau office at Salem, said the objective was to discover how each agency can better help the other.

The service bureau last month gave assistance to 44 cases involving 86 children.

Robert Hocking of East Liverpool, president, was in charge.

ANN LANDERS

Runaway Changes Mind

By Ann Landers

Dear Ann Landers: I'm a boy 13 years of age. A few days ago I did something my parents did not approve of. My punishment was that I had to stay home while everyone went for a picnic.

I decided they were terrible to treat me like that and I started to pack my suitcase and run away. After I finished packing I decided to write a farewell letter. I thought I'd better tell them why I was running away and, to be fair, maybe I should apologize for a few things I had done.

Well, after I started to write, I thought of a lot of things I ought to apologize for. I also started to thank them for the nice things they had done for me over the years and there were an awful lot of them. By the time I finished writing I unpacked my suitcase and tore up the letter.

I suggest that all kids who think they want to run away from home sit down and write a letter to their folks. Then they won't go. — A ROTTEN KID WITH GREAT PARENTS.

Dear Kid: You don't sound rotten to me. You sound like a good guy who has a lot of common sense as well as humility. Thanks for writing.

Sister's Keeper

Dear Ann: My sister and I are both middle-aged. We live together. Neither of us has ever married. Here's her history:

Rena has been fired from three jobs for stealing. She's taken money from the purses of friends and relatives. She's swiped blank checks from my checkbook and forged my name. She's charged expensive items (like a fur jacket and a three-piece suit) to my account.

I know Rena's problem is our mother. She was a tyrant who never had a kind word for her children. Mother especially hated Rena and she made no secret of it. My sister went to a psychiatrist for three weeks but quit because she wasn't "getting any place."

Now the question: Is it wrong of me to want to live apart from her? Am I my sister's keeper? Must I stay with Rena till the end of my days, paying her bills, letting her forge my name to checks, paying for the things she steals, in order to keep her out of jail? (They call her a kleptomaniac.) What do you say, Ann? — DEPRESSED.

Dear Depressed: I say your sister is sick but you don't owe her your life. Perhaps if you move out and she can no longer depend on you to save her hide, she'll straighten around. Some people jump only when they know there's a net under them.

Urge Rena to try another therapist. You can do nothing more for her beyond that — so do something for yourself, please, and clear out.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Lisbon Lists Honor Pupils

LISBON — Sixty - six of the 468 students in David Anderson High School made the honor roll for the first six - week grading period.

Down the middle of the Atlantic Ocean there is a great mountain chain that is longer than any mountain chain on land. It is called the Atlantic Ridge, and is 10,000 miles long. Some of its peaks rise above the sea to form islands, and the Azores are peaks of this chain.

North Viet Regulars Hit

Heavy Fighting Reported In Area North Of Saigon

SAIGON (AP) — South Vietnamese infantrymen smashed into troops from a veteran North Vietnamese regiment that spearheaded two offensives on Saigon this year, government military headquarters announced today.

A government spokesman said 32 soldiers from North Vietnam's Dong Nai Regiment were killed and 13 others captured in heavy fighting Sunday 24 miles north of Saigon. The prisoners included a battalion deputy commander and a company commander, the spokesman said.

The South Vietnamese troops also seized 21 weapons in the battle and turned up two munitions stockpiles in the surrounding area that included 400 mortar shells, bazooka-type rockets and grenades.

Six South Vietnamese were reported killed and 20 wounded.

It was the first time a sizable force of the Dong Nai Regiment had been in action since last May 5, when the regiment was badly mauled in an attack on Saigon. Its reappearance indicated it may be back to full strength now and orders for a third offensive against Saigon.

3 Actions Reported

It was one of three actions reported around Saigon. U.S. and South Vietnamese forces killed another 38 enemy soldiers and seized 27 weapons in two clashes 10 and 12 miles south of the capital. Two Americans were wounded, and no South Vietnamese losses were reported.

The U.S. Command announced that American infantrymen sweeping in the demilitarized zone captured more than 250 North Vietnamese weapons in one of the larget battlefield hauls of the war.

The troops of the 5th Mechanized Division found 242 rifles and 17 larger weapons on the battleground in the southern half of the DMZ where American infantrymen, tanks, artillery, planes and offshore warships killed 232 North Vietnamese in an all-day fight Friday.

The larger weapons left behind included eight light machine guns, four mortar tubes, two heavy antiaircraft machine guns and three bazooka-type rockets.

"The enemy is hurt," said one senior U.S. officer. "There's no question about it. Every time he sticks his nose out he gets whopped."

Bombers Continue Strikes

Meanwhile, American bombers kept up their strikes on North Vietnamese supply lines north of the demilitarized zone, and speculation about a halt in the bombing developed when U.S. Ambassador Ellsworth Bunker met again with President Nguyen Van Thieu.

Thieu is balking at some parts of the American proposal, and South Vietnamese officials have hinted that if the Johnson administration goes ahead on its own, the Saigon regime will charge a sellout to affect the U.S. presidential election.

The North Vietnamese delegation at the Paris peace talks canceled its weekly news conference today for the second week in succession, and again there was speculation—as there was last Monday—that Hanoi did not want to do anything that might interfere with the negotiations over the American proposal.

The month-long lull in sustained combat continued.

U.S. infantrymen, artillery and helicopter gunships killed 61 Viet Cong and North Vietnamese in four small skirmishes that ranged from the Mekong Delta to the central highlands. Four Americans were killed, 20 were wounded, and a helicopter was shot down.

Sweeps Continue

More than 2,000 U.S. Marines on two new offensive sweeps south of Da Nang continued to meet little resistance.

The purpose of the two sweeps is to ward off an offensive against Da Nang, South Vietnam's second largest city, and allied bases around it. The lack of fighting indicates that the 16,000-20,000 believed to have been in the area have pulled back into jungled mountain hideaways.

After Hanoi Radio claimed Sunday that North Vietnamese shore guns had scored hits on the battleship New Jersey, the U.S. Navy said today the ship came under fire for the first time since she enterd the Vietnam war Sept. 30 but was not hit.

"None of the shells fell any closer than 200 yards from the ship, and the New Jersey, which had increased speed when the guns began firing, answered with a barrage of her own 16-inchers,," the Navy communique said.

The action occurred Saturday just north of the DMZ.

U.S. B52 bombers joined in the raids on North Vietnam for the first time in more than two weeks. Six of the eight-jet Stratofortresses pounded enemy gun positions, truck parks and fuel storage areas five miles above the frontier.

U.S. fighter-bombers flew 125 missions against the North Sunday, destroying or damaging 47 trucks and supply boats, the U.S. Command said. One Air Force F105 Thunderchief was shot down 45 miles above the DMZ. The pilot is missing. It was the 913th American warplane announced down in combat over North Vietnam.

Cincinnati Woman Charged In Shooting

CINCINNATI (AP) — A Cincinnati woman, charged with three counts of intentional shooting in the wounding of three persons in a cafe Saturday night, was to appear in Hamilton County Common Pleas Court today.

Roxie Jones, 59, is charged with the shooting of Patsy Renner, 12, who is in serious condition; and Patricia Wells, 39; and Ralph True, 42; who both were treated and released.

Police said the shooting was touched off by an argument between Miss Jones and Miss Wells and that True and Miss Renner were passersby.

All four persons are from Cincinnati.

U.S. infantrymen, artillery and helicopter gunships killed 61 Viet Cong and North Vietnamese in four small skirmishes that ranged from the Mekong Delta to the central highlands. Four Americans were killed, 20 were wounded, and a helicopter was shot down.

Sweeps Continue

More than 2,000 U.S. Marines on two new offensive sweeps south of Da Nang continued to meet little resistance.

The purpose of the two sweeps is to ward off an offensive against Da Nang, South Vietnam's second largest city, and allied bases around it. The lack of fighting indicates that the 16,000-20,000 believed to have been in the area have pulled back into jungled mountain hideaways.

After Hanoi Radio claimed Sunday that North Vietnamese shore guns had scored hits on the battleship New Jersey, the U.S. Navy said today the ship came under fire for the first time since she enterd the Vietnam war Sept. 30 but was not hit.

"None of the shells fell any closer than 200 yards from the ship, and the New Jersey, which had increased speed when the guns began firing, answered with a barrage of her own 16-inchers,," the Navy communique said.

The action occurred Saturday just north of the DMZ.

U.S. B52 bombers joined in the raids on North Vietnam for the first time in more than two weeks. Six of the eight-jet Stratofortresses pounded enemy gun positions, truck parks and fuel storage areas five miles above the frontier.

U.S. fighter-bombers flew 125 missions against the North Sunday, destroying or damaging 47 trucks and supply boats, the U.S. Command said. One Air Force F105 Thunderchief was shot down 45 miles above the DMZ. The pilot is missing. It was the 913th American warplane announced down in combat over North Vietnam.

Cincinnati Woman Charged In Shooting

CINCINNATI (AP) — A Cincinnati woman, charged with three counts of intentional shooting in the wounding of three persons in a cafe Saturday night, was to appear in Hamilton County Common Pleas Court today.

Roxie Jones, 59, is charged with the shooting of Patsy Renner, 12, who is in serious condition; and Patricia Wells, 39; and Ralph True, 42; who both were treated and released.

Police said the shooting was touched off by an argument between Miss Jones and Miss Wells and that True and Miss Renner were passersby.

All four persons are from Cincinnati.

Wallace Ignoring Polls, Still Talks Like A Winner

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP) —Third party candidate George C. Wallace goes into the closing week of the presidential campaign talking like a winner and belittling the polls which show him losing ground.

Wallace says he will be elected; that the polls are "liars . . . trying to rig the election;" that they have been wrong before and are wrong again.

After the returns have been counted Nov. 5, he says, "we're going to put some of the polling outfits out of business."

The former Alabama governor's campaign juices have been bubbling furiously since a crowd of about 17,000 greeted him with a 15-minute standing ovation Thursday night at Madison Square Garden in New York. It was the highlight of an intensive and hectic week of campaigning, mostly in the industrial East and Midwest.

His visibly buoyant spirits were uplifted again by a turnout of more than 10,000 shouting followers Saturday in Cincinnati. They had waited for him almost two hours because he was late in arriving.

"Does that look like my campaign is sagging?" he grinned. A national poll released Sunday gave Wallace 15 per cent of the vote, a drop of 5 points.

Wallace returned home for a weekend rest before starting today on the homestretch drive.

His visibly buoyant spirits yond Thursday, will take him back into Missouri, Texas, Oklahoma, Michigan, West Virginia, Pennsylvania, Maryland, and Virginia.

Paradoxically, he says it is those who like him the least who are helping him the most—the yelling, sometimes egg-and-rock throwing college students who disrupt his campaign rallies.

They have become almost a part of the routine as the string band which travels with him across the nation or the Taylor Sisters, Mona and Lisa, whose rendition of "Are You for Wallace?" sung to the tune of "Are You from Dixie?" brings him on stage.

Wallace denounces the hecklers as "anarchists" and "the kind of people folks in this country are sick and tired of." He says they "get me a million votes every time they show up."

Alternately, the controversial Southerner—who insists his third party movement is national, not sectional—taunts Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey, the Democratic nominee, as "a man anybody can beat," and Republican candidate Richard M. Nixon as one who "says one thing in one part of the country and another thing somewhere else."

He has sought to make a major campaign issue out of Nixon's unwillingness to take part in a televised debate. To dramatize it, he offered to step aside and let Nixon and Humphrey debate each other and then to buy television time to answer them.

To Southern voters who might support the GOP candidate, Wallace has made this challenge:

"You show me one good thing the Republicans have done for the South since the War Between the States and I'll get out of the race."

Ex-Resident Praised For Heroism In Crash

Words of praise for heroism have been showered on a former East Liverpool resident who was among the survivors of an airliner crash Friday night in New Hampshire which killed 22.

MISS FRAIL, a stewardess, was the only survivor among the three - member crew.

Robert Y. Kimball, assistant dean of the Tuck Business School at Dartmouth College, and other survivors pointed to the heroic action of Miss Frail and a physician on board, Dr. Richard L. Veech of Oxford, England.

They said Miss Frail opened a rear cargo door as an escape route for those in the tail section. The rear section split from the craft on impact and escaped most of the fire that consumed the front section.

Kimball, 44, said flames were licking at his feet as he crawled out an opening and into a tree, then jumped to the ground.

After crawling and stumbling about for "I don't know how long," Kimball said he came across "the real hero of this accident, Dr. Veech," who had suffered a severe back injury but "marshaled us all — the stewardess and the others—and got us going."

Kimball said Veech told them how to prop him up and what to do with those in shock, then, "when we heard two men crying . . . got us to go after them."

KIMBALL said Veech instructed him and another man on how to pull out one man pinned beneath a heavy tree, and then survivors moved away from the flames "and down to safety, where we gathered around in that awful cold."

After a while, he said, "we heard a plane over us and the voices of rescue groups, those incredible teams that came from all sides up to get us. You just can't believe how they helped me down a sheer drop 1,500 feet on a stretcher."

The rescue workers, using flashlights to locate the survivors, guided or carried them down improvised trails through the tightly knit white spruce, beech and maple trees and over moss - covered sharp rocks to a logging road, where they were put in emergency vehicles.

MISS FRAIL is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Frail of Berkeley Heights, former residents of Avondale St. here. Alfred Frail of Wellsville RD 1 is her grandfather and Mrs. Clara Haines of Lisbon is an aunt.

She attended Geneva College and became a stewardess about a year and a half ago.

HHH Lashes At Nixon In Akron Talk

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — Hubert H. Humphrey opened the final week of his campaign today with a charge that Republican Richard M. Nixon advocates "an increasing militarization of American life and American foreign policy."

To begin his stretch-drive for the presidency, the increasingly optimistic Democratic candidate led his forces into Ohio—a state rich with electoral votes but one which many surveys indicate as Nixon country.

But the vice president, appearing on television Sunday, said private surveys show he has better than a 50-50 chance to win in Ohio and he added:

"You know we do not get these surveys to please us. We get these voter surveys and polls to give us some sense of direction . . . I believe the trends indicate we are on the move and one of the sure things in politics that's vital and important is what is the trend as you move to Election Day. And I believe the trend is absolutely in our favor."

Humphrey, in remarks prepared for a rally in his tire-making center, turned his fire once again on Nixon's assertion that the Johnson and Kennedy administrations had permitted a security gap which Nixon would correct as president.

Humphrey charged that his Republican opponent is playing fast and loose with our national security."

Humphrey accused Nixon of "urging a mad escalation of the nuclear arms race. And he is advocating an increasing militarization of American life and American foreign policy."

Humphrey said that the figures his opponent has used on American arms strength are "phony and his facts are wrong."

Charges Gutter Politics

Nixon Defending Agnew On Past Business Deals

NEW YORK (AP) — Richard M. Nixon, appearing suddenly embattled in the final week of his presidential campaign, is defending running mate Spiro T. Agnew against conflict-of-interest charges.

Nixon, making his first network television interview appearance in two years, also suggested directly Sunday night that "people within the White House staff"—but not President Johnson—are trying to achieve a Vietnam bombing halt in an 11th hour effort to boost the candidacy of Democrat Hubert H. Humphrey. He did this in trying to explain an earlier public statement that stirred controversy.

The defensive stance of the GOP candidate, generally regarded as the frontrunner in the campaign,, was further underscored by public statements from two top aides attacking a national public opinion poll that, it was suggested, will soon indicate a Humphrey spurt.

Questioned About Agnew

Nixon, heading for rallies today in Albany, N.Y., and Pittsburgh, was questioned about Agnew's past business dealings on "Face the Nation" on CBS.

Asked to comment on an editorial Saturday in The New York Times accusing Agnew of "clear and repeated conflicts of interest" and controversial real estate deals, Nixon said:

"This is the lowest kind of gutter politics that a great newspaper could possibly engage in. It is not news that's fit to print . . ."

Agnew, campaigning in San Francisco, had no comment Sunday night.

Contending that the charges against the Republican vice presidential candidate were stale and had been answered two years ago, Nixon said, "A retraction will be demanded of the Times legally" today. He said he was sure any retraction would be printed "back with the corset ads or the classifieds toward the end of the week when nobody will pay any attention."

The Times, in its news pages, subsequently printed a comment by John B. Oakes, editorial page chief:

Nixon Answered

"The editorial . . . was a moderately worded expression of some of the reasons for the Times' belief that Mr. Agnew is indeed unfit to be vice president of the United States.

"Amidst all his verbal denunciation Mr. Nixon denies no statement of fact in the editorial except one detail on which he is quite imprecise. As soon as we know exactly which one of Mr. Agnew's conflicts of interest it is that Mr. Nixon challenges, we will of course reinvestigate. If any statement of ours should prove to be in error, we will say so on the editorial page."

The Times editorial questioned the propriety of Agnew's role, as governor of Maryland, in serving as a director of the Chesapeake National Bank of Towson, Md., an association which it said "involved clear and repeated conflicts of interest."

It further alleged:

". . . as a zoning board member, as chief executive of Baltimore County and as governor of Maryland, Mr. Agnew has been the political ally and financial partner of a group of wealthy land speculators. These businessmen have made sizable fortunes out of developing land in suburban Baltimore over the past 15 years, in part because of favorable zoning and government decisions, and Mr. Agnew's financial net worth has also risen sharply."

Trial Slated Monday On Charge Of Assault

LISBON — William James Irwin, 23, of 81 Williamson Ave., Youngstown, is scheduled for trial today in Common Pleas Court on a charge of assault with a dangerous weapon.

He is accused of shooting Ronald Bailey, 20, of 640 Henry Ave., Wellsville, and Pamela Lacey, 19, of McCoy Ave., East Liverpool, last May 4 on 25th St. Heights, Wellsville. The shooting at 5 a.m. climaxed an argument between two carloads of young people. Bailey and Miss Lacey were hospitalized.

Lawrence W. Smith of East Liverpool is court - appointed counsel for the defendant. Prosecuting Atty. J. Warren Bettis and assistant Richard J. Clark will represent the state.

Humphrey Gets Lead In New York Survey

NEW YORK (AP) — Hubert H. Humphrey has moved 4.2 percentage points ahead of Richard M. Nixon in New York State in the latest presidential straw poll reported Sunday by the New York Daily News.

In its third straw result of a five-part poll, Democrat Humphrey had 46.1 per cent, Republican Nixon 41.9 and American Independent George C. Wallace 8, with 4 per cent undecided.

Two Children Die In Chest

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Two children who were asphyxiated in a hope chest in suburban Bedford may have been playing hide - and-seek, their father says.

The children, Brian Navarra, 7, and his sister, Lisa, 5, were found dead late Saturday night.

Their father, Carl J. Navarra, said the youngsters had been sent to bed at 9:30 p.m.

"We thought they were asleep," he said. "At about 11, we sent the other two boys (Wade, 10, and Nick, 9) up, and when they couldn't find the kids we started looking in the attic."

The cedar chest, which was empty, has a snap type lock, Navarra said. He said the children had been warned previously and had promised to "stay away from that hope chest."

Mythical Candidate Takes Second Place

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — A mythical candidate named "NO" ran a strong second to Hubert H. Humphrey in a presidential poll conducted among students at the State University at Albany.

The candidate was designated on the ballot as "I disagree with the positions of all three major candidates. I feel my political beliefs and convictions are not adequately represented in the 1968 elections."

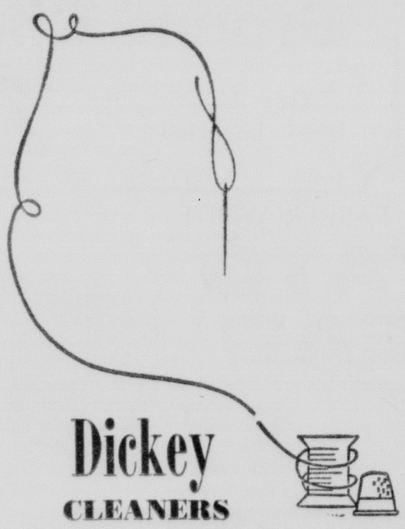

Of the 709 students voting, Humphrey received 298 votes, "NO", 256, Republican Richard M. Nixon, 133, and George C. Wallace 14.

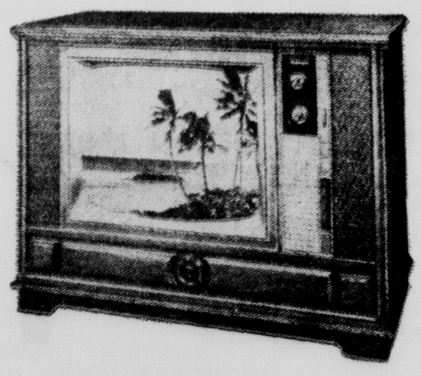

About 3,000 undergraudates are enrolled.

"This is the lowest kind of gutter politics that a great newspaper could possibly engage in. It is not news that's fit to print . . ."

Agnew, campaigning in San Francisco, had no comment Sunday night.

Contending that the charges against the Republican vice presidential candidate were stale and had been answered two years ago, Nixon said, "A retraction will be demanded of the Times legally" today. He said he was sure any retraction would be printed "back with the corset ads or the classifieds toward the end of the week when nobody will pay any attention."

The Times, in its news pages, subsequently printed a comment by John B. Oakes, editorial page chief:

Nixon Answered

"The editorial . . . was a moderately worded expression of some of the reasons for the Times' belief that Mr. Agnew is indeed unfit to be vice president of the United States.

"Amidst all his verbal denunciation Mr. Nixon denies no statement of fact in the editorial except one detail on which he is quite imprecise. As soon as we know exactly which one of Mr. Agnew's conflicts of interest it is that Mr. Nixon challenges, we will of course reinvestigate. If any statement of ours should prove to be in error, we will say so on the editorial page."

The Times editorial questioned the propriety of Agnew's role, as governor of Maryland, in serving as a director of the Chesapeake National Bank of Towson, Md., an association which it said "involved clear and repeated conflicts of interest."

It further alleged:

". . . as a zoning board member, as chief executive of Baltimore County and as governor of Maryland, Mr. Agnew has been the political ally and financial partner of a group of wealthy land speculators. These businessmen have made sizable fortunes out of developing land in suburban Baltimore over the past 15 years, in part because of favorable zoning and government decisions, and Mr. Agnew's financial net worth has also risen sharply."

Trial Slated Monday On Charge Of Assault

LISBON — William James Irwin, 23, of 81 Williamson Ave., Youngstown, is scheduled for trial today in Common Pleas Court on a charge of assault with a dangerous weapon.

He is accused of shooting Ronald Bailey, 20, of 640 Henry Ave., Wellsville, and Pamela Lacey, 19, of McCoy Ave., East Liverpool, last May 4 on 25th St. Heights, Wellsville. The shooting at 5 a.m. climaxed an argument between two carloads of young people. Bailey and Miss Lacey were hospitalized.

Lawrence W. Smith of East Liverpool is court - appointed counsel for the defendant. Prosecuting Atty. J. Warren Bettis and assistant Richard J. Clark will represent the state.

Humphrey Gets Lead In New York Survey

NEW YORK (AP) — Hubert H. Humphrey has moved 4.2 percentage points ahead of Richard M. Nixon in New York State in the latest presidential straw poll reported Sunday by the New York Daily News.

In its third straw result of a five-part poll, Democrat Humphrey had 46.1 per cent, Republican Nixon 41.9 and American Independent George C. Wallace 8, with 4 per cent undecided.

Two Children Die In Chest

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Two children who were asphyxiated in a hope chest in suburban Bedford may have been playing hide - and-seek, their father says.

The children, Brian Navarra, 7, and his sister, Lisa, 5, were found dead late Saturday night.

Their father, Carl J. Navarra, said the youngsters had been sent to bed at 9:30 p.m.

"We thought they were asleep," he said. "At about 11, we sent the other two boys (Wade, 10, and Nick, 9) up, and when they couldn't find the kids we started looking in the attic."

The cedar chest, which was empty, has a snap type lock, Navarra said. He said the children had been warned previously and had promised to "stay away from that hope chest."

Mythical Candidate Takes Second Place

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — A mythical candidate named "NO" ran a strong second to Hubert H. Humphrey in a presidential poll conducted among students at the State University at Albany.

The candidate was designated on the ballot as "I disagree with the positions of all three major candidates. I feel my political beliefs and convictions are not adequately represented in the 1968 elections."

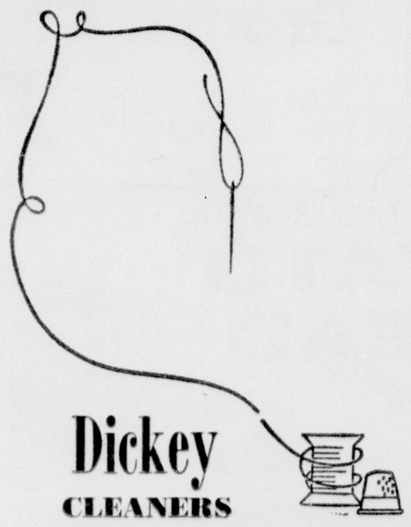

Of the 709 students voting, Humphrey received 298 votes, "NO", 256, Republican Richard M. Nixon, 133, and George C. Wallace 14.

About 3,000 undergraudates are enrolled.

Out Of The Air

By HAL HUMPHREY

Arte Finds His Niche

"It's the culmination of all my dreams. Think of it — the things I was doing in people's living rooms those many years are now accepted on TV and I'm suddenly getting paid for it," exclaims the diminutive (5-foot-3) Arte Johnson, who suddenly found fame by putting on a German helmet, looking into a TV camera on NBC's Rowan and Martin "Laugh-In" show and slowly saying "VERr rry IN-teresting!"

Hal Humphrey

"I did this character in college. I call him Sol, and he comes from all those old Nazi war movies where there was always a scene with several Wehrmacht officers studying a map. One of them always wound up with a "VER-rry INteresting," which struck me as very funny. But I never had any idea these two words would put me where I am today," says Arte, still amazed over his luck.

-:-

ARTE HAS four or five stock characters on "Laugh-In" and constantly is experimenting with others.

"I do an Irish dialect, but haven't yet found a place to work it into the show."

Next to Sol the German, the fans seem to favor his Russian (Pvotr Rosmenko) and his East Indian. Since Arte speaks nothing but English, he does all these in double-talk.

"Not everybody believes it's double-talk. NBC got letters from a Polish organization after I'd told a Slavic joke in double-talk, and they claimed it was a dirty, vulgar story.

"That's really funny, because even I don't know what I was saying. It gets the network worried, though, and they want me to write down what I'm going to say, but I try to explain that I can't do it. I don't know what I'm going to say before I say it," Arte insists.

HE WAS JUMPED ON for using the Yiddish word "klutz," because it "sounded dirty." But it isn't, according to Arte, who says it merely means "oaf."

Good or bad, all of this interest in Arte's various roles and dialects has him riding on Cloud 9. Before "Laugh-In," he had almost given up on an acting career. Jobs were few and far between, and he was (and still is) making a very nice living doing commercials for radio and TV, many of them just using his voice.

"Making commercials gave me a security I'd never had, and I'd decided I'd never really be accepted as an actor. Oh, I was called for a movie part like the FBI man in 'The President's Analyst' once in awhile.

"That's why I'm so happy now. How many guys get to work with a Bob Hope or Marcel Marceau, as I've done since being on 'Laugh-In'!"

THE WRITERS on the show give Arte a free rein, which also makes him happy. If he gets an idea of his own for a character or a line, Arte says the writers are grateful for the help and not like many comedy writers who believe comics have no judgment at all.

Of course, with "Laugh-In," the writers' jobs are so demanding each week they have trouble staying on top of it anyway.

If Arte has any worry at all now, it's the actor's old one of holding on to his own identity. Viewers are not always sure in some of Arte's get-ups that it is he; for example, his little-old-man disguise hides most of his features.

Then, too, there is Henry Gibson, who plays the parson and the poet with the flower on "Laugh-In". Henry is about the same size and even looks something like Arte. People are always getting them mixed up.

"HENRY, I knew before. We've been competitors for 10 years. He was traveling this summer and told me people kept coming up to him and saying 'VER-rry IN-teresting,' and that bugged him," reports Arte.

At first, Arte admits, he was concerned about this submergence into different characters, but he hopes he can make enough appearances as himself to compensate for this. "I'm the only one on the show with no clear, concise identity."

But dialects and disguises are Arte's bag, the they say, and in the shaky world of show business it's difficult to have an identity of your own when your talent is playing different characters, as Arte's wise East Indian guru character might pontificate knowingly.

Dawson And Spencer Discuss Job Openings

Theodore Spencer, an official of Citizens for Total Action, said City Treasurer Bert A. Dawson promised him today that the organization will be notified of any job openings which develop in the city income tax office, which is under the treasurer's supervision.

The discussion was another phase in the CTA effort to obtain posts for Negro residents at City Hall. Spencer said he and Dawson reached an amicable understanding.

Spencer said CTA also is continuing with its efforts to obtain jobs for Negroes in the water department office and on the Municipal Court staff.

2 Survivors Found At Downed Airplane

PARAMARIBO, Dutch Guiana (AP) — A search party today found two survivors and three bodies in the wreckage of a twin-engine KLM plane that crashed on an aerial survey mission Sunday in the western part of Dutch Guiana.

One of the dead men was Icelandic. All others aboard the plane were Dutch. A rescue official said one of the survivors was unhurt, and the other suffered minor injuries.

The cause of the crash was not immediately determined.

Youngsters Plan UNICEF Appeal For Lisbon Area

LISBON — Children from 10 churches in the Lisbon area will go Halloweening Wednesday afternoon and night to collect contributions for UNICEF (The United Nations Children's Fund). The money will be used to help children in need around the world.

The drive is sponsored by the Council of Church Women United. Women of the First Presbyterian Church are in charge of the house-to-house canvass. Mrs. Kenneth Williams and Mrs. S. E. Nold are co-chairmen.

Mrs. Williams said UNICEF has over 500 long - range projects in over 100 countries and operates on an annual budget equivalent to what the nations spend in two hours on armament.

Most of the children will do their calling after school. Adults from the churches will provide transportation.

Participating congregations are First Presbyterian, Trinity United Presbyterian, First United Methodist, First Christian, Holy Trinity Episcopal, St. Jacob's United Church of Christ, West Beaver and New Lebanon United Presbyterian Churches, Elkton United Methodist and Madison Trinity.

Andrew Jackson, who served as President of the U. S. from 1829 to 1837, was the first Democrat to live in the White House.

In Connecticut Race

Ribicoff Banks On GOP In Drive For Re-Election

HARTFORD, Conn. (AP) — Sen. Abraham Ribicoff, in trouble in his own Democratic party, is banking on Republicans and independents in his drive for re-election to a second term.

His Republican opponent, Edwin H. May Jr., a former one-term Congressman, is fishing among dissident blue-collar Democrats and finding signs of a possibly sizeable catch.

"It's strange to get booed by Democrats in Hartford and cheered by independents and Republicans in Fairfield County," says Ribicoff, who is making his fourth campaign for statewide office.

"If we don't get the workingman's vote, forget it," says a strategist for May, a Hartford insurance executive.

However widespread the disruption of traditional party lines, both sides agree Republican presidential nominee Richard M. Nixon must sweep the state by a margin of 50,000 to 100,000 for May to win.

The presidential race between Nixon and Democrat Hubert Humphrey is now rated about even in the state, with American Independent George C. Wallace expected to capture at most 12 per cent of the vote.

Polls show Ribicoff leading about 2 to 1. But they ignore the effect of Connecticut's complicated voting machines, which discourage ticket splitting.

Ribicoff's campaign hammers the theme that the 58-year-old former governor and secretary of health, educatoin and welfare is a "courageous and independent" senator.

Implicit is Ribicoff's dressing down of Chicago Mayor Richard J. Daley from the rostrum of the Democratic National Convention. He accused Daley of employing what he termed Gestapo police tactics on street demonstrators.

The Chicago speech has proven the biggest boon—and bomb—to Ribicoff's campaign although he brings it up only when asked.

It won him the support of thousands of enthusiastic backers of Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy and aides say it also won him many liberal Republicans and independents in a state where independents outnumber both Democrats and Republicans.

But the speech distressed many blue-collar Democrats already deeply troubled about law and order, the No. 1 campaign issue in the state.

Ribicoff, 58, is known throughout the state, having attracted both strong friends and vehement enemies in 30 years as a municipal judge, state legislator, congressman, governor, secretary of health, education and welfare and now senator.

In his campaign, he ignores May's existence and stresses courage, independence and concern for the young, the downtrodden and the ill.

On poster says simply: "Abe Cares."

May, whose term in the House ended 10 years ago, uses Ribicoff's name to help establish his own identity.

"Meet the guy who's going to knock off Abe Ribicoff," goes one introduction of May. A special card asks factory workers to "compare Ed May vs. Ribicoff."

Several months ago, a poll indicated only 20 per cent of Connecticut residents recognized May's name; 96 per cent recognized Ribicoff's. The latest poll shows May now recognized by 65 per cent.

As May pounds the factories day after day, many workers tell him they can no longer support Ribicoff because he "sides with the hippies."

May, a former state GOP chairman, passes out special cards in the factories pledging a "firm stand on law and order."

The card concludes: "Down deep you know it's time for a change."

Chester Citizens Pick Committee, Plan For Service

Mrs. Maude Campbell, Mrs. Sara Weltner and Mrs. Annamae Parr were appointed the social committee for November during the meeting of the Golden Age Club of the Chester area Friday afternoon at the Westminster United Presbyterian Church.

Plans were made to attend the World Community Day service Friday at the Chester United Methodist Church. The club will not hold its regular meeting on Friday, but women of the group will conduct a sewing session at the Westminster Church beginning at 10 a.m.

Lutton presented two readings during devotions.

R. M. McFarland of Charleston, a former member, and Mrs. Roy Moore were guests.

Mrs. Bertha Magnone received the corsage and Mrs. Twyla Mercer and Mrs. Elizabeth Mader the bouquets.

The next meeting will be Nov. 8 at 1:30 p.m.

Heavy Smog Closes Los Angeles Airport

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Fog closed International Airport again Sunday, and airliner flights were diverted to suburban fields. The heavy mist Saturday forced similar steps.

At the same time smog, after a first-stage alert on Friday, reached near-alert conditions with a recording of .4 part of ozone per million parts of air.

A first-stage smog alert, in which motorists are urged to do only emergency driving, is called when the ozone count reaches .5 part.

Arte Finds His Niche

"It's the culmination of all my dreams. Think of it — the things I was doing in people's living rooms those many years are now accepted on TV and I'm suddenly getting paid for it," exclaims the diminutive (5-foot-3) Arte Johnson, who suddenly found fame by putting on a German helmet, looking into a TV camera on NBC's Rowan and Martin "Laugh-In" show and slowly saying "VERr rry IN-teresting!"

Hal Humphrey

"I did this character in college. I call him Sol, and he comes from all those old Nazi war movies where there was always a scene with several Wehrmacht officers studying a map. One of them always wound up with a "VER-rry IN-teresting," which struck me as very funny. But I never had any idea these two words would put me where I am today," says Arte, still amazed over his luck.

-:-

ARTE HAS four or five stock characters on "Laugh-In" and constantly is experimenting with others.

"I do an Irish dialect, but haven't yet found a place to work it into the show."

Next to Sol the German, the fans seem to favor his Russian (Pvotr Rosmenko) and his East Indian. Since Arte speaks nothing but English, he does all these in double-talk.

"Not everybody believes it's double-talk. NBC got letters from a Polish organization after I'd told a Slavic joke in double-talk, and they claimed it was a dirty, vulgar story.

"That's really funny, because even I don't know what I was saying. It gets the network worried, though, and they want me to write down what I'm going to say, but I try to explain that I can't do it. I don't know what I'm going to say before I say it," Arte insists.

HE WAS JUMPED ON for using the Yiddish word "klutz," because it "sounded dirty." But it isn't, according to Arte, who says it merely means "oaf."

Good or bad, all of this interest in Arte's various roles and dialects has him riding on Cloud 9. Before "Laugh-In," he had almost given up on an acting career. Jobs were few and far between, and he was (and still is) making a very nice living doing commercials for radio and TV, many of them just using his voice.

"Making commercials gave me a security I'd never had, and I'd decided I'd never really be accepted as an actor. Oh, I was called for a movie part like the FBI man in 'The President's Analyst' once in awhile.

"That's why I'm so happy now. How many guys get to work with a Bob Hope or Marcel Marceau, as I've done since being on 'Laugh-In'!"

THE WRITERS on the show give Arte a free rein, which also makes him happy. If he gets an idea of his own for a character or a line, Arte says the writers are grateful for the help and not like many comedy writers who believe comics have no judgment at all.

Of course, with "Laugh-In," the writers' jobs are so demanding each week they have trouble staying on top of it anyway.

If Arte has any worry at all now, it's the actor's old one of holding on to his own identity. Viewers are not always sure in some of Arte's get-ups that it is he; for example, his little-old-man disguise hides most of his features.

Then, too, there is Henry Gibson, who plays the parson and the poet with the flower on "Laugh-In". Henry is about the same size and even looks something like Arte. People are always getting them mixed up.

"HENRY, I knew before. We've been competitors for 10 years. He was traveling this summer and told me people kept coming up to him and saying 'VER-rry IN-teresting,' and that bugged him," reports Arte.

At first, Arte admits, he was concerned about this submergence into different characters, but he hopes he can make enough appearances as himself to compensate for this. "I'm the only one on the show with no clear, concise identity."

But dialects and disguises are Arte's bag, the they say, and in the shaky world of show business it's difficult to have an identity of your own when your talent is playing different characters, as Arte's wise East Indian guru character might pontificate knowingly.

Ribicoff Banks On GOP In Drive For Re-Election

HARTFORD, Conn. (AP) — Sen. Abraham Ribicoff, in trouble in his own Democratic party, is banking on Republicans and independents in his drive for re-election to a second term.

His Republican opponent, Edwin H. May Jr., a former one-term Congressman, is fishing among dissident blue-collar Democrats and finding signs of a possibly sizeable catch.

"It's strange to get booed by Democrats in Hartford and cheered by independents and Republicans in Fairfield County," says Ribicoff, who is making his fourth campaign for statewide office.

"If we don't get the workingman's vote, forget it," says a strategist for May, a Hartford insurance executive.

However widespread the disruption of traditional party lines, both sides agree Republican presidential nominee Richard M. Nixon must sweep the state by a margin of 50,000 to 100,000 for May to win.

The presidential race between Nixon and Democrat Hubert Humphrey is now rated about even in the state, with American Independent George C. Wallace expected to capture at most 12 per cent of the vote.

Polls show Ribicoff leading about 2 to 1. But they ignore the effect of Connecticut's complicated voting machines, which discourage ticket splitting.

Ribicoff's campaign hammers the theme that the 58-year-old former governor and secretary of health, educatoin and welfare is a "courageous and independent" senator.

Implicit is Ribicoff's dressing down of Chicago Mayor Richard J. Daley from the rostrum of the Democratic National Convention. He accused Daley of employing what he termed Gestapo police tactics on street demonstrators.

The Chicago speech has proven the biggest boon—and bomb—to Ribicoff's campaign although he brings it up only when asked.

It won him the support of thousands of enthusiastic backers of Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy and aides say it also won him many liberal Republicans and independents in a state where independents outnumber both Democrats and Republicans.

May, whose term in the House ended 10 years ago, uses Ribicoff's name to help establish his own identity.

"Meet the guy who's going to knock off Abe Ribicoff," goes one introduction of May. A special card asks factory workers to "compare Ed May vs. Ribicoff."

Several months ago, a poll indicated only 20 per cent of Connecticut residents recognized May's name; 96 per cent recognized Ribicoff's. The latest poll shows May now recognized by 65 per cent.

As May pounds the factories day after day, many workers tell him they can no longer support Ribicoff because he "sides with the hippies."

May, a former state GOP chairman, passes out special cards in the factories pledging a "firm stand on law and order."

Ohio News Officials See Nixon, Saxbe Victories

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—An informal poll of 44 Ohio newspaper officials here over the weekend predicted Ohio victories No 5 for Richard M. Nixon, William B. Saxbe and constitutional amendment issue No. 1. The newspapermen felt issue No. 2 was doomed.

The poll was conducted during a discussion of the 1968 campaign at the closing session of the fall meeting of the Associated Press Society of Ohio. Laurence Newman, associate editor of the Dayton Daily News moderated the discussion.

The editors predicted 38-6 that Nixon would beat Democrat Hubert H. Humphrey. None felt third-party candidate George C. Wallace would win.

Thirty-five newsmen felt Saxbe would win the U.S. Senate race. Eight cast their votes for Democrat John J. Gilligan.

The editors indicated by a 28-15 vote that they felt the state bond issue, No. 1, would pass, but 32 felt issue No. 2, the homestead exemptions amendment, would fail. A dozen predicted its passage.

Brief discussions of the political picture in various state areas were given by Ed Fallon, managing editor of the Toledo Blade; Wilson Hirschfeld, state editor of the Cleveland Plain Dealer; Charles Hubbs, managing editor of the Cincinnati Enquirer, and Carl DeBloom, executive managing editor of the Columbus Dispatch.

The newsmen also felt that Gov. James A. Rhodes and former astronaut John Glenn would be the nominees for the Republican and Democratic parties in the 1970 race for Democrat Stephen M. Young's U.S. Senate seat.

Glenn spoke to the newsmen Saturday night, leaving wide open the question of whether he would seek public office again.

Asked if he would again seek office, Glenn replied, "I don't rule it out and I don't rule it in." He also said, "I think we all agree that our level of leadership is not what we would like to see for the problems we have."

Glenn said he felt it was unfortunate that our space program was cut back. "The longer the reduction, the longer it will take it to get going again," he said.

The retired Marine colonel said a halt in the bombing of North Vietnam "is a calculated risk we should probably take." He added, "we went awry a little bit because we didn't push for a political solution early enough or hard enough."

Personalities In The News

DETROIT (AP) — Mrs. Joseph P. Kennedy says the Kennedy family and friends plan a memorial to her son, the late Sen. Robert F. Kennedy.

Mrs. Kennedy, in Detroit Sunday for a meeting of the National Association for Retarded Children, said a meeting is scheduled within a week to discuss what shape the memorial will take. She said discussions were held at Hyannis Port, Mass., this summer.

Mrs. Kennedy said the memorial may be a tribute to Sen. Kennedy's interest in the underprivileged and may be similar to the Joseph P. Kennedy Jr. Foundation created in 1946 in honor of the Kennedy son who was killed in World War II. The foundation helps combat mental retardation.

MILLINOCKET, Maine (AP) — Elmer L. Onstott and Mr. and Mrs. Everett Skinner arrived this weekend at Mt. Katahdin at the end of a 2,003-mile hike along the Appalachian Trail.

Onstott, 69, of Ferguson, Mo., was the first to arrive. He set out alone April 15 and crossed paths several times with the Skinners, of Englewood, N.J., who left April 1. Skinner is 65 and his wife is 57.

The hike began at Springer Mountain, Georgia, and ended at snowy Baxter Peak on Mt. Katahdin.

CHARLESTON, S.C. (AP) — Paul C. Swartz, superintendent of Ft. Moultrie—Ft. Sumter National Monument, says the grave of Chief Osceola will be excavated to determine if the remains of the Seminole war leader are gone.

Otis W. Shriver, a Miami businessman, said he dug up the remains on Jan. 7, 1966 and returned them to Florida because he believed the chief should be buried in Florida with appropriate honors. He said he deposited the remains in a Miami bank vault.

"Depending on what is found within the grave," Swartz said Sunday, "the federal government could take two courses of action—suing for robbing a grave on federal property or providing evidence for a case of fraud." The grave is at Ft. Moultrie.

Pancake Supper Plans Pushed By Chester Kiwanis

The Chester Kiwanis Club is moving ahead with plans for its annual pancake supper Nov. 13-14 at Chester City Hall.

The Oak Glen Key Club will assist with the project. Serving will begin at 5 each night. Advertising placards have been placed in Chester business places. Lee Adams is chairman of tickets and publicity.

The club also is selling fruit cakes. Robert Cooley, president, said the first order of the cakes has been sold and delivered and the second order has been placed. The cakes are available from any member of the club or by telephoning Werkheiser Hardware, he said. He also announced the Chester Woman's Club is selling placemats which are kept at the hardware.

Cooley said a gum ball machine project is proceeding and asked cooperation of merchants in Chester, Newell and New Manchester in providing sites for the devices. Proceeds will be used for community youth activities.

Man Seriously Hurt During Fight In Jail

CINCINNATI (AP) — Cincinnati Workhouse officials were investigating today a fight that erupted in a cellblock Sunday night and injured two prisoners —one critically.

What triggered the melee was not known although guards said it started after prisoners returned to the cellblock after viewing a movie.

Richard W. Oney, 19, of Chillicothe was in critical condition today at Cincinnati General Hospital and Carl Jones, 42, Cincinnati, was treated and returned to the penal institution.

Both men were serving traffic violation sentences.

Flag To Fly Again At Small Post Office

COCKEYSVILLE, Md. (AP) — After two years, the American flag may soon fly again over the post office in this town of 2,500 persons.

U.S. Rep. Clarence D. Long said in a newsletter to constituents in Baltimore County Sunday that the Post Office Department has agreed to move the flagpole away from power lines which had prevented hoisting the flag.

Rally Attended By Club Women

Participating were Mrs. Clayton Hobbs Sr., Mrs. Eugene Seeley, Mrs. Ina Birkhimer, Mrs. Thomas Ridge and Mrs. Harold Dickey of the Chester Woman's Club, Mrs. William Harper, Mrs. Lee Adams and Miss Leona Abrams of the Chester Woman's Civic Club and Mrs. Edward Strachan and Mrs. Pauline Figley of the Chester Arts Club.

Halloween Patrol Set By District CB Groups

Citizens Band radio operators interested in taking part in a Halloween patrol to protect "trick or treaters" are invited to attend a planning meeting Tuesday night.

The meeting will begin at 7 at the home of George Barton of 681 Springrove Ave., Pleasant Heights. A joint committee of the Road Roamers CB Club and Penova CB Radio Club will sponsor the patrol.

I've already talked at length about the billions that we give away in foreign aid, about the millions of it wasted and stolen in this aid program, but let me give you today a few tiny, expenses listed by the administration as vital to our national objectives:

$50,000 to study the psychological effect of tatoos on sailors.

$40,000 to learn why Ausabout the BILLIONS that we more than we do.

Ask Builder For Assistance

New Home Has Troubles

People expect problems in an old house; expect on the the other hand that if they have bought a new one they will have none at all.

Actually you can almost count on problems in a new house, especially during he first year which is a sort of break-in period. Major defects should be called to the attention of the builder. Minor problems you should learn to take in stride. Learn which are which.

Every house will settle. Count on it. And there also will be both shrinkage and swelling of the materials in the house.

IF A HOUSE settled evenly there would be no problem. But the earth under a house may settle in one spot and not in another. Some structural cracks will appear. Minor hairline cracks around windows and in corners are normal and they don't affect the strength of the walls.

Shrinkage in the framing lumber also will cause minor plaster cracks in ceilings and walls. Don't be in a hurry to repair them unless they are large. Shrinkage can go on for a couple of years. By then you will be ready to decorate. Fill the tiny cracks with spackling compound and paint.

Cracks may appear around doors and windows in dry weather. Relax. Most of them will close up when it gets humid again.

Expect some swelling of doors and windows. Don't plane off a lot of wood. Don't haul out a wood rasp. Just lightly sand the high spots. Taking off too much wood will make the doors loose when they shrink back to normal.

In the winter when the air is dry, expect to find some hairline cracks between floor boards. If the floor were too tight it would buckle in humid summer weather.

NOW, WHEN are problems major and when should you yell for the builder? Figure that all plumbing, heating and wiring ought to last out the first year without trouble. Save copies of manufacturer's guarantees on such items as water heaters, furnaces, dishwashers, all built-in appliances, all name-brand items.

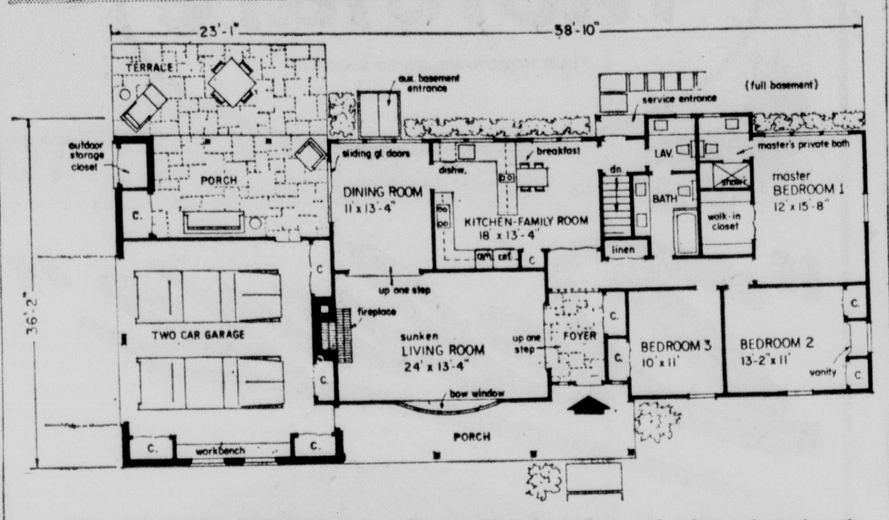

Cracks that are wider than a pencil point are not normal. Same goes for good size cracks in foundations. Doors that are so badly warped that you can see daylight through one side should not be your problem. A wood floor that buckles is bad lumber or bad workmanship or both. A heating plant that cannot be adjusted to keep all rooms at about 70 degrees regardless of the cold outside should be checked out.

IF WATER comes through a basement wall or up through the floor let the builder know. Minor moisture may be caused by settling of the earth around the house causing drainage toward the foundation instead of away from it. Watch this problem yourself.

Let the builder know your problems in writing. Don't bother him with occasional small complaints one at a time, but give him a list of things that will make it worth his time to send a repairman around. You have a right to expect him to correct serious problems.

THIS ONE-STORY COLONIAL is a well-proportioned, modest - size home featuring the typically Colonial front porch, which is 31 feet long, so the entire family plus guests can sit out front. The porch also protects the front entrance of the house and provides covered access to and from the garage. The rear porch is private because of its location and storage closet screening. Living room is large and sunken. Adding to impressiveness are a fireplace and 11-foot bow window. A lavatory by the back door prevents tracking through the home from outdoors. Centralization of baths reduces plumbing costs. Rudolph A. Matern, 89 E. Jericho Turnpike, Mineola, N. Y. 11501 is architect for 1,642-square-foot Plan HA566M.

Dos And Don'ts

By ANDY LANG
AP Newsfeatures

Getting ready to paint a room? Here are some dos and don'ts that may help you with the project:

Do see that the walls and ceiling are clean, wiping off all dust and washing off grease and dirt.

Do fix all openings in plaster and gypsum board, being careful to prime the patches before painting.

Do sand any spots or areas that are glossy to enable the new paint to grip properly. If all the walls are glossy, as might be the case in a kitchen or bathroom, dull the old finish with a special compound sold in hardware and paint stores especially for this purpose.

Do paint across the narrow width of the ceiling. The walls may be started at any upper corner.

Do paint in a dry area towards a wet one, overlapping very slightly.

Do paint a window by starting with the vertical parts of the sash, then the horizontal ones, then the frame, the sash tracks, the casing and the sill.

Do use the proper thinner: turpentine or mineral spirits for regular oil paint: water for latex: an odorless thinner for odorless paint.

THE WAY to avoid trouble is:

Don't forget that, when standing on a plank set between the rungs of two ladders — or anything similar the paint can should always be behind you.

Don't overlook the possibility that the ceiling, or most of it can be painted while standing on the floor by using a roller attached to a long handle.

Don't, when using a brush, slap it on. Apply it.

Don't, when using a roller, spin it at the end of a stroke or roll too fast.

Don't rely on being careful to keep paint drips off your furniture. Move the furniture into the center of the room and then cover it with a plastic or other type of covering.

Tape Helps Seal Unused Windows

The average house will have one or more windows which never are opened during the rainy season because they are not right fits and swell when wet. Usually these are casement windows and, as a rule, the narrow variety which are found in the projections of a bow or bay window.

There are other windows, usually in the attic, which are always closed except during the summer, and many of them leak and cause damage to the house interior.

Windows which are not used and which cause trouble by allowing rain in can be sealed so that they are weatherproof. The job is done by first closing the window as tightly as possible and then running a strip of gummed tape along the frame edges where it sets into the window frame.

This type of tape is treated with a gum which has great adhesive properties but which does not set up so hard that it will tear the paint away when it is peeled off. It also comes in colors so that a more or less good match can be made to the color scheme of the house exterior.

A taping job of this sort is also very effective in sealing storm sash which are not a good enough fit to be effective, as well as sealing cracks of any kind in wood construction wher it is impossible to caulk properly.

In summer camps or other temporary lightly built shelters, and where ordinary mosquito netting is used to protect window openings, this tape makes a better and more permanent fastening than tacks or wood strip. All light closures or fastenings can be well and securely done with a good gummed tape.

Rips Nixon

LBJ To Put Full Support Behind Humphrey Drive

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson, after a busy weekend of ripping into Republican Richard M. Nixon as a man of the past, says he is going all out this week to help elect Democrat Hubert H. Humphrey president.

Backing the Democratic slate before an audience of New York's polyglot population Sunday, Johnson said:

"I hope between tonight and next Sunday night all of you will do what I am going to do, everything that I can to see that Hubert Humphrey and Edmund Muskie are elected on Nov. 5."

If the weekend presidential performance was any gauge, the president will be on the campaign trail in several states and on the airwaves.

Speech Planned

But the White House wasn't confirming—or ruling out—anything in the way of specific plans, other than a speech on NBC television next Sunday.

Newsmen trailing Johnson to three states Saturday and Sunday got the idea, though, that it was going to be a busy week of politicking, perhaps with quick calls in some key states and another spot or two on the networks.

Since the President said he would be voting next week in Johnson City, he might take the opportunity for some home-state stumping in Texas—a spot with 34 important electoral votes which Humphrey forces rate a tossup.

Johnson already has got in some political licks for Humphrey there. And over the weekend he hit not only New York but also some of the cities and hootin' hollows of West Virginia and Kentucky.

Dedicating a dam at Pikeville, at the eastern tip of Kentucky, Johnson took credit for his administration for bringing progress and better times to the Appalachian region. He slapped at "wooden soldiers of the status quo," "old voices of reaction," and "forces of cold indifference" and declared:

"The surest way you can reverse the tide of progress in America is to go out and elect yourself a Republican president and a Republican Congress."

Leaving a cluster of newsmen and a disabled helicopter, the President flew up to Morgantown, W.Va., and challenged Nixon to speak out on issues and answer some questions.

"I have never, in all my days," he said, "seen a slicker, more over-organized, trumped up, misleading, now-you-see-it-now-you-don't political campaign than the one the Republicans are waging this year."

"A man running for president," he said, "ought to come out and tell you how he feels."

Advising his listeners to vote the straight Democratic ticket a week from Tuesday, Johnson contended Humphrey of all men is the best qualified to follow him in the White House.

For the Sunday appearance, on CBS radio and in person before the Democratic National Committee's All Americans Council in New York, the President had almost identical speeches.

He said there is one big difference between the major political parties—"Democrats face problems. Republicans defer problems."

Nixon Tagged A Deferer

He tagged Nixon as a deferer and "a man from the past" whom Humphrey is going to defeat in a repetition of Harry S. Truman's epic of Republican Thomas E. Dewey in 1948.

In support of the "man from the past" label, Johnson ticked off what he called examples.

"It is a long list," he said. "But I cite it to you today in the light off the ugly and unfair charges that have been made about our security gap and the charges that have been made about our attempts to win peace in the world."

It was in the same city last week that Nixon accused the Democrats of opening up "a gravely serious security gap"—immediately challenged by the administration—in such things as missiles, nuclear submarines, planes and strategic stockpiles."

And in New York Friday, Nixon raised and then repudiated in the same statement a suggestion that the administration was trying for a swift bombing halt in Vienam in "a cynical, last-minute attempt by President Johnson to salvage the candidacy of Mr. Humphrey."

Hough School Hit By Blaze At Cleveland

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — School authorities meet today to decide what to do with pupils of Hough Elementary School, which was partially destroyed by fire Sunday night.

It was the fourth major school fire in Negro slum areas in 19 months. The loss was estimated by fire authorities at $110,000, and loss in the four school fires totals more than a half a million dollars.

School Supt. Paul W. Briggs said it would cost more than $500,000 to replace the 12 classrooms destroyed.

The first of the 60 firemen arriving on the scene at 8915 Hough Ave. said stones and bottles were thrown at them. Several police cars were dispatched to the scene, and no further trouble was reported, although a crowd of about 300 persons gathered to watch the fire.

Briggs said efforts would be made to restore the unburned portion of the building, which was damaged by smoke and heat.

The school, one of the oldest in the city, was composed of two buildings connected by an enclosed passageway and had an enrollment of 770. One section was built in 1887 and the other in 1893.

The fire started in the older section at the rear in a second-floor classroom. The roof caved in about an hour after the fire started.

Residents of a frame apartment building nearby were evacuated, but firemen prevented the flames from spreading.

The DOCTOR Says

Shyness Can Be Overcome With Time

A mother writes that her daughter, 6, is extremely shy. Her teacher says she will not take part in any school activities or play with the other children. Her behavior at home is perfectly normal. This is not an uncommon problem in children who have not had much contact with children of the same age. Pushing them into large group activities will only aggravate the trouble. This mother should invite one or two of her daughter's new acquaintances into her home two or three times a week. At first she should stay with them and keep the party going.

Dr. Brandstadt

AS HER DAUGHTER comes to accept new friends, she should gradually increase the number and withdraw so that they can be on their own. The child should not be scolded or teased about her shyness but, as she comes out of her shell, her mother should start in a quiet way to present the advantages of joining a Brownie group when she becomes old enough.

Q—My daughter has a nervous habit of picking at her upper lip until it bleeds. How can I get her to stop?

A—She will have to do the stopping for herself. She may need the help of a child psychologist to find out why she does this. In addition to spoiling her looks, there is the danger of infection.

Q—My child has molluscum contagiosum. What causes it? Is it serious? What treatment do you recommend?

A—This skin disease is caused by a virus. It is not very contagious, but the victim may spread it from part of his body to another. It is not serious. The usual treatment is to incise each papule, squeeze out the contents using aseptic precautions so as not to spread the infection and apply trichloracetic acid or silver nitrate to the cavity. If the disease is extensive, your doctor may also want to give your child a sulfa drug.

Q—My son, 2½, is covered with spots that look like the start of chicken pox. A skin doctor says he has uticaria pigmentosa. What causes it? Can anything be done for it?

A—In this disease hives develop, last for several weeks, then gradually become brown. The cause is probably an allergy. The lesions are aggravated by rubbing or scratching and, for this reason, a soothing lotion should be applied. An antihistamine usually shortens the course of the disease. Children often outgrow it.

Ask Builder For Assistance

New Home Has Troubles

People expect problems in an old house; expect on the the other hand that if they have bought a new one they will have none at all.

Actually you can almost count on problems in a new house, especially during he first year which is a sort of break-in period. Major defects should be called to the attention of the builder. Minor problems you should learn to take in stride. Learn which are which.

Every house will settle. Count on it. And there also will be both shrinkage and swelling of the materials in the house.

IF A HOUSE settled evenly there would be no problem. But the earth under a house may settle in one spot and not in another. Some structural cracks will appear. Minor hairline cracks around windows and in corners are normal and they don't affect the strength of the walls.

Shrinkage in the framing lumber also will cause minor plaster cracks in ceilings and walls. Don't be in a hurry to repair them unless they are large. Shrinkage can go on for a couple of years. By then you will be ready to decorate. Fill the tiny cracks with spackling compound and paint.

Cracks may appear around doors and windows in dry weather. Relax. Most of them will close up when it gets humid again.

Expect some swelling of doors and windows. Don't plane off a lot of wood. Don't haul out a wood rasp. Just lightly sand the high spots. Taking off too much wood will make the doors loose when they shrink back to normal.

In the winter when the air is dry, expect to find some hairline cracks between floor boards. If the floor were too tight it would buckle in humid summer weather.

NOW, WHEN are problems major and when should you yell for the builder? Figure that all plumbing, heating and wiring ought to last out the first year without trouble. Save copies of manufacturer's guarantees on such items as water heaters, furnaces, dishwashers, all built-in appliances, all name-brand items.

Cracks that are wider than a pencil point are not normal. Same goes for good size cracks in foundations. Doors that are so badly warped that you can see daylight through one side should not be your problem. A wood floor that buckles is bad lumber or bad workmanship or both. A heating plant that cannot be adjusted to keep all rooms at about 70 degrees regardless of the cold outside should be checked out.

IF WATER comes through a basement wall or up through the floor let the builder know. Minor moisture may be caused by settling of the earth around the house causing drainage toward the foundation instead of away from it. Watch this problem yourself.

Let the builder know your problems in writing. Don't bother him with occasional small complaints one at a time, but give him a list of things that will make it worth his time to send a repairman around. You have a right to expect him to correct serious problems.

Dos And Don'ts

By ANDY LANG
AP Newsfeatures

Getting ready to paint a room? Here are some dos and don'ts that may help you with the project:

Do see that the walls and ceiling are clean, wiping off all dust and washing off grease and dirt.

Do fix all openings in plaster and gypsum board, being careful to prime the patches before painting.

Do sand any spots or areas that are glossy to enable the new paint to grip properly. If all the walls are glossy, as might be the case in a kitchen or bathroom, dull the old finish with a special compound sold in hardware and paint stores especially for this purpose.

Do paint across the narrow width of the ceiling. The walls may be started at any upper corner.

Do paint in a dry area towards a wet one, overlapping very slightly.

Do paint a window by starting with the vertical parts of the sash, then the horizontal ones, then the frame, the sash tracks, the casing and the sill.

Do use the proper thinner: turpentine or mineral spirits for regular oil paint: water for latex: an odorless thinner for odorless paint.

THE WAY to avoid trouble is:

Don't forget that, when standing on a plank set between the rungs of two ladders — or anything similar the paint can should always be behind you.

Don't overlook the possibility that the ceiling, or most of it can be painted while standing on the floor by using a roller attached to a long handle.

Don't, when using a brush, slap it on. Apply it.

Don't, when using a roller, spin it at the end of a stroke or roll too fast.

Don't rely on being careful to keep paint drips off your furniture. Move the furniture into the center of the room and then cover it with a plastic or other type of covering.

Tape Helps Seal Unused Windows

The average house will have one or more windows which never are opened during the rainy season because they are not right fits and swell when wet. Usually these are casement windows and, as a rule, the narrow variety which are found in the projections of a bow or bay window.

There are other windows, usually in the attic, which are always closed except during the summer, and many of them leak and cause damage to the house interior.

Windows which are not used and which cause trouble by allowing rain in can be sealed so that they are weatherproof. The job is done by first closing the window as tightly as possible and then running a strip of gummed tape along the frame edges where it sets into the window frame.

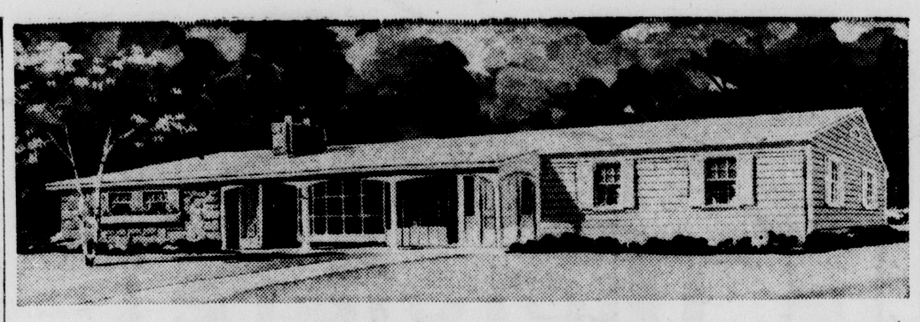

This type of tape is treated with a gum which has great adhesive properties but which does not set up so hard that it will tear the paint away when it is peeled off. It also comes in colors so that a more or less good match can be made to the color scheme of the house exterior.

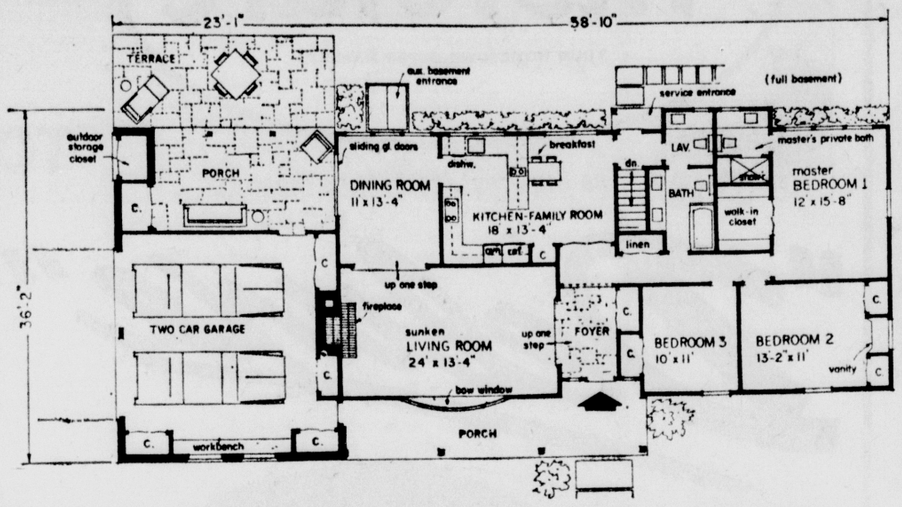

A taping job of this sort is also very effective in sealing storm sash which are not a good enough fit to be effective, as well as sealing cracks of any kind in wood construction wher it is impossible to caulk properly.

In summer camps or other temporary lightly built shelters, and where ordinary mosquito netting is used to protect window openings, this tape makes a better and more permanent fastening than tacks or wood strip. All light closures or fastenings can be well and securely done with a good gummed tape.

Injuries Claim Man

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP)—David Traxler, 25, Youngsown, died Sunday in North Side Hospital of injuries received Feb. 9 in a car-truck accident near Barberton. He had been in a coma since the accident.

THIS ONE-STORY COLONIAL is a well-proportioned, modest - size home featuring the typically Colonial front porch, which is 31 feet long, so the entire family plus guests can sit out front. The porch also protects the front entrance of the house and provides covered access to and from the garage. The rear porch is private because of its location and storage closet screening. Living room is large and sunken. Adding to impressiveness are a fireplace and 11-foot bow window. A lavatory by the back door prevents tracking through the home from outdoors. Centralization of baths reduces plumbing costs. Rudolph A. Matern, 89 E. Jericho Turnpike, Mineola, N. Y. 11501 is architect for 1,642-square-foot Plan HA566M.

HINTS FROM HELOISE

Hanger Protects Dress

DEAR HELOISE: May I tell you about the perkiest nylon net idea that I've seen yet?

Heloise

The pieces of net (approximately 165) are easily TIED all the way around the wire of a hanger and pushed together just as close as possible. No need to even tie them in a real hard knot. Just loop the net once and pull it tight, then push it up against the previous one added.

The good thing about this is the ends of the nylon rectangles stick out and make the fluffiest hanger to use for those special dresses because it absolutely won't leave a crease across the shoulders. And truly great for hanging drip dries on because the net holds the garment away from the hanger so the air can circulate through it.

Oh, what a dream of an idea. And wouldn't they be just the thing for Bluebirds and Girl Scouts to make for church bazaars — especially as they don't require any sewing at all.

Bless your sweet heart for sending this in.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: Here's a suggestion for coin collectors:

To clean old coins, just take a pencil eraser and rub it on the soiled side of the coin. Before you know it, the coin is clean and the date can be clearly seen!

DEAR HELOISE: When baby starts outgrowing those nice terry cloth stretch outfits with the feet, here's a way of prolonging their life a bit.

I cut only the heels and toes out, leaving enough in the middle to have a strap (like stretch pants). Then I let him wear them with shoes and socks. Great on the budget . . . Now if I can just figure out how to stretch them a bit farther!

BUSY MOTHER.

DEAR HELOISE: Anyone having a hard time keeping shoe strings tied?

Just put a tiny piece of clear cellophane tape over the knot, then tie the bow and it will remain tied all day.

Nurses do this at the hospital where I work. Saves stooping to retie them several times a day. And the tape doesn't show.

MRS. EUGENE BIJOLD.

DEAR HELOISE: At wit's end to amuse the children? Here's a new way to use their coloring crayons which will fascinate 'em for hours.

Hand them the uncolored comic pages of the daily paper, together with their crayons and a small square of ordinary window screen. A piece of screen about six by six inches is fine. Bend under any protruding wires on the edges so little fingers won't get stuck.

Have them place the screen under the picture they want to color before applying the crayon to the paper. The "color dotted" result will keep them busily occupied indefinitely and re-awaken their interest in coloring.

HOWARD S. PYLE.

DEAR HELOISE: It's a wish of mine that every box packed for a serviceman in Vietnam contain an inexpensive mechanical toy of some kind. What a wonderful way to promote friendship — in the giving of some little dime store novelty to a Vietnamese child.

The box to my son in Korea contained a trapeze toy. It made a Korean boy very happy (after every soldier had a turn playing with the toy).

The GI's will receive a bit of kidding, some fun, and a little boy or girl's smile of "thank-you-for-it."

MRS. RUSSELL CARLSON.

State Officials Clear Legal Bar In Arraignments

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — State officials have cleared a legal hurdle enabling 15 Ohio Penitentiary inmates serving life terms to be arraigned in Franklin County Common Pleas Court.

The inmates are among 58 indicted by a Franklin County grand jury on charges stemming from the June 24 and Aug. 20-21 prison riots.

"There is a specific exemption from arraignment for those serving life terms," said John McElroy, top assistant for Gov. James A. Rhodes.

But he added after reading the state code it was found that the inmates could be arraigned if they were accompanied to and from the courtroom by penitentiary guards.

Heavily armed prison guards and sheriff's deputies escorted 13 inmates to court for arraignment Friday. All pleaded innocent.

North Side Group Names Officers

Officers were elected when the North Side Community League, Inc., met at the former Lincoln School.

Named were Thomas Miller; president; James Lawrence, vice president; Mrs. Margaret Hanna, secretary; Jess Finley, treasurer, and Patrick May, Richard Manning and the Rev. Philip Carl, board of directors.

Committee chairmen appointed were Ray Richards, ways and means, Ray Hopper, program; and Fred Brenneman, house committee.

Don Eckert spoke on the half mill recreation levy on the November ballot. The group is looking for volunteer workers and equipment. Anyone with anything to offer may notify Mr. Miller. A halloween dance is planned. The date will be announced.

The next meeting will be Nov. 13 at 7:30 p.m.

Colts Clip Rams 27-10; Steelers Win 1st; Browns On Top

Sports Whirled

By TURK PIERCE
Review Sports Editor

The Pittsburgh Steelers finally won a game.

Or rather, they played someone who could give the game away more often than the Steelers. The Philadelphia Eagles handed the Steelers 6-3 win at Stadium yesterday by gambling on a fourth-and-one situation on their own 10-yard line.

The gamble failed, the Steelers got a field goal, and there was not enough time left for the Eagles to score. The failure of the two teams to score a touchdown was not so surprising when its considered their combined records are 1-13. It must be admitted, however that numerous penalties assessed by the officials prevented both teams from scoring on other occasions. The men in striped shirts seemed intent on out gaining either of the teams.

Skeptics will say this was the wrong game for the Steelers to win. The contest between the winless elevens was billed as "The Orange Juice Bowl," the implication being that the loser would go on to finish with the worst record in the league and therefore be in a position to grab off Southern Cal's fabulous O. J. Simpson in the draft. The Eagles are now presumably in that position. The decision of coach Joe Kuharich, on the fourth year of a 15-year contract, to go for the first down on the 10, would imply that he might be angling for Simpson and writing this year off. But it's a little too early to do that, and the victory and its effect on the morale of the Steelers is surely worth more than a possible O. J. Simpston in years to come. Besides, as one long-suffering Steeler fan noted, Pittsburgh might grab someone like Gary Glick or Dick Leftridge as its number one draft choice, and overlook Simpson.

HANK IBA deserves a lot of credit for bringing home the Olympic basketball gold medal to the United States once again. Iba, the coach at Oklahoma State, took a group of players regarded as second-line and molded them into a unit that overpowered all opposition at the games.

He had one All-American, Jo-Jo White of Kansas, and a player who may yet be, Spencer Haywood, who will attend the University of Detroit. But Iba's coaching was the big factor in the medal. Can you imagine how lopsided the games could have been if the U.S. team had had Lew Alincindor, Elvin Hayes, Don May, Pete Maravich and Calvin Murphy, all available?

Packers, Dallas Meet Tonight

By ED SCHUYLER JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Forgotten Five Plus One isn't a Dixieland band, just some offensive linemen whose play sounded a happy note for the Baltimore Colts in the National Football League.

"The only time our offensive line gets publicized is when we face the Rams or we break down on a play," tackle Sam Ball said Sunday after he and his mates sparked the Colts to a 27-10 victory over Los Angeles.

Baltimore now is tied at 6-1 with the Rams for first place in the Coastal Division.

In a key game tonight, the struggling Green Bay Packers, bidding for a fourth straight NFL title, meet the Cowboys in Dallas.

A victory would move the Packers, 2-3-1, into a first-place tie with Detroit in the Central Division. A loss will leave them in last place. Dallas will be gunning for a 7-0 record and for a measure of revenge against the Packers, who have beaten them in the last two league championship games.

Elsewhere in the NFL Sunday, San Francisco, 4-3, upset Detroit, 3-3-1, 14-7; Chicago, 3-4, surprised Minnesota, 3-4, 26-24; St. Louis, 4-3, beat New Orleans, 3-4, 31-17; Cleveland, 4-3, trounced Atlanta, 1-6, 30-7; the New York Giants, 5-2, edged Washington, 3-4, 13-10, and Pittsburgh, 1-6, topped Philadelphia, 0-7, 3-0.

Baltimore's defense was brilliant against Los Angeles, but the Colts' six interior offensive linemen, including two centers, outplaying the Rams' vaunted front four that paved the way for the victory.

Chicago moved into a second-place deadlock with Minnesota in the Central when Mac Percival kicked his fourth field goal of the game, a 47-yard boot, with three seconds left. Percival now has kicked nine field goals without a miss in the last two games.

St. Louis exploded for 21 points in the last quarter to remain in a first-place tie with Cleveland in the Century Division and drop New Orleans into third. Jim Hart's 53-yard touchdown pass to Dave Williams broke a 17-17 tie for St. Louis.

Leroy Kelly ran for two touchdowns and Bill Nelsen passed for another in Cleveland's romp over Atlanta.

The Giants, second to Dallas in the Capitol Division, launched an 80-yard touchdown drive in the fourth quarter to beat Washington. Tucker Frederickson scored the winner on a one-yard plunge.

Pittsburgh gained its first victory and kept Philadelphia winless by taking advantage of an Eagle gamble that failed. Philadelphia tried for a first-down on its own 10-yard-line with less than a yard to go and less than a minute left. Pittsburgh stopped the attempt and then won on Booth Lusteg's 15-yard field goal.

Chiefs Top Chargers, Keep AFL West Lead

In the air or on the ground, either way suits the Kansas City Chiefs to a T, and that is spelling nothing but trouble for chief rivals San Diego and Oakland in the American Football League.

The Chiefs and Coach Hank Stram revered to the old tight T against Oakland a week ago Sunday. They did not throw a pass, grinding out yardage on the ground, and the Raiders failed miserably as Kansas City strengthened its first place hold in the Western Division.

This past Sunday, the Chiefs returned to a balanced attack against San Diego. Len Dawson threw for one touchdown, and Bob Holmes and Mike Garrett ran for two others en route to a 27-20 victory over the Chargers.

Stram's club has won seven of eight games while Oakland and San Diego are tied for second, at 5-2, 1½ games behind.

Oakland moved up from third place with a 31-10 victory over Cincinnati, breaking a two-game losing streak after 14 straight triumphs.

The New York Jets joined Kansas City in a step toward a division title by clouting Boston 48-14 for a 5-2 record and a two game lead over the Patriots in the Eastern division.

In other games, Houston halted Buffalo 30-7 and Denver overcame Miami 21-14.

Using the pro T with split ends and flankers, instead of three running backs, the Chiefs moved 66 yards midway through the final period winning touchdown. Dawson passed 39 yards to Frank Pitts for openers and Garrett closed it with a 13-yard scoring dash for a 24-20 lead.

John Hadl passed for two San Diego scores, but four of his tosses were intercepted, two of them setting up field goals and the last by Jim Kearney ending the Chargers' final chance on the Kansas City five with less than two minutes to play.

Daryle Lamonica picked up Oakland with three scoring passes of 15 and 12 yards to Fred Biletnikoff and seven yards to Roger Hagberg, who also ran seven yards for a score.

The Jets defense completely stifled Boston, intercepting five passes and recovering three fumbles while Billy Joe ran for three touchdowns and Mat Snell two as Joe Namath also mixed a potent running attack with his passes.

Marlin Briscoe, taking over for ineffective Steve Tensi, sparked Denver from behind a 14-0 deficit in the second half as he ran for two scores, including a 10-yard sneak for the winning touchdown with two minutes left. Bob Griese pitched two scoring passes for Miami.

Bob Dickson Wins Haig Golf Event

By BOB MYERS
Associated Press Sports Writer

COSTA MESA, Calif. (AP) — Former Amateur champion Bob Dickson, a pro for less than a year, was delighted on more than one account today that he elected to join the play-for-pay golfers.

The 24-year-old from Tulsa, Okla., won the $100,000 Haig National Open Tournament Sunday with a final round two-under-par 69 for a 13-under par total of 271.

But Dickson had a scrappy little guy named Cri Chi Rodriguez on his neck all day, not to mention such other veteran players as Billy Casper and a few others.

Dickson was never collared from there on in. Chi Chi had to settle for par 71 and 273—and $13,200.

Bill Collins, 69 for 274, finished third; Bobby Mitchell, Danville, Va., 66 for 275, and Casper, Ken Still and Don Massengale, each with 71; Bob Rosburg, 67, and Jack Montgomery, 69, deadlocked at 276.

Unbeaten Brilliant Whips Stanton 50-6

BRILLIANT—Unbeaten Brilliant, ranked 11th in the state, broke open a close game with a 28-point fourth quarter and whipped Stanton 50-6 here Saturday afternoon.

Glen Blanchard led the win with four TDs and 153 yards rushing. Brilliant rolled up 527 yards total offense in winning its eighth straight on the season. Stanton is 4-3.

The lone Stanton score came early in the second half, on a short pass from Dave Olesky to Jack Byers. This narrowed the gap to 16-6, but the bigger Brilliant team wore the Red Raiders down. Bob Holland intercepted two passes to prevent worse damage. Rich Rine, Tom Joiner and Greg Hamilton scored the other Brilliant TDs, Hamilton's coming when he recovered a fumble by Rine in the end zone.

Ohio State, Ohio U. Keep Perfect Marks

By TOM GARDNER
Associated Press Writer

Four of Ohio's 35 college football teams are heading into the final month of the season with perfect records. At least one of these streaks will be snapped this Saturday.

The squads without a loss or a tie are Ohio University, Ohio Wesleyan, Baldwin-Wallace and —only because college football games aren't a minute and a half shorter—Ohio State.

Wesleyan, 5-0 over-all, had no trouble with Wabash Saturday, beating the Indianans 39-0. B-W, 6-0 on the season, beat Wittenberg 14-7 with a short TD pass from Mike Blake to O. J. Harbolt in the final 25 seconds of the game. OWU and B-W both are 3-0 in the conference.

Ashland College saw a string of 18 games without a loss snapped when Heidelberg upended the Eagles 15-9. An eight yard scoring run by Dave Kapes in the second quarter provided the Student Princes' winning margin.

Ohio State saw its 24-0 halftime lead over Illinois drop to a 24-24 tie late in the fourth quarter. But the Bucks mustered the winning touchdown with 1:30 left. Buckeye quarterback Rex Kern ran for two touchdowns in the first half but couldn't get the squad moving after the intermission.

Kern left near the end of the game with an injury and Ron Maciejowski came in to replace him. Maciejowski threw for two completions and carried once to move the Bucks from deep in their own territory to the Illinois 2. Jim Otis banged over from there for the winning score.

Ohio University had few problems in picking off Dayton 42-12 in a nonconference battle. The Bobcats take on Western Michigan next week in a Mid-American Conference skirmish that could assure Ohio of no worse than a tie for the title.

Elsewhere in the MAC, Toledo beat Kent State 28-12—the first Toledo victory at Kent since 1942—and Miami rolled to an easy 31-7 win over Bowling Green.

Cincinnati took its first Missouri Valley Conference loss, 34-27, from Tulsa despite two touchdown passes and a scoring run by Greg Cook. Jim O'Brien scored on a run and booted a pair of field goals for the Bearcats.

Muskingum battled a hard-nosed Capital defense for a 9-0 Ohio Conference victory and Mount Union whipped Hiram 33-18, Marietta won 25-6 over Otterbein, Denison sailed 23-6 over Oberlin and Wooster Beat Kenyon 28 - 16 to round out Ohio Conference activity.

Villanova handed visiting Xavier a 21-10 loss, Defiance won the Mid-Ohio Conference championship with a 14-6 defeat of Bluffton, Ferris State bounced Findlay 36-10 and West Virginia State nosed out Central State 27-20.

Wilmington whipped Case 27-6, South Dakota State edged Youngstown 23-20, John Carroll downed Adelbert 23-13 and Ohio Northern shut out Northwood of Michigan 27-0.

Late Scores Decide

Petchel Leads Western Over South Side 19-6

HOOKSTOWN—Western Beaver broke a 6-6 tie with two fourth period touchdowns to beat South Side Beaver 19-6 here Saturday afternoon.

The win was only the second for the Golden Beavers of Mike Hornick in eight starts. South Side is 3-4-1.

Petchel scored on a one-yard plunge with about six minutes to go to make it 12-6. South Side came right back, as Ken Dunlevy completed a halfback pass to Larry Anderson on the Western 15. Anderson broke his collarbone making the catch. On the next play quarterback Ed Ashcroft fumbled and Western recovered. On Western's first play Petchel streaked 72 yards for the clinching TD.

Both teams were able to move the ball well in the midfield area, as 44 first downs were recorded, but penalties and fumbles stopped scoring drives.

Glenmoor, Dixonville Meet Saturday For Title

The championship of the first season of the Bill Booth football little league will be held Saturday night at 7:30 at Patterson Field.

Glenmoor, the American Division winner, and Dixonville, the National Division winner, will meet in the title game. The Vi-Lar Kadettes will perform at halftime.

In final regular season action yesterday, Glenmoor beat Dixonville 20-0. Gary Cunningham got two TDs and Bill Henderson one.

In the other game, East End whiped West End 46-8. Rudy Jones had three TDs and Ernest Miller, John Craig and Jim Dailey one each, while Darrell Allen tallied five extra points. Tommy Scott scored for the losers.

In Pee Wee games, Glenmoor nipped Dixonville 6-0, with Fenton scoring, and West End downed East End 28-8. Tommy Scott scored two TDs and Steve Baker and Terry Bowyer one each for the winners, while Bill Brown scored for East End.

Colts Clip Rams 27-10; Steelers Win 1st; Browns On Top

By TURK PIERCE
Review Sports Editor

The Pittsburgh Steelers finally won a game.

Or rather, they played someone who could give the game away more often than the Steelers. The Philadelphia Eagles handed the Steelers 6-3 win at Stadium yesterday by gambling on a fourth-and-one situation on their own 10-yard line.

The gamble failed, the Steelers got a field goal, and there was not enough time left for the Eagles to score. The failure of the two teams to score a touchdown was not so surprising when its considered their combined records are 1-13. It must be admitted, however that numerous penalties assessed by the officials prevented both teams from scoring on other occasions. The men in striped shirts seemed intent on out gaining either of the teams.

Skeptics will say this was the wrong game for the Steelers to win. The contest between the winless elevens was billed as "The Orange Juice Bowl," the implication being that the loser would go on to finish with the worst record in the league and therefore be in a position to grab off Southern Cal's fabulous O. J. Simpson in the draft. The Eagles are now presumably in that position. The decision of coach Joe Kuharich, on the fourth year of a 15-year contract, to go for the first down on the 10, would imply that he might be angling for Simpson and writing this year off. But it's a little too early to do that, and the victory and its effect on the morale of the Steelers is surely worth more than a possible O. J. Simpston in years to come. Besides, as one long-suffering Steeler fan noted, Pittsburgh might grab someone like Gary Glick or Dick Leftridge as its number one draft choice, and overlook Simpson.

HANK IBA deserves a lot of credit for bringing home the Olympic basketball gold medal to the United States once again. Iba, the coach at Oklahoma State, took a group of players regarded as second-line and molded them into a unit that overpowered all opposition at the games.

He had one All-American, Jo-Jo White of Kansas, and a player who may yet be, Spencer Haywood, who will attend the University of Detroit. But Iba's coaching was the big factor in the medal. Can you imagine how lopsided the games could have been if the U.S. team had had Lew Alincindor, Elvin Hayes, Don May, Pete Maravich and Calvin Murphy, all available?

Packers, Dallas Meet Tonight

By ED SCHUYLER JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Forgotten Five Plus One isn't a Dixeland band, just some offensive linemen whose play sounded a happy note for the Baltimore Colts in the National Football League.

"The only time our offensive line gets publicized is when we face the Rams or we break down on a play," tackle Sam Ball said Sunday after he and his mates sparked the Colts to a 27-10 victory over Los Angeles.

Baltimore now is tied at 6-1 with the Rams for first place in the Coastal Division.

In a key game tonight, the struggling Green Bay Packers, bidding for a fourth straight NFL title, meet the Cowboys in Dallas.

A victory would move the Packers, 2-3-1, into a first-place tie with Detroit in the Central Division. A loss will leave them in last place. Dallas will be gunning for a 7-0 record and for a measure of revenge against the Packers, who have beaten them in the last two league championship games.

Elsewhere in the NFL Sunday, San Francisco, 4-3, upset Detroit, 3-3-1, 14-7; Chicago, 3-4, surprised Minnesota, 3-4, 26-24; St. Louis, 4-3, beat New Orleans, 3-4, 31-17; Cleveland, 4-3, trounced Atlanta, 1-6, 30-7; the New York Giants, 5-2, edged Washington, 3-4, 13-10, and Pittsburgh, 1-6, topped Philadelphia, 0-7, 3-0.

Baltimore's defense was brilliant against Los Angeles, but the Colts' six interior offensive linemen, including two centers, outplaying the Rams' vaunted front four that paved the way for the victory.

Earl Morrall passed for two touchdowns and ran for another as the Colts built up a 20-3 halftime lead.

Chicago moved into a second-place deadlock with Minnesota in the Central when Mac Percival kicked his fourth field goal of the game, a 47-yard boot, with three seconds left. Percival now has kicked nine field goals without a miss in the last two games.

St. Louis exploded for 21 points in the last quarter to remain in a first-place tie with Cleveland in the Century Division and drop New Orleans into third. Jim Hart's 53-yard touchdown pass to Dave Williams broke a 17-17 tie for St. Louis.

Leroy Kelly ran for two touchdowns and Bill Nelsen passed for another in Cleveland's romp over Atlanta.

The Giants, second to Dallas in the Capitol Division, launched an 80-yard touchdown drive in the fourth quarter to beat Washington. Tucker Frederickson scored the winner on a one-yard plunge.

Pittsburgh gained its first victory and kept Philadelphia winless by taking advantage of an Eagle gamble that failed. Philadelphia tried for a first-down on its own 10-yard-line with less than a yard to go and less than a minute left. Pittsburgh stopped the attempt and then won on Booth Lusteg's 15-yard field goal.

The squads without a loss or a tie are Ohio University, Ohio Wesleyan, Baldwin-Wallace and —only because college football games aren't a minute and a half shorter—Ohio State.

The two undefeated Ohio Conference power houses—Baldwin-Wallace and defending champ Ohio Wesleyan—square off next weekend in the battle for the conference crown.

Wesleyan, 5-0 over-all, had no trouble with Wabash Saturday, beating the Indianans 39-0. B-W, 6-0 on the season, beat Wittenberg 14-7 with a short TD pass from Mike Blake to O. J. Harbolt in the final 25 seconds of the game. OWU and B-W both are 3-0 in the conference.

Ashland College saw a string of 18 games without a loss snapped when Heidelberg upended the Eagles 15-9. An eight yard scoring run by Dave Kapes in the second quarter provided the Student Princes' winning margin.

Ohio State saw its 24-0 halftime lead over Illinois drop to a 24-24 tie late in the fourth quarter. But the Bucks mustered the winning touchdown with 1:30 left. Buckeye quarterback Rex Kern ran for two touchdowns in the first half but couldn't get the squad moving after the intermission.

Kern left near the end of the game with an injury and Ron Maciejowski came in to replace him. Maciejowski threw for two completions and carried once to move the Bucks from deep in their own territory to the Illinois 2. Jim Otis banged over from there for the winning score.

Ohio University had few problems in picking off Dayton 42-12 in a nonconference battle. The Bobcats take on Western Michigan next week in a Mid-American Conference skirmish that could assure Ohio of no worse than a tie for the title.

Elsewhere in the MAC, Toledo beat Kent State 28-12—the first Toledo victory at Kent since 1942—and Miami rolled to an easy 31-7 win over Bowling Green.

Cincinnati took its first Missouri Valley Conference loss, 34-27, from Tulsa despite two touchdown passes and a scoring run by Greg Cook. Jim O'Brien scored on a run and booted a pair of field goals for the Bearcats.

Muskingum battled a hard-nosed Capital defense for a 9-0 Ohio Conference victory and Mount Union whipped Hiram 33-18. Marietta won 25-6 over Otterbein, Denison sailed 23-6 over Oberlin and Wooster Beat Kenyon 28 - 16 to round out Ohio Conference activity.

Villanova handed visiting Xavier a 21-10 loss, Defiance won the Mid-Ohio Conference championship with a 14-6 defeat of Bluffton, Ferris State bounced Findlay 36-10 and West Virginia State nosed out Central State 27-20.

Wilmington whipped Case 27-6, South Dakota State edged Youngstown 23-20, John Carroll downed Adelbert 23-13 and Ohio Northern shut out Northwood of Michigan 27-0.

Unbeaten Brilliant Whips Stanton 50-6

BRILLIANT—Unbeaten Brilliant, ranked 11th in the state, broke open a close game with a 28-point fourth quarter and whipped Stanton 50-6 here Saturday afternoon.

Glen Blanchard led the win with four TDs and 153 yards rushing. Brilliant rolled up 527 yards total offense in winning its eighth straight on the season. Stanton is 4-3.

The lone Stanton score came early in the second half, on a short pass from Dave Olesky to Jack Byers. This narrowed the gap to 16-6, but the bigger Brilliant team wore the Red Raiders down. Bob Holland intercepted two passes to prevent worse damage. Rich Rine, Tom Joiner and Greg Hamilton scored the other Brilliant TDs, Hamilton's coming when he recovered a fumble by Rine in the end zone.

Petchel Leads Western Over South Side 19-6

HOOKSTOWN—Western Beaver broke a 6-6 tie with two fourth period touchdowns to beat South Side Beaver 19-6 here Saturday afternoon.

The win was only the second for the Golden Beavers of Mike Hornick in eight starts. South Side is 3-4-1.

Petchel scored on a one-yard plunge with about six minutes to go to make it 12-6. South Side came right back, as Ken Dunlevy completed a halfback pass to Larry Anderson on the Western 15. Anderson broke his collarbone making the catch. On the next play quarterback Ed Ashcroft fumbled and Western recovered. On Western's first play Petchel streaked 72 yards for the clinching TD.

Both teams were able to move the ball well in the midfield area, as 44 first downs were recorded, but penalties and fumbles stopped scoring drives.

Glenmoor, Dixonville Meet Saturday For Title

The championship of the first season of the Bill Booth football little league will be held Saturday night at 7:30 at Patterson Field.

Glenmoor, the American Division winner, and Dixonville, the National Division winner, will meet in the title game. The Vi-Lar Kadettes will perform at halftime.

In final regular season action yesterday, Glenmoor beat Dixonville 20-0. Gary Cunningham got two TDs and Bill Henderson one.

In the other game, East End whiped West End 46-8. Rudy Jones had three TDs and Ernest Miller, John Craig and Jim Dailey one each, while Darrell Allen tallied five extra points. Tommy Scott scored for the losers.

In Pee Wee games, Glenmoor nipped Dixonville 6-0, with Fenton scoring, and West End downed East End 28-8. Tommy Scott scored two TDs and Steve Baker and Terry Bowyer one each for the winners, while Bill Brown scored for East End.

Mexican Olympic Games Finish, America's Performance Best Ever

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

MEXICO CITY (AP) — Big George Foreman stood there in the center of the ring, a tiny American flag clutched in his huge black fist; a battered, bleeding Russian hulking nearby—a near-perfect symbol of American domination of the 19th Olympic Games.

Foreman, a 6-foot-3, 218-pounder, held aloft the little flag—a broad grin on his face—as he accepted America's record 45th gold medal after demolishing Iones Cepulis for the heavyweight boxing championship, the last event on the last full day of competition in the trouble riddled Games.

His victory was icing on the cake for the Yankee team which collected a total of 107 medals and clearly outscored the Soviets in total medals for the first time since the Russians entered the Games at Helsinki in 1952.

Russia finished with a total of 92 medals, 30 of them gold. In 1964 at Tokyo Russia led in total medals 96-90 while the United States led in golds, 36-30.

Naturally enough, there was an excuse for the Russian showing this year. It came from Gabriel Korobkov, the Soviet's track and field coach.

"Most of the world lives downstairs. They hold the Games upstairs," he said, referring to th 7,347-foot altitude of Mexico City. "It throws the Games out of balance."

Perhaps a more accurate explanation would be found in the almost incredible performance of the United States' swimming and diving team, along with the gymnastic exploits of Vera Caslavska of Czechoslovakia—the sweetheart of the Games—and Japan, which cut heavily into the Russian potential total.

The United States' swimmers and divers bagged 23 of the 33 gold medals and a total of 47 of the 89 medals up for grabs. Twelve more golds came in men's track and field, and three more in women's track and field—where the Russians failed to score a single gold.

The Americans also picked up two golds in boxing, two in sailing, one each in shooting and equestrian. And Henry Iba's superbly coached, pick-up basketball team, spurned by many of the top collegiate stars, continued its unbeaten string.

The U.S. basketball squad won the gold in convincing fashion, whipping Yugoslavia 65-50 in the final game behind the superlative play of Spencer Haywood.

World records, most of them by Americans, fell almost as quickly as arose controversies, incidents and demonstrations.

In the latter category, the most flagrant was by American sprinters Tommie Smith and John Carlos, both Negroes, who finished 1-3 in the 200-meter dash.

On the victory podium, after receiving their medals, they raised a black-gloved fist as a sign of racial protest and refused to look at the American flag as the Star Spangled Banner was played.

Under pressure from the International Olympic Committee and the group's re-elected president, 81-year-old Avery Brundage of Chicago, the U.S. Olympic Committee ordered the two athletes out of the Olympic Village and apolcgized to the world.

There were hints of under-the-counter payoffs to athletes by manufacturers of athletic goods, charges of fixed wrestling matches, a Dutch masseur was sent home for giving vitamins to his cyclists, a Bulgarian wrestler was disqualified for sniffing smelling salts.

The United States' athletes broke or tied eight world records in track and set four more in swimming.

By far the most outstanding record was a fantastic, 29 feet 2½ inch long jump by Bob Beamon of El Paso, Tex., breaking by almost two feet the previous record.

Al Oerter, 32, West Islip, N.Y., scored his fourth consecutive victory in the discus, a feat unmatched in history by a track and field athlete. His 212-6½ toss was about two feet better than he had ever thrown in his life and set an Olympic mark.

Bob Seagren, Los Angeles, won the pole vault at 17-8½, Lee Evans, San Jose, Calif., led a 1-2-3 U.S. sweep in the 400 meters, the Americans won both relays; Wyomia Tyus, Griffin, Ga., repeated as women's 100-meter champion and anchored a winning 400-meter relay team.

But there were upsets, too, with Kipchoge Keino of Kenya beating Kansan Jim Ryun in the 1,500 meters. Ryun, who holds the world mile and 1,500 meters records, was stricken with mononucleosis during the summer, was ill just before the Games and just didn't have it.

Keino's upset paced Kenya's surprising showing, with Wilson Kiprugut winning the 5,000 meters, Naftali Temu the 10,000 and that small country taking a total of nine track and field medals—better than Russia.

Russia's massive forces, 401 in all, closed quickly in the last two days, picking up medals by the handful in canoeing, boxing, wrestling and fencing.

But their gymnasts—who had clinched the total medal victory in previous Olympics—ran into trouble in the form of the Japanese, who dominated the men's events, and pert Miss Caslovska—now Mrs. Josef Odlovil.

She won four gold medals and a silver in women's gymnastics, then married a Czech runner she had met in previous competition.

The most dominant force in the Games, however, had to be the American swimmers. The U.S. water sprites, many of them teen-agers, swept to 1-2-3 finishes in five events and collected at least one medal in every one of the 33 championships.

Leading the charge were Charles Hickcox, 21, Phoenix, Ariz., three golds and a silver; Debbie Meyer, 16, Sacramento, Calif., three golds; Sue Pederson, 15, Sacramento, Calif., two golds and two silvers; Kaye Hall, 17, Tacoma, Wash., two golds and one bronze; Ken Walsh, 23, Ponte Verde, Fla., two golds and one silver.

"Debbie Meyer is only 16 and she hasn't reached her peak yet," he said. "And we have more of them on the way—10, 11 and 12 years old—and those we have now are just the best in the world."

Attracting just as much attention was America's basketball team, never beaten in Olympic competition. But this year, lacking most of the top collegiate stars, a rag-tag collection that many predicted would end American domination of the sport.

But Iba molded them into a precision outfit, the same play-for-the-good-shot team that has brought him more than 700 victories at Oklahoma State.

"We knew we were an underrated team," said Haywood a junior college player and the teams leading scorer and rebounder. "We felt we had something to prove."

They proved it.

Michigan State Surprises Notre Dame

By HERSCHEL NISSENSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

Who says statistics tell the story? Certainly not Ara Parseghian.

"That's meaningless," he said after his fifth-ranked Notre Dame football team outgained Michigan State 455 yards to 247 but still came out a 21-17 loser in the weekend's biggest upset.

Notre Dame was the foremost of the nation's Top Twenty teams to taste defeat Saturday. Other losers were ninth-ranked Miami, Fla., 10th-rated Syracuse, No. 17 Mississippi and Texas Tech, No. 19. Florida, ranked 15th, was held to a 14-14 tie by Vanderbilt.

Top-rated Southern California had the weekend off but the next three teams came through, although second-ranked Ohio State needed a four-yard touchdown pass from Ron Maciejowski to Jim Otis with 2½ minutes left to edge winless Illinois 31-24. Kansas No. 3, clobbered Iowa State 46-25 while No. 4 Penn State drubbed Boston College 29-0.

Sixth-ranked Tennessee was idle, No. 7 Purdue crushed Iowa 44-14, and eighth-rated Georgia belted Kentucky 35-14. Upstart Auburn mauled Miami, Fla., 31-6 behind Loran Carter's passing while Syracuse fell to 11th-ranked California 43-0. The Orangemen lost three fumbles and had six passes intercepted.

Michigan, ranked 12th, remained in a tie with Ohio State for the Big Ten lead by downing Minnesota 33-20. Chris Gilbert set a Southwest Conference career rushing record and led 13th-ranked Texas by Rice 38-14. Missouri had no trouble bombing Kansas State 56-20 to remain tied with Kansas in the Big Eight.

Arkansas, No. 16, held off North Texas State 17-15, Houston routed 17th-ranked Mississippi 29-7, Louisiana State, No. 18, nipped Texas Christian 10-7, Southern Methodist's Chuck Hixson, Jerry Levias and Bickey Lesser outpassed and outkicked No. 19 Texas Tech 39-18 to take the Southwest Conference lead and Florida State, No. 20, outlasted South Carolina 35-28 on the strength of Ron Sellers' four touchdown catches.

"I don't know when I've been more pleased with a team," smiled Duffy Daugherty of Michigan State after upsetting Notre Dame. "I don't know when I've seen a team fight harder. I don't know when I've seen a team rally like that after it looked like our great effort went for naught."

Tommy Love, who opened the scoring in the first period with an 11-yard run, closed it by bursting over from a yard out in the third quarter after Notre Dame had taken a 17-14 lead. Then, State's goal-line stand held Notre Dame on the MSU one in the final minute.

Love's first TD capped a 42-yard drive after the Spartans surprised the Irish with an onside kickoff to start the game and recovered it. Daugherty warned Friday night that he might pull such a stunt and said later, "Most of the time people don't take me seriously."

Parseghian did. "We talked to the team about it as we went out and they still were stupid," he said. "It was not a surprise. We even shouted about it from the sidelines."

Parseghian also was upset by the officials' failure to call what he thought was pass interference on an end zone pass from Terry Hanratty to Jim Seymour in the late going.

"He (Seymour) was out-and-out tackled before the ball got there," Parseghian said.

And the weekend saw the foot come still further back into football. Stefan Schroder of Pacific kicked field goals of 25, 31 and 59 yards in a 31-0, SMU's Lesser had a pair of 53-yarders and a 41-yarder against Texas Tech while California's Ron Miller booted for 50, 30 and 37 yards against Syracuse.

Hawks Whip Suns

Baylor Hits 20,000 As Lakers Win Easily

By The Associated Press

Bill Bridges didn't make a field goal and scored only four points, but he was the big reason the Atlanta Hawks beat the Phoenix Suns 123-100 Sunday night in a National Basketball Association game.

Bridges controlled the backboards in the second half when the Hawks broke the game open. He finished with 19 rebounds and a pro career high of 11 assists. Zelmo Beaty topped Atlanta scoring with 27 points. Gail Goodrich led Phoenix with 23.

Elgin Baylor, a 10-year NBA veteran, scored 32 points for Los Angeles and became only the third man in league history to go over 20,000 points. The others are teammate Wilt Chamberlain and retired Bob Pettit. Jerry West helped with the rout of San Diego by scoring 20 points.

Minnesota opened the defense of its ABA title, which it won last year in Pittsburgh, by breaking open the game late in the firs' period when Willie Porter scored nine straight points. Porter and Chico Vaughn each finished with 23 points for the Pipers. Les Hunter led Miami with 21.

New York beat Cincinnati 98-92, Boston topped Milwaukee 102-89, Philadelphia edged Chicago 122-118 and San Francisco nipped Baltimore 107-106 Saturday in the NBA.

Dayton Nips Toledo

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — Dayton's Sid Garant scored in the third period Sunday night to provide what proved to be the winning margin as the Gems took a 3-2 International Hockey League victory over Toledo.

Garant's goal added to second period scoring by teammates Bob Regis and Don Westbrooke to give the Gems a 3-1 lead. Toledo's Jim Sanko fired in his second goal of the night late in the third period to close the gap.

Russia finished with a total of 92 medals, 30 of them gold. In 1964 at Tokyo Russia led in total medals 96-90 while the United States led in golds, 36-30.

Naturally enough, there was an excuse for the Russian showing this year. It came from Gabriel Korobkov, the Soviet's track and field coach.

"Most of the world lives downstairs. They hold the Games upstairs," he said, referring to th 7,347-foot altitude of Mexico City. "It throws the Games out of balance."

Perhaps a more accurate explanation would be found in the almost incredible performance of the United States' swimming and diving team, along with the gymnastic exploits of Vera Caslavska of Czechoslovakia—the sweetheart of the Games—and Japan, which cut heavily into the Russian potential total.

The United States' swimmers and divers bagged 23 of the 33 gold medals and a total of 47 of the 89 medals up for grabs. Twelve more golds came in men's track and field, and three more in women's track and field—where the Russians failed to score a single gold.

The Americans also picked up two golds in boxing, two in sailing, one each in shooting and equestrian. And Henry Iba's superbly coached, pick-up basketball team, spurned by many of the top collegiate stars, continued its unbeaten string.

The U.S. basketball squad won the gold in convincing fashion, whipping Yugoslavia 65-50 in the final game behind the superlative play of Spencer Haywood.

World records, most of them by Americans, fell almost as quickly as arose controversies, incidents and demonstrations.

In the latter category, the most flagrant was by American sprinters Tommie Smith and John Carlos, both Negroes, who finished 1-3 in the 200-meter dash.

On the victory podium, after receiving their medals, they raised a black-gloved fist as a sign of racial protest and refused to look at the American flag as the Star Spangled Banner was played.

The incident threatened to split the American team, but other American negroes continued to compete—and win.

Under pressure from the International Olympic Committee and the group's re-elected president, 81-year-old Avery Brundage of Chicago, the U.S. Olympic Committee ordered the two athletes out of the Olympic Village and apolcgized to the world.

There were hints of under-the-counter payoffs to athletes by manufacturers of athletic goods, charges of fixed wrestling matches, a Dutch masseur was sent home for giving vitamins to his cyclists, a Bulgarian wrestler was disqualified for sniffing smelling salts.

The United States' athletes broke or tied eight world records in track and set four more in swimming.

By far the most outstanding record was a fantastic, 29 feet 2½ inch long jump by Bob Beamon of El Paso, Tex., breaking by almost two feet the previous record.

Al Oerter, 32, West Islip, N.Y., scored his fourth consecutive victory in the discus, a feat unmatched in history by a track and field athlete. His 212-6½ toss was about two feet better than he had ever thrown in his life and set an Olympic mark.

Bob Seagren, Los Angeles, won the pole vault at 17-8½, Lee Evans, San Jose, Calif., led a 1-2-3 U.S. sweep in the 400 meters, the Americans won both relays; Wyomia Tyus, Griffin, Ga., repeated as women's 100-meter champion and anchored a winning 400-meter relay team.

But there were upsets, too, with Kipchoge Keino of Kenya beating Kansan Jim Ryun in the 1,500 meters. Ryun, who holds the world mile and 1,500 meters records, was stricken with mononucleosis during the summer, was ill just before the Games and just didn't have it.

Keino's upset paced Kenya's surprising showing, with Wilson Kiprugut winning the 5,000 meters, Naftali Temu the 10,000 and that small country taking a total of nine track and field medals—better than Russia.

Russia's massive forces, 401 in all, closed quickly in the last two days, picking up medals by the handful in canoeing, boxing, wrestling and fencing.

But their gymnasts—who had clinched the total medal victory in previous Olympics—ran into trouble in the form of the Japanese, who dominated the men's events, and pert Miss Caslovska—now Mrs. Josef Odlovil.

She won four gold medals and a silver in women's gymnastics, then married a Czech runner she had met in previous competition.

The most dominant force in the Games, however, had to be the American swimmers. The U.S. water sprites, many of them teen-agers, swept to 1-2-3 finishes in five events and collected at least one medal in every one of the 33 championships.

Leading the charge were Charles Hickcox, 21, Phoenix, Ariz., three golds and a silver; Debbie Meyer, 16, Sacramento, Calif., three golds; Sue Pederson, 15, Sacramento, Calif., two golds and two silvers; Kaye Hall, 17, Tacoma, Wash., two golds and one bronze; Ken Walsh, 23, Ponte Verde, Fla., two golds and one silver.

"Debbie Meyer is only 16 and she hasn't reached her peak yet," he said. "And we have more of them on the way—10, 11 and 12 years old—and those we have now are just the best in the world."

Attracting just as much attention was America's basketball team, never beaten in Olympic competition. But this year, lacking most of the top collegiate stars, a rag-tag collection that many predicted would end American domination of the sport.

But Iba molded them into a precision outfit, the same play-for-the-good-shot team that has brought him more than 700 victories at Oklahoma State.

"We knew we were an underrated team," said Haywood a junior college player and the teams leading scorer and rebounder. "We felt we had something to prove."

They proved it.

Michigan State Surprises Notre Dame

By HERSCHEL NISSENSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

Who says statistics tell the story? Certainly not Ara Parseghian.

"That's meaningless," he said after his fifth-ranked Notre Dame football team outgained Michigan State 455 yards to 247 but still came out a 21-17 loser in the weekend's biggest upset.

Notre Dame was the foremost of the nation's Top Twenty teams to taste defeat Saturday. Other losers were ninth-ranked Miami, Fla., 10th-rated Syracuse, No. 17 Mississippi and Texas Tech, No. 19. Florida, ranked 15th, was held to a 14-14 tie by Vanderbilt.

Top-rated Southern California had the weekend off but the next three teams came through, although second-ranked Ohio State needed a four-yard touchdown pass from Ron Maciejowski to Jim Otis with 2½ minutes left to edge winless Illinois 31-24. Kansas No. 3, clobbered Iowa State 46-25 while No. 4 Penn State drubbed Boston College 29-0.

Sixth-ranked Tennessee was idle, No. 7 Purdue crushed Iowa 44-14, and eighth-rated Georgia belted Kentucky 35-14. Upstart Auburn mauled Miami, Fla., 31-6 behind Loran Carter's passing while Syracuse fell to 11th-ranked California 43-0. The Orangemen lost three fumbles and had six passes intercepted.

Michigan, ranked 12th, remained in a tie with Ohio State for the Big Ten lead by downing Minnesota 33-20. Chris Gilbert set a Southwest Conference career rushing record and led 13th-ranked Texas by Rice 38-14. Missouri had no trouble bombing Kansas State 56-20 to remain tied with Kansas in the Big Eight.

Arkansas, No. 16, held off North Texas State 17-15, Houston routed 17th-ranked Mississippi 29-7, Louisiana State, No. 18, nipped Texas Christian 10-7, Southern Methodist's Chuck Hixson, Jerry Levias and Bickey Lesser outpassed and outkicked No. 19 Texas Tech 39-18 to take the Southwest Conference lead and Florida State, No. 20, outlasted South Carolina 35-28 on the strength of Ron Sellers' four touchdown catches.

"I don't know when I've been more pleased with a team," smiled Duffy Daugherty of Michigan State after upsetting Notre Dame. "I don't know when I've seen a team fight harder. I don't know when I've seen a team rally like that after it looked like our great effort went for naught."

Tommy Love, who opened the scoring in the first period with an 11-yard run, closed it by bursting over from a yard out in the third quarter after Notre Dame had taken a 17-14 lead. Then, State's goal-line stand held Notre Dame on the MSU one in the final minute.

Love's first TD capped a 42-yard drive after the Spartans surprised the Irish with an onside kickoff to start the game and recovered it. Daugherty warned Friday night that he might pull such a stunt and said later, "Most of the time people don't take me seriously."

Parseghian did. "We talked to the team about it as we went out and they still were stupid," he said. "It was not a surprise. We even shouted about it from the sidelines."

Parseghian also was upset by the officials' failure to call what he thought was pass interference on an end zone pass from Terry Hanratty to Jim Seymour in the late going.

"He (Seymour) was out-and-out tackled before the ball got there," Parseghian said.

And the weekend saw the foot come still further back into football. Stefan Schroder of Pacific kicked field goals of 25, 31 and 59 yards in a 31-0, SMU's Lesser had a pair of 53-yarders and a 41-yarder against Texas Tech while California's Ron Miller booted for 50, 30 and 37 yards against Syracuse.

Hawks Whip Suns

Baylor Hits 20,000 As Lakers Win Easily

By The Associated Press

Bill Bridges didn't make a field goal and scored only four points, but he was the big reason the Atlanta Hawks beat the Phoenix Suns 123-100 Sunday night in a National Basketball Association game.

Bridges controlled the backboards in the second half when the Hawks broke the game open. He finished with 19 rebounds and a pro career high of 11 assists. Zelmo Beatty topped Atlanta scoring with 27 points. Gail Goodrich led Phoenix with 23.

Elgin Baylor, a 10-year NBA veteran, scored 32 points for Los Angeles and became only the third man in league history to go over 20,000 points. The others are teammate Wilt Chamberlain and retired Bob Pettit. Jerry West helped with the rout of San Diego by scoring 20 points.

Baltimore built a 70-48 halftime lead and then coasted home against Seattle. Earl Monroe paced the winners with 32 points. Tom Meschery led Seattle with 22.

Minnesota opened the defense of its ABA title, which it won last year in Pittsburgh, by breaking open the game late in the first period when Willie Porter scored nine straight points. Porter and Chico Vaughn each finished with 23 points for the Pipers. Les Hunter led Miami with 21.

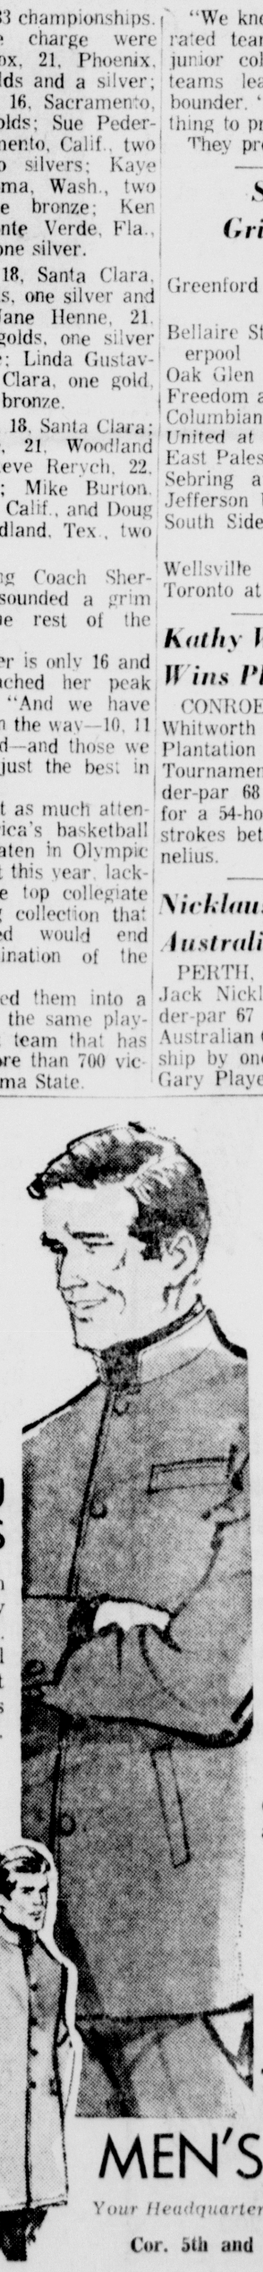

New York beat Cincinnati 98-92, Boston topped Milwaukee 102-89, Philadelphia edged Chicago 122-118 and San Francisco nipped Baltimore 107-106 Saturday in the NBA.

Dayton Nips Toledo

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — Dayton's Sid Garant scored in the third period Sunday night to provide what proved to be the winning margin as the Gems took a 3-2 International Hockey League victory over Toledo.

Garant's goal added to second period scoring by teammates Bob Regis and Don Westbrooke to give the Gems a 3-1 lead. Toledo's Jim Sanko fired in his second goal of the night late in the third period to close the gap.

Boston Stops Montreal

Toronto Tops New York, Closes In On NHL Lead

By The Associated Press

Punch Imlach used his third netminder in as many games Sunday night and came away a winner for the third straight time when the Toronto Maple Leafs whipped New York 5-3.

Combined with Montreal's first loss of the season, 4-2 at Boston, it left Toronto just two points out of first place in the National Hockey League's East Division.

In other Sunday night games, Gordie Howe scored twice and Detroit edged Chicago 4-3, and Philadelphia and Oakland played a 2-2 tie.

On Saturday, Toronto, with goalie Johnny Bower making his first start of the season, shut out Boston 2-0, New York blanked Minnesota 3-0, Los Angeles ripped Philadelphia 6-2 and Pittsburgh stopped St. Louis 4-2.

The Rangers expected to see 44-year-old Johnny in the nets Sunday. But Imlach left Bower in Toronto, announced that Al Smith, a rookie who worked Toronto's first four games, would start, and then sent Bruce Gamble out.

Stanfield's first period power play ended a Boston scoreless string of 116 minutes, 57 seconds, and he scored another goal in the second period. Phil Esposito and Eddie Shack also scored 37 seconds apart in the middle session. Ralph Backstrom and Jacques Lemaire hit for the Canadiens.

Howe turned two Alex Delvecchio setups into his third and fourth goals of the season as the Red Wings whipped Chicago. The Hawks made it close when the Hull brothers, Bobby and Dennis, scored 41 seconds apart midway through the third period.

Stan Mikita, the NHL's leading scorer, hit his fifth goal and 16th point of the season for Chicago while Gary Unger and Frank Mahovlich were Detroit's other scorers.

Joe Szura's goal early in the third period enabled Oakland to salvage its deadlock with Philadelphia. Ed Van Impe and Jim Johnson produced the Flyers' goals while Carol Vadnais was the other Seals' marksman.

Cleveland Barons Fall To Rochester

ROCHESTER, N.Y. (AP) — The Rochester Americans took advantage of Cleveland penalties to score all their goals Sunday night in a come-from-behind 3-2 American Hockey League victory.

The Barons led 2-1 in the final period. But Rochester had a man advantage for the first two minutes of the finale and Tom McCarthy trickled one in. Just seconds later, Ron Ward drove home the winning goal.

Grid Yogis Stumble, Consensus Only 6-4

Individual efforts ranged from a 7-3 mark by Pete Weaver to a 3-7 debacle by Bob Duffy. Two games fooled everybody, Beaver Local's 32-6 win over Southern Local and Lisbon's 22-20 win over Leetonia.

Ed Clutter, who went 5-5 for the week, was the only seer to forecast the Colts' 27-10 win over the Rams. Clutter and Weaver were alone in seeing Western Beaver's 19-6 win over South Side Beaver.

Duffy was alone in picking Boardman, a 50-14 loser to East Liverpool. Duffy, Clutter and Bob Shaffer missed with Oak Glen, a 19-14 loser to Allegany (Md.); and Duffy, Shaffer and Rose Nuzzo fell with the Chargers, 27-20 losers to the Chiefs. Clutter and Nuzzo were wrong on Midland, a 27-18 loser to New Brighton.

Everyone was right on Weirton Madonna, a 42-8 winner over Wellsville, and Columbiana, a 22-6 winner over United. Turk Pierce and Chuck Campbell maintained their precarious positions at the head of the pack with 6-4 marks.

Ohio University running back Dick Conley and quarterback Cleve Bryant are within striking distance of career milestones in their specialties. Conley, a senior, is 322 yards shy of having gained one mile rushing; Bryant, a junior, needs 178 yards passing to reach the aerial mile mark.

ZAGULA IS THE MAN FOR PROSECUTOR

Dear Ladies and Gentlemen
Of Hancock County:

My young "fill-in" opponent Dean DeLaMater has never personally sought public office before so his political immaturity is to be expected. I am surprised, however, that he has already shown the nervous strains of campaigning just several weeks after being handed the Republican nomination. You see, he did not run for this office on his own.

The wild and untrue accusations contained in his political advertisements appearing in this paper On recent Dates contained much insulting and defamatory innuendo. Many of you know that my family and I, for over forty years, have earned the respect of our community and enjoy a good reputation as citizens of Hancock County. Perhaps my opponent personally is unaware of this because of his relatively recent arrival on the scene.

My opponent is very much and painfully aware of my ability as a trial lawyer but that is less important than the fact that my ability as a trial lawyer is well known to you.

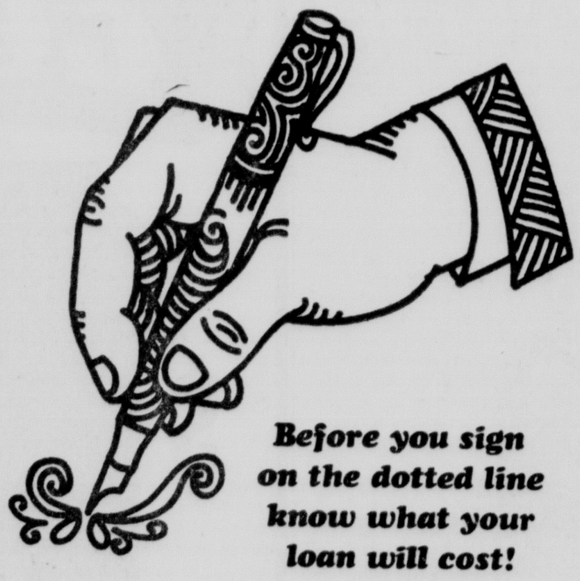

It is an undisputable fact that Ed Zagula wears no man's yoke. You can recognize and evaluate the worth of wild intemperate political drivel. In my opinion, my immature opponent's zeal in attempting to vilify my reputation has already carried him dangerously to the point of libel. I promise you that I shall not dignify his childish tantrums by replying in kind. I further promise my "fill-in" opponent that if he will forgo telling lies about me I shall not tell the truth about him.

Truthfully Yours,
Edward A Zagula
Edward A. Zagula

I PROMISE TO CONTINUE TO BE YOUR MAN FOR PROSECUTING ATTORNEY AND NOT ANYONE'S MANIKIN.

Boston Stops Montreal

Toronto Tops New York, Closes In On NHL Lead

By The Associated Press

Punch Imlach used his third netminder in as many games Sunday night and came away a winner for the third straight time when the Toronto Maple Leafs whipped New York 5-3.

Combined with Montreal's first loss of the season, 4-2 at Boston, it left Toronto just two points out of first place in the National Hockey League's East Division.

In other Sunday night games, Gordie Howe scored twice and Detroit edged Chicago 4-3, and Philadelphia and Oakland played a 2-2 tie.

On Saturday, Toronto, with goalie Johnny Bower making his first start of the season, shut out Boston 2-0, New York blanked Minnesota 3-0, Los Angeles ripped Philadelphia 6-2 and Pittsburgh stopped St. Louis 4-2.

The Rangers expected to see 44-year-old Johnny in the nets Sunday. But Imlach left Bower in Toronto, announced that Al Smith, a rookie who worked Toronto's first four games, would start, and then sent Bruce Gamble out.

Stanfield's first period power play ended a Boston scoreless string of 116 minutes, 57 seconds, and he scored another goal in the second period. Phil Esposito and Eddie Shack also scored 37 seconds apart in the middle session. Ralph Backstrom and Jacques Lemaire hit for the Canadiens.

Howe turned two Alex Delvecchio setups into his third and fourth goals of the season as the Red Wings whipped Chicago. The Hawks made it close when the Hull brothers, Bobby and Dennis, scored 41 seconds apart midway through the third period.

Stan Mikita, the NHL's leading scorer, hit his fifth goal and 16th point of the season for Chicago while Gary Unger and Frank Mahovlich were Detroit's other scorers.

Joe Szura's goal early in the third period enabled Oakland to salvage its deadlock with Philadelphia. Ed Van Impe and Jim Johnson produced the Flyers' goals while Carol Vadnais was the other Seals' marksman.

Cleveland Barons Fall To Rochester

ROCHESTER, N.Y. (AP) — The Rochester Americans took advantage of Cleveland penalties to score all their goals Sunday night in a come-from-behind 3-2 American Hockey League victory.

The Barons led 2-1 in the final period. But Rochester had a man advantage for the first two minutes of the finale and Tom McCarthy trickled one in. Just seconds later, Ron Ward drove home the winning goal.

Grid Yogis Stumble, Consensus Only 6-4

The Review Grid Yogis posted their worst week of the season, with the consensus going only 6-4.

Individual efforts ranged from a 7-3 mark by Pete Weaver to a 3-7 debacle by Bob Duffy. Two games fooled everybody, Beaver Local's 32-6 win over Southern Local and Lisbon's 22-20 win over Leetonia.

Ed Clutter, who went 5-5 for the week, was the only seer to forecast the Colts' 27-10 win over the Rams. Clutter and Weaver were alone in seeing Western Beaver's 19-6 win over South Side Beaver.

Duffy was alone in picking Boardman, a 50-14 loser to East Liverpool. Duffy, Clutter and Bob Shaffer missed with Oak Glen, a 19-14 loser to Allegany (Md.); and Duffy, Shaffer and Rose Nuzzo fell with the Chargers, 27-20 losers to the Chiefs. Clutter and Nuzzo were wrong on Midland, a 27-18 loser to New Brighton.

Everyone was right on Weirton Madonna, a 42-8 winner over Wellsville, and Columbiana, a 22-6 winner over United. Turk Pierce and Chuck Campbell maintained their precarious positions at the head of the pack with 6-4 marks.

ZAGULA
FOR PROSECUTOR

Dear Ladies and Gentlemen
Of Hancock County:

My young "fill-in" opponent Dean DeLaMater has never personally sought public office before so his political immaturity is to be expected. I am surprised, however, that he has already shown the nervous strains of campaigning just several weeks after being handed the Republican nomination. You see, he did not run for this office on his own.

The wild and untrue accusations contained in his political advertisements appearing in this paper On recent Dates contained much insulting and defamatory innuendo. Many of you know that my family and I, for over forty years, have earned the respect of our community and enjoy a good reputation as citizens of Hancock County. Perhaps my opponent personally is unaware of this because of his relatively recent arrival on the scene.

My opponent is very much and painfully aware of my ability as a trial lawyer but that is less important than the fact that my ability as a trial lawyer is well known to you.

It is an undisputable fact that Ed Zagula wears no man's yoke. You can recognize and evaluate the worth of wild intemperate political drivel. In my opinion, my immature opponent's zeal in attempting to vilify my reputation has already carried him dangerously to the point of libel. I promise you that I shall not dignify his childish tantrums by replying in kind. I further promise my "fill-in" opponent that if he will forgo telling lies about me I shall not tell the truth about him.

Truthfully Yours,

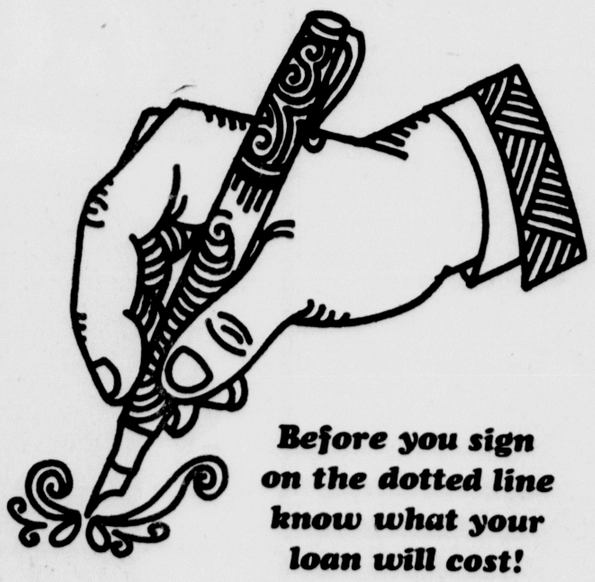

Edward A Zagula

Edward A. Zagula

I PROMISE TO CONTINUE TO BE YOUR MAN FOR PROSECUTING ATTORNEY AND NOT ANYONE'S MANIKIN.

Missing Guests

PRETORIA, South Africa (AP) — No representative of the South African government was among 300 guests who attended the U.S. Embassy's Independence Day reception. South Africa officially ignores multiracial diplomatic gatherings and Africans, Asians and coloreds (mulattos) were among guests at the affair.

LEGAL ADVERTISEMENT

Sealed Proposals will be received by the Board of County Commissioners of Columbiana County at the Office of the Clerk of the Board of County Commissioners, Court House, Lisbon, Columbiana County, Ohio until 12:00 Noon, E.S.T. on the 4th day of November 1968, and opened immediately thereafter for furnishing the material and performing the labor for the execution and construction of the Robert Bycroft School for the Retarded. Separate Proposals will be received for:

1. Loose Equipment Contract
2. Kitchen Equipment Contract

in accordance with the Plans and Specifications prepared by Robert F. Beatty, Architect, 403 Potters Savings and Loan Building, East Liverpool, Ohio and on file in the Office of the Clerk of the Board of County Commissioners of Columbiana County, Court House, Lisbon Columbiana County, Ohio.

One set of plans and specifications and proposal blanks, together with any further information desired, may be secured from the Office of the Architect upon deposit of a check in the amount of $15.00 made payable to the Architect.

Upon receipt of a request, accompanied by a deposit as named above, the Architect will forward copies of bidding documents as named in the preceeding paragraph "SHIPPING CHARGES COLLECT".

Deposit will be refunded upon the return of plans and specifications in good condition, and with postage or express charges prepaid, within ten (10) days after the date the bids are opened. Deposit will not be refunded upon return of documents at a later date.

Each bid shall be accompanied by a Bid Bond in an amount equal to the total sum of the Proposal including all Add Alternates, supported by a Power of Attorney for the bonding agent, a certificate from the Department of Insurance authorizing the Surety Company to do Surety Business in the State of Ohio, and a current financial statement of the Surety Company. The Bid Bond will be retained by Architect's office for thirty days after the opening of bids. All Bid Bonds (with the exception of Bid Bonds of the successful Bidders) will be destroyed after thirty days unless Contractor requests Architect to return his Bid Bond prior to expiration of the thirty day period following Bid Opening.

A Proposal shall be invalid and not considered unless a Bond with sufficient sureties, in a sum equal to one hundred percent (100 percent) of the total sum of the Proposal including all Add Alternates,

LEGAL NOTICE

Bids are to be sealed and addressed to the "Clerk of the Board of County Commissioners of Columbiana County, Columbiana County Court House, Lisbon, Ohio", and plainly marked on the outside of the envelope:

"Bids for the Robert Bycroft School for the Retarded".

The Board of County Commissioners of Columbiana County reserves the right to reject any and all bids.

Missing Guests

PRETORIA, South Africa (AP) — No representative of the South African government was among 300 guests who attended the U.S. Embassy's Independence Day reception. South Africa officially ignores multiracial diplomatic gatherings and Africans, Asians and coloreds (mulattos) were among guests at the affair.

LEGAL ADVERTISEMENT

Sealed Proposals will be received by the Board of County Commissioners of Columbiana County at the Office of the Clerk of the Board of County Commissioners, Court House, Lisbon, Columbiana County, Ohio until 12:00 Noon, E.S.T. on the 4th day of November 1968, and opened immediately thereafter for furnishing the material and performing the labor for the execution and construction of the Robert Bycroft School for the Retarded. Separate Proposals will be received for:

1. Loose Equipment Contract
2. Kitchen Equipment Contract

in accordance with the Plans and Specifications prepared by Robert F. Beatty, Architect, 403 Potters Savings and Loan Building, East Liverpool, Ohio and on file in the Office of the Clerk of the Board of County Commissioners of Columbiana County, Court House, Lisbon Columbiana County, Ohio.

One set of plans and specifications and proposal blanks, together with any further information desired, may be secured from the Office of the Architect upon deposit of a check in the amount of $15.00 made payable to the Architect.

Upon receipt of a request, accompanied by a deposit as named above, the Architect will forward copies of bidding documents as named in the preceeding paragraph "SHIPPING CHARGES COLLECT".

Deposit will be refunded upon the return of plans and specifications in good condition, and with postage or express charges prepaid, within ten (10) days after the date the bids are opened. Deposit will not be refunded upon return of documents at a later date.

Each bid shall be accompanied by a Bid Bond in an amount equal to the total sum of the Proposal including all Add Alternates, supported by a Power of Attorney for the bonding agent, a certificate from the Department of Insurance authorizing the Surety Company to do Surety Business in the State of Ohio, and a current financial statement of the Surety Company. The Bid Bond will be retained by Architect's office for thirty days after the opening of bids. All Bid Bonds (with the exception of Bid Bonds of the successful Bidders) will be destroyed after thirty days unless Contractor requests Architect to return his Bid Bond prior to expiration of the thirty day period following Bid Opening.

A Proposal shall be invalid and not considered unless a Bond with sufficient sureties, in a sum equal to one hundred percent (100 percent) of the total sum of the Proposal including all Add Alternates is filed with such Proposal, nor unless such Proposal and Bond are filed in one sealed envelope.

Bids are to be sealed and addressed to the "Clerk of the Board of County Commissioners of Columbiana County, Columbiana County Court House, Lisbon, Ohio", and plainly marked on the outside of the envelope:

The Board of County Commissioners of Columbiana County reserves the right to reject any and all bids.

Junior Editors Quiz on OVENS

QUESTION: Who discovered ovens?

* * *

ANSWER: When early men found they could make a kind of crude bread by crushing grain, they cooked it on flat, heated stones. It is thought that floating spores from yeast plants may have settled on masses of dough and developed within it, making it much lighter and fluffier. Then the Egyptians discovered that such lighter bread tasted better when cooked slowly in a hot enclosed area. This led them to construct the first ovens. We still use the oven principle, although for more than just bread. Notice the Navajo women with her oven of adobe. Large brick-lined ovens were important in American Colonial days. Hot fires of brushwood were built inside such an oven, heating the brick. When the fire died down, the ashes were raked out and food put in and allowed to bake slowly. Dutch ovens were like pans on stilts which were covered with a lid and then with hot coals. In our modern ovens, we can bake or roast many kinds of food. We still need hot dry air, but since we have no heated brick sides we use some degree of gas or electric heat to keep the air hot enough.

Today In History

By The Associated Press

On this date in 1962, Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev backed down in the Cuban confrontation and said he had ordered the withdrawal of Soviet missiles from Cuba.

On this date:

Ten years ago — The Roman Catholic patriarch of Venice was elected Pope. He took the name of John XXIII.

One year ago — President Johnson turned over 437 acres of disputed land known as El Chamizal to Mexico's President Gustavo Diaz Ordaz in a ceremony at Ciudad Juarez, Mexico.
